Music has the power to bring people together. It helps us have a better understanding of the world in which we live, in all its wonderful diversity. The songs and rhymes of children most of all! In Kid Songs Around The World we've gathered 100 of our favorites from all the continents of the globe. We start in Africa, with welcome songs, circle dances and call-and-response tunes. Then, we move on to Asia, with songs of friendship, love and play. Then Australia and the islands of Oceania, where you can learn songs about the sea. The songs from Europe include well-known characters like the Sandman and Little Red Ridinghood. From North America you can find an Iroquois lullaby and both English and French Canadian songs. We end with South America where the music is tinged with African and Spanish influences. Each song includes the full text in the original language, with an English translation, and most include sheet music. All include links to web pages where you can listen to recordings, hear the tune or watch a YouTube performance. Each includes a beautiful illustration. Many have commentary sent to us by our correspondents who write about the history of the songs and what they meant in their lives. Kid Songs Around The World is produced by Mama Lisa's World, where we believe sharing our cultures will help bring the world closer together. At Mama Lisa's World we work with ordinary people around the globe to build a platform paper. Don't fret too much if your child colors outside the lines. He/she will only improve with more practice and coloring pages!

Drawing comes with several benefits. One of these is the development of fine motor skills that will aid in the completion of tasks involving object manipulation by hand. As your child draws, he/she begins to express what he/she imagines. Objects are given careful details so features are learned. This way, you can understand what your child creates. How are your child's drawing skills now?

What better combination than 100 ways for young children to learn how much God loves them and 100 songs they can sing to show how much they love him back? This easy-to-read text and colorful art will have children eager to find out how much God loves them and to sing their loving praise back to God.
