but less attention given to how core disciplinary studies should be considered within that context. This book is based on a major 4-year research study of history and physics in the changing environment of schools and universities in Australia. Are these forms of knowledge still valuable for students? Are they complementary to, or at odds with the concerns about '21st century skills', interdisciplinary and collaborative research teams, employability and 'learner-centred' education? How do those who work in these fields see changes in their disciplines and in their work environment? And what are the similarities and differences between the experiences of teachers and academics in physics and those in history? The book draws on interviews with 115 school teachers and university academics to provide new perspectives on two important issues. Firstly, how, for the purposes of today's schools and universities, can we adequately understand knowledge and knowledge building over time? Secondly, what has been productive and what has been counter-productive in recent efforts to steer and manage the changes in Australia?

Present Your Research to the World! The World Congress 2009 on Medical Physics and Biomedical Engineering – the triennial scientific meeting of the IUPESM - is the world's leading forum for presenting the results of current scientific work in health-related physics and technologies to an international audience. With more than 2,800 presentations it will be the biggest conference in the fields of Medical Physics and Biomedical Engineering in 2009! Medical physics, biomedical engineering and bioengineering have been driving forces of innovation and progress in medicine and healthcare over the past two decades. As new key technologies arise with significant potential to open new options in diagnostics and therapeutics, it is a multidisciplinary task to evaluate their benefit for medicine and healthcare with respect to the quality of performance and therapeutic output. Covering key aspects such as information and communication technologies, micro- and nanosystems, optics and biotechnology, the congress will serve as an inter- and multidisciplinary platform that brings together people from basic research, R&D, industry and medical application to discuss these issues. As a major event for science, medicine and technology

Have you ever wondered how a telescope brings objects closer or how cameras take pictures? How boats float or aeroplanes fly? All of these seemingly complicated things can be explained by basic science. With the help of this book, you will construct many weird, wonderful and wacky experiments that you can have hours of fun with! Is the deadline for your science fair project quickly approaching? Not to worry, the 'Last Minute Science Fair Ideas' series is written in an easy to follow format that will guide you to create an exciting science project for the upcoming fair. The science projects in each of the books of this 4-volume series are conveniently sorted according to the approximate time required to complete each experiment. The 80 projects contained in this science experiment e-book cover a wide range of scientific topics; from Chemistry and Electricity to Life Sciences and Physics... there are even experiments on earth science, astronomy and geology all designed for science students from grade 1 to 8! With this book, you are sure to find a project that interests you. When you are interested in a certain science topic, you will have more fun, and learn more, too! Amongst many others, you will make a depth graph using the principles of echo-location to understand how sound travels, construct a simple gyro to see how objects fly, make pulleys, levers and gears to experiment with mechanics, and make a homemade electroscope to learn about the attraction & repulsion forces of magnetism! Other fun experiments include: mixing lemon juice and baking soda to make an endothermic reaction, calculating the viscosity factor of various liquids, telling the time with your own water clock, testing if marble is present in rock samples, using a solar powered calculator to measure light levels, removing static charges in clothing, Building a simple submarine, thaumatrope, air pressure rocket and many, many more! When making these gadgets, you'll discover that science is a part of every object in our daily lives, and who knows, maybe someday you will become a famous inventor too! Designed with safety in mind, most of the items you will need for the experiments, such as jars, aluminium foil, scissors and sticky tape, you can find around your home. Others, such as magnets, lenses or a compass, you will be able to buy quite cheaply at a hobby shop or hardware store.

The CBSE has made certain changes in the assessment structure from the session 2019-20 onwards. In the new scheme of examination, CCE and term system has been replaced with the Internal Assessment & Single Annual Exam by CBSE itself. Single exam conducted by CBSE will carry 80 marks whereas 20 marks are left to the schools for internal assessment. CBSE has issued detailed guidelines on how the internal marks will be divided among different activities. From 2019 onwards, there will be internal choices in board examinations with increased internal options in the question paper. Considering this change, now a student has to prepare accordingly for board examinations. The new assessment format brought with it excitement as well as anxiety. And to help them prepare and

Authored by Openstax College CC-BY An OER Edition by Textbook Equity Edition: 2012 This text is intended for one-year introductory courses requiring algebra and some trigonometry, but no calculus. College Physics is organized such that topics are introduced conceptually with a steady progression to precise definitions and analytical applications. The analytical aspect (problem solving) is tied back to the conceptual before moving on to another topic. Each introductory chapter, for example, opens with an engaging photograph relevant to the subject of the chapter and interesting applications that are easy for most students to visualize. For manageability the original text is available in three volumes. Full color PDF's are free at www.textbookequity.org
