Lavishly illustrated with over 300 pictures, including more than 200 in full color, The Oxford History of Islam offers the most wide-ranging and authoritative account available of the second largest--and fastest growing--religion in the world. John L. Esposito, Editor-in-Chief of the four-volume Oxford Encyclopedia of the Modern Islamic World, has gathered together sixteen leading scholars, both Muslim and non-Muslim, to examine the origins and historical development of Islam--its faith, community, institutions, sciences, and arts. Beginning in the pre-Islamic Arab world, the chapters range from the story of Muhammad and his Companions, to the development of Islamic religion and culture and the empires that grew from it, to the influence that Islam has on today's world. The book covers a wide array of subjects, casting light on topics such as the historical encounter of Islam and Christianity, the role of Islam in the Mughal and Ottoman empires, the growth of Islam in Southeast Asia, China, and Africa, the political, economic, and religious challenges of European imperialism in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries, and Islamic communities in the modern Western world. In addition, the book offers excellent articles on Islamic religion, art and architecture, and sciences as well as bibliographies. Events in the contemporary world have led to an explosion of interest and scholarly work on Islam. Written for the general reader but also appealing to specialists, The Oxford History of Islam offers the best of that recent scholarship, presented in a readable style and complemented by a rich variety of illustrations.

This is besides locating areas where the incidents of the prophetic Seerah occurred. Eventually the diligent reader will easily recognize those places, learn about them, and take heed of them while reciting. Eventually the diligent reader will easily recognize those places, learn about them, and take heed of them while reciting. The Atlas has also revealed obscure places we used to pass through inattentively, like the site where Nuh's Ark settled, the site of the curved Sand-hills {Al Ahqah}, the cave of the young faithful men, the houses of median, the site of Sodom and other places determined by the Atlas depending on reliable sources. Thus the Atlas eliminates all the guessing and the fantasies we used to encounter when reciting the Noble Quran, and takes us to the specific place.

Seorang laki-laki tua datang kepada saya, rambutnya sudah memutih karena usia, setelah bersalaman ia pun berucap, "Pak Ustadz, ketika bangkit dari ruku', saya selalu mengucapkan 'Sami'allahu li man hamidah'. Kata penceramah di kampung saya, ma'mum yang melakukan perbuatan seperti itu, maka shalatnya batal. Bagaimanakah shalat saya selama ini?". Dalam sebuah pengajian, terlihat seorang jamaah yang melaksanakan shalat, ketika Takbiratullhram ia angkat kedua tangannya setinggi-tingginya, setiap kali tegak bangun dari sujud ia kembali mengangkat kedua tangannya. Seorang muslim yang hidup bernafas karena nikmat dan karunia Allah, detak jantungnya karena qudrat dan iradat Allah, tapi tidak pernah mau menempelkan dahinya untuk bersimpuh sujud ke hadirat Allah. Tiga kasus di atas memberikan gambaran kepada kita tentang potret ummat saat ini. Saya berharap, meskipun jauh dari kesempurnaan, mudah-mudahan buku kecil ini dapat memberikan jawaban untuk ketiganya. Saya kemas dalam bentuk tanya-jawab untuk memudahkan pembaca. Biasanya, ketika membaca pertanyaan, akal bekerja ingin mencari jawaban, saat itulah jawaban datang, mudah-mudahan lebih merasuk ke dalam hati dan akal. Saya sebutkan beberapa pendapat mazhab, bukan untuk mengacaukan amalan ummat selama ini, akan tetapi untuk mengetahui bahwa pendapat itu banyak dan masing-masing memiliki dalil, sikap menghormati akan menguatkan ukhuwwah umat ini. Buku kecil dan sederhana ini jauh dari kesempurnaan, masih perlu kritik yang membangun dari pembaca. Semoga menjadi bahan kritikan bagi para ulama, dapat menjadi insipari bagi para pemula, menjadi bekal amal ketika menghadap Yang Maha Kuasa. Pekanbaru, 18 Mei 2013 H. Abdul Somad, Lc., MA.

This study examines the emergence of new forms of Islamic spirituality in Indonesia identified as Majlis Dhikr. These Majlis Dhikr groups have proliferated on Java in the last two decades, both in urban and rural areas, and have attracted followers from a wide social background. The diverse aspects of these Majlis Dhikr groups - their rituals, teachings and strategies of dissemination as well as the popular understanding of these rituals and their contestation by critics and opponents - are examined in detail and illustrated by reference to three particular groups - Salawat Wahidiyat, Istighathat Ihsaniyyat and Dhikr al-Ghafilin each of which has its own distinctive features and notable religious leadership. These Majlis Dhikr groups regard their activities as legitimate ritual practices that are in accordance with the legacy of Islamic Sufism based on the interpretation of the Qur'anic and Prophetic tradition.

Sungguh celaka jika amalan shalat kita selama ini persis sebagaimana disebutkan hadis di atas. Namun faktanya, masih banyak dari kita yang mengerjakan shalat sekadar untuk menggugurkan kewajiban, tidak di awal waktu, tidak berjamaah (bagi laki-laki), tidka khusyuk, tidak memahami setiap bacaan shalat, dan selalu tergesa-gesa saat mengerjakannya. Jika masih seperti ini, yakin shalat kita akan diterima allah? Buku ini menawarkan kiat praktis agar kita dapat memperbaiki kualitas shalat kita. Penulis membimbing kita untuk memahami kedalaman makna dan filosofi shalat, memahami dan meresapi setiap bacaan dalam shalat, dan memperbaiki setiap gerakan shalat yang kita lakukan. Dengan memperbaiki ini semua, shalat khusyuk akan mudah kita raih. Jika kualitas shalat kita telah baik, maka yakinlah, Allah akan memperbaiki kehidupan kita. Insya Allah. Buku persembahan penerbit WahyuQolbu Published in Indonesia in 2005, The Rainbow Troops, Andrea Hirata's closely autobiographical debut novel, sold more than five million copies, shattering records. Now it promises to captivate audiences around the globe. Ikal is a student at the poorest village school on the Indonesian island of Belitung, where graduating from sixth grade is considered a remarkable achievement. His school is under constant threat of closure. In fact, Ikal and his friends—a group nicknamed the Rainbow Troops—face threats from every angle: skeptical government officials, greedy corporations hardly distinguishable from the colonialism they've replaced, deepening poverty and crumbling infrastructure, and their own low self-confidence. But the students also have hope, which comes in the form of two extraordinary teachers, and Ikal's education in and out of the classroom is an uplifting one. We root for him and his friends as they defy the island's powerful tin mine officials. We meet his first love, the unseen girl who sells chalk from behind a shop screen, whose pretty hands capture Ikal's heart. We cheer for Lintang, the class's barefoot math genius, as he bests the students of the mining corporation's school in an academic challenge. Above all, we gain an intimate acquaintance with the customs and people of the world's largest Muslim society. This is classic storytelling in the spirit of Khaled Hosseini's The Kite Runner: an engrossing depiction of a milieu we have never encountered before, bursting with charm and verve.

pada era milenial, dakwah mesti mengkaji philosophy of technology semacam teknologi dakwah atau digitalisasi dakwah, bukan hanya untuk kepentingan pragmatis agar para da'i dapat memanfaatkan kemajuan teknologi informasi dan komunikasi untuk dakwah, melainkan juga untuk kepentingan yang lebih mendasar dan fundamental, yakni memberi perspektif Islam tentang teknologi dan penggunaannya dalam kehidupan, agar teknologi, sebut saja internet dan media sosial yang sudah mewabah secara global, tidak disalahgunakan untuk maksud-maksud jahat, semacam fitnah, hoax, fake news, ujaran kebencian, terorisme, dan tindakan tercela lainnya. Pada era milenial, tugas dakwah menjadi semakin berat dan luas. Para da'i harus menegakkan amar makruf nahi munkar sebagai bagian penting dari dakwah tidak saja dalam realitas objektif, tetapi juga dalam realitas virtual dalam "alam jagat raya" bernama cyber space yang tak bertepi dan tak bertuan. Buku ini menawarkan gagasan-gagasan baru untuk menjawab peluang dan keperluan dakwah era milenial. Wallâhu a'lam! Buku persembahan penerbit PrenadaMedia

In order for the Islamic Ummah to progress in any manner we must throw off the shackles of Western culture. There is a great temptation to take on the label of "reactionary" that the West has assigned us.

We may merely reject anything and everything that is modern and new and attribute it to Western culture. It is essential that we learn to identify those elements of Western culture that are foreign to our belief. This is not solely because they are pernicious, but purely because they are foreign. It is as simple as that. Rasool-Allah (saw) said - "that which is not in accordance with our matter, is rejected". However, there are many elements of modern life that are just of the normal sedentary items with no relation whatsoever to Western belief and culture. These on the other hand should not necessarily be rejected rashly. The key exercise now is accurately identifying the dangers of Western culture. In addition we should know and understand the alternatives from Islam. Lastly, it would help to also point out the oppressive nature of Western popular culture. It is a destructive force as far as we are concerned, as Muslims. Also, as humans and as inhabitants of the world, we should know that Western culture benefits no one, save a tiny minority. This minority hold self-preservation as their creed. We should be in a position, primarily, to be equipped with the battle armoury of the correct Islamic culture. We should be in a position, also, to identify that which contradicts our culture. We should be in a position that enables us to deconstruct and refute the fundamentals of Western culture. In this day and age it is a duty, on us as individuals and on us as an Ummah to recognise, reject, and replace Western influences in our lives.

Written in 1956 when Morocco and Tunisia gained independence from France and soon after the Algerian war had started, this book describes the inescapable bonds between colonizer and colonized. Born in Tunis, Memmi is one of the colonized, but as a Jew, he identified culturally with the colonizer. He moved to France in 1956 and draws on his experience to analyze vividly how colonizer and colonized are mutually dependent, and ultimately both victims of colonialism. "The Colonizer and the Colonized [is] now regarded as a classic description of the inner dynamics of racism and colonialism, a work that in its economic and political sophistication, its sober perceptions of the interdependence of colonizer and colonized, rivals Franz Fanon's more famous but more romantic Black Skin, White Masks and The Wretched of the Earth." — Richard Locke, The New York Times "The subject of colonialism has rarely been treated more lucidly and devastatingly than in this book." — Library Journal "Widely influential." — New Yorker "Confiscated by colonial police throughout the world since its 1957 publication, The Colonizer and the Colonized is an important document of our times, an invaluable warning for all future generations." — Los Angeles Times "Albert Memmi's characterology of master and servant has a personal as well as a social dimension. The pecking order he describes has its accurate analogues in the lives of middle-class Americans." — Emile Capouya, Saturday Review
