Accounting for All 4e Madri Schutte,2023-11-15 Accounting for All fourth edition aims to help students master introductory Accounting courses, and cover the key topics in the financial accounting and cost accounting disciplines. Now updated, it has been further enhanced by two new topics - partnerships and non-profit organisations (NPOs) - giving students a broader coverage of the business environment. The study of Accounting is often perceived as daunting, but the author has written the book so that it is easy to understand. The teaching methodology takes a step-by-step approach, and is supported by extensive explanatory examples and revision questions. It also enables students to work through each chapter independently. Accounting for All fourth edition will benefit any student who does not have an accounting background, but needs a fundamental understanding of the financial and cost accounting principles and concepts as they apply to the world of business. Lecturer support material is made available to prescribing institutions. About the author: Madri Schutte has a PhD. in Business Management. She is currently a full-time lecturer at the Tshwane University of Technology (TUT), where she teaches Accounting for Personal Practitioners as well as Industrial Accounting for Engineers. She has lectured extensively on MBA cost accounting, as well as other financial accounting and cost accounting service modules, and has written other financial accounting textbooks. She has spent more than 30 years in private practice and is a member of the SAIPA (South African Institute of Professional Accountants).

Lest Darkness Fall and Related Stories Lyon Sprague De Camp,Pohl Frederik,David Drake,2011 Rarely do books have such a great influence on a genre as Lest Darkness Fall has had on science fiction. Frequently quoted as one of the 'favorite' books of many of the masters of the field, this book by L. Sprague de Camp helped establish time-travel as a solid sub-genre of science fiction.  An indication of the influence and longevity of the book is by the number of best-selling writers who have written stories in direct response to, or influenced by, Lest Darkness Fall. This new volume also includes three such stories by Frederik Pohl, David Drake and S. M. Stirling written over a period of forty-three years-a testament to the timelessness of the book.  Similar, thematically, to Mark Twain's A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court, the book tells the tale of Martin Padway who, as he is walking around in modern Rome, is suddenly transported though time to 6th Century Rome. Once in ancient Rome, Padway (now Martinus Paduei Quastor) embarks on an ambitious project of single-handedly changing history.  L. Sprague de Camp was a student of history (and the author of a number of popular works on the subject). In Lest Darkness Fall he combines his extensive knowledge of the workings of ancient Rome with his extraordinary imagination to create one of the best books of time travel ever written.
