"If I can only have a moment of peace. Just an hour or two with no worries, no cares, no troubles ... just peace and quiet." We've all felt like this at one point or another. When our schedules are packed and everything just seems to go wrong, all we want to do is run away. But we seldom can. Peace can, however, be achieved without running away and hiding. The 366 devotions in PEACE IN HIS PRESENCE by Angus Buchan will help you to find peace amidst the hustle and bustle, worries and troubles of everyday life. You will discover that peace is possible regardless of your circumstances if you spend time in God's presence. Find out what it means to cast your cares on God, to be in Jesus' presence, to conquer life's troubles through God's strength, and to weather the storms of life with God by your side. PEACE IN HIS PRESENCE will revitalize and refresh your soul with a Scripture passage for each day, a meditation in Angus's characteristic conversational style as well as a prayer. Find your place of peace and draw closer to God. All things are possible with Him, and He can and will give you the peace you need for every day.

Inspired by the miraculous events of the 2012 Feast of Tabernacles in the En-Gedi Desert near Jerusalem, comes A RUSHING MIGHTY WIND by Angus Buchan. With sharp attention to detail Buchan fervently testifies how he, together with 4,500 believers, experienced the reality of the Holy Spirit – the tangible presence of God. He explains how this moving of the Holy Spirit is similar to what was experienced by the early church as described in Acts 2, and how it highlights numerous past revivals all throughout history. A RUSHING MIGHTY WIND is a stirring book that will remind readers that the Lord is not just a historical figure, but that He is alive and at work, and that He is with us – always.

Angus Buchan gained international attention in the wake of the book and film Faith Like Potatoes. He has filled the largest stadiums in South Africa to capacity and spoken to large gatherings in Britain and Australia. But behind the scenes he remains a straight-talking, tough farmer, still working with his sons to run the family farm, still seeking to remain obedient to God's voice. Angus's bold faith has carried him through droughts, family tragedies, and financial crises. And God has used him mightily. Angus has developed a particular ministry to men, holding many rallies specifically for men and proving capable of communicating with ordinary guys who would never get closer to a church than the freeway. He loves to preach the good news of Jesus. "Doubt and fear may be contagious," he says. "But so is faith." Now in his sixties, Angus has also had to come to terms with his own mortality after collapsing in the middle of a rally and being airlifted to a hospital. Forced to reappraise his priorities, he now focuses his efforts upon mentoring younger men, encouraging them to develop their own spiritual maturity, to truly come of age.
