

Art Of Hearing Dag Heward Mills

When the Lord created man, he created something that was like Himself. He said that let us make something that is like us: another of the same kind. We were all created to be allos. This book teaches you to believe that you are not different. You are simply another of the kind that God has raised up already. There are twelve principles of allos such as becoming an allos makes you humble, makes you a member of a particular group, gives you an easy road to ministry and creates an army of multiplied force. Dag Heward-Mills also explains that allos is the key to anointing, the key to solving problems, the key to teamwork and the key to being led by the Spirit. The last two chapters explain how allos is also the key to a happy marriage and the key to the art of teaching and preaching. The truth is whether you do this deliberately or not, you are becoming an allos of somebody! So why not become the allos of somebody you admire God.

This book helps to explain how to develop the most important habit of your life. Dag Heward-Mills, a passionate Christian leader, reveals the greatest secret of his relationship with God as his quiet time they have everyday. Quiet time is the time you spend with God alone and because we have such busy schedules, the important thing is to develop a strategy and follow steps for successful time with God. It is important not to lose your only chance for a personal relationship with God. A lot of practical guidelines are given like a daily prayer time, studying the Bible during this time and tools for effective time with God. The importance of how to interpret the Bible is also stressed and quotes of what great men said about the Bible are used to show how important the Bible is to Christians. George Washington, the first president of the USA, said: It is impossible to rightly govern the world without God and the Bible.

This exceptional book by Dag Heward-Mills will teach you what it means to catch the anointing and how you can be anointed for ministry. Learn how to catch the anointing for the work of the ministry. This book is a must for every minister.

In this outstanding book, Dag Heward-Mills examines real life situations in ministry today. He addresses practical issues like finances, politics, relating with the opposite sex, and ministerial interactions. A common sense guide to the principled practice of your calling, this book is a must for every Christian leader. It is highly recommended for Bible schools and clergy in general.

The priorities of Jesus are stated throughout the Gospels. When you are a sinner, you basically choose between two options: good and evil. As you grow in the Lord, your options increase and you begin to have more to choose from. Now you have to choose between good and good. When you get to this point, it is important to understand the concept of priorities so that you can decide what to do first. Whenever Jesus spoke of the first or the foremost issue, He used the Greek word proton . In this book Dag Heward-Mills takes a look at the proton issues, things that Jesus said should be done first. This passionate author takes a look at all the important aspects of our lives like relationships, our faults, our problems, our mistakes and what the priority should be in these aspects. One of the examples is that the Lord wants us to sort out our relationships before we come to Him Today, there are many little things that we can do that will make a huge difference in the overall effort of building the kingdom of God. Just a little bit more effort, a little bit more time, a little bit more money to advance the cause of Christ, a little bit more interest in the unsaved soul, a little bit more care for your neighbour will make a huge difference. Can't you do just a little bit more? This is a clarion call we cannot ignore! Can't you do just a little bit more?

Heward-Mills will have a great impact on your life and ministry.

In this book Dag Heward-Mills unveils the certain characters that you deal with in your ministry and who you should watch out for. Youll get to deal with doubtful men whose loyalty comes into question from time to time, dangerous sons who can turn on you like wild tigers, bad advisors who will not protect and help you and painfully disloyal people. Scoffers and mockers will always be part of the world we live in and they dont think much of you and actually despise you. This is a spirit that tries to shut up and intimidate you. Like in any other work environment, there is always a person that you should watch out for and that is why you should be able to recognize these certain traits that are taught in this book. The author also tells the reader to be grateful. This world has six billion ungrateful people! This is what creates the discontentment, conflict and wars. There are people we must be grateful to, says Dag Heward-Mills in the conclusion of this book.

Dr. Dag Heward-Mills, an exceptional Christian leader, reveals one of his secrets.
