

Baby Beluga Raffi Songs To Read

The prolific and popular children's entertainer celebrates the many ways in which living things grow through written lyrics--accompanied by illustrations of children of different races and various scenes from nature--and songs on CD.

There is a critical need to reform social media, especially for young users. Most people have little sense of InfoTech's dark side--they are at risk for privacy loss and tech addiction. Lightweb Darkweb argues that society can optimize the benefits of the Internet only by acting to reduce its shadow of social, ecological and health hazards. Raffi highlights children's developmental needs as a key consideration in the digital age. Book jacket.

A lively picture book adaptation of the well-known children's hand-clapping rhyme, perfect for the whole family. Everyone knows some version of this popular children's hand-clapping rhyme, but in this adaptation, the elephant's fateful jump over the fence is just the beginning of the fun. Popular children's author Mary Ann Hoberman has elaborated on this well known tale to create an absurdly funny story children will want to sing, chant, read, and clap to again and again.

Reproducible activity pages that use songs by Raffi to introduce a variety of activities with different themes. Song scores and lyrics are also included.

A baby waiting to be born describes the boredom of living in a cramped space where there are no toys and no one else can be "it" during a game of tag, then considers how life will change after it is born.

The philosophy of Child Honouring is captured in this anthology of essays by leading child advocacy proponents. The introduction by Raffi and foreword by the Dalai Llama focus on the importance of looking at the world and the future through the lens of "what's best for kids is what's best for us all." Contributors from across many disciplines include renowned child development author Penelope Leach, Nobel Prize nominee Lloyd Axworthy, celebrated cultural historian Riane Eisler, bestselling author Barbara Kingsolver, and ecological economist Ron Colman.
