I had always suspected the geographical authorities did not know what they were talking about when they located the battlefield of Munda in the county of the Bastuli-Poeni, close to the modern Monda, some two leagues north of Marbella. According to my own surmise, founded on the text of the anonymous author of the Bellum Hispaniense, and on certain information culled from the excellent library owned by the Duke of Ossuna, I believed the site of the memorable struggle in which Caesar played double or quits, once and for all, with the champions of the Republic, should be sought in the neighbourhood of Montilla. Happening to be in Andalusia during the autumn of 1830, I made a somewhat lengthy excursion, with the object of clearing up certain doubts which still oppressed me. A paper which I shall shortly publish will, I trust, remove any hesitation that may still exist in the minds of all honest archaeologists. But before that dissertation of mine finally settles the geographical problem on the solution of which the whole of learned Europe hangs, I desire to relate a little tale. It will do no prejudice to the interesting question of the correct locality of Monda. I had hired a guide and a couple of horses at Cordova, and had started on my way with no luggage save a few shirts, and Caesar's Commentaries. As I wandered, one day, across the higher lands of the Cachena plain, worn with fatigue, parched with thirst, scorched by a burning sun, cursing Caesar and Pompey's sons alike, most heartily, my eye lighted, at some distance from the path I was following, on a little stretch of green sward dotted with reeds and rushes. That betokened the neighbourhood of some spring, and, indeed, as I drew nearer I perceived that what had looked like sward was a marsh, into which a stream, which seemed to issue from a narrow gorge between two high spurs of the Sierra di Cabra, ran and disappeared.

While extending a strong challenge to the superstition of atheism, the principal aim of this book is to demonstrate the fact that the major scientific discoveries that have been made so far, distinctively and expressly reveal the existence of an intelligent and omnipotent Designer who has thoughtfully and intentionally instituted all universal laws with stark precision and accuracy. In this discussion I have also emphasized the incapability of science to stand alone as a final deciding instrument on matters that extend beyond the natural realm. Hence no proof of the Divine Existence can be established by reference to science alone, but through logical reasoning based on obvious and explicit facts. I have also highlighted the reality that most scientific phenomena cannot be explained without recourse to the role of a Supernatural Power.

Jesus came to bind up the brokenhearted and set the captives free, as He proclaimed the coming of the Kingdom of God (Isaiah 61; Luke 4). As the Father sent the Son, so the Son sends us (John 20). We're called to "prepare the way of the Lord." We can't prepare others unless we're prepared ourselves. We can't minister healing and deliverance to others, unless we've it ourselves. God has given us biblical, spiritual principles to be whole and free, so we can minister His blessings of wholeness and freedom to others through the power of prayer.

There have been several scientific books and lecture papers written on the subject of our holographic universe but none have gone far enough as to expand peoples thinking and explain the true nature of reality. Music is a natural consequence of the pure mathematics within nature. Music is a true universal language as Music is vibrational physics and mathematics that is a language understood by the human mind. The silent music of the universe or Aether Physics from the RG Veda is the only ONE science that explains the true perfection of creation and our connection to the holographic universe. Quantum Metrics are from the RG Veda: Quantum Physicist already knowing the answer as they have taken it the RG Veda then creates complicated elongated mathematical equations to derive at their Metric, which they name after themselves. I explain how to calculate all 90 metrics contained in RG Veda using a dividend and divisor and how to apply this system of harmony to devices you can manufacture such as electric motors. I would not dare name any of the yet “undiscovered” Metrics after myself, as no man should claim Gods work as his own. Although I have examples of the RG Vedas and other sources mentioning the Vedic Meter no one to my knowledge as given a full interpretation of them and what they relate to as I have done. I have deciphered and attempted to simplify one of the most ancient of mysteries and show how to apply it. My intention in releasing this information is to enlighten humanity as to assist in the rebuilding of the foundations of science for the advancement of all. We all must aspire to a brighter future and not allow this information to remain the industrial secret of occult societies. These societies have handicapped humanity for long enough and it is time to enter into the light from the darkness and advance our civilization. The zenith is the point in the sky or celestial sphere directly above an observer. God, sees all life in all dimensions and knows all of us, we should all strive for Krsna Consciousness and free ourselves from the illusion of our material world. When there is harmony between the mind, heart and resolution then nothing is impossible.
