

Black Creek Sixty Ninth In A Series Of Jess Williams Westerns A Jess Williams Western Book 69

"The best regiment of either army, North or South"—this was the description of Cobb's Legion offered by Confederate General Wade Hampton during the Civil War. This large and experienced unit played a crucial role for the South throughout the war. Their actions in more than 130 battles and other engagements over the course of the war are the subject of this book. Additionally, biographies of the officers and the nearly 1500 men of the regiment are included, as well as records of those who died, deserted, or were prisoners of war.

Includes legislation to establish the Hudson Ship Canal Co. for construction of the Bowen Ship Canal, New York State.

The War of the RebellionA Compilation of the Official Records of the Union and Confederate ArmiesA Twentieth Century History of Delaware County, IndianaThe War of the Rebellion: Formal reports, both Union and Confederate, of the first seizures of United States property in the Southern States (53 v. in 111)

When a Civil War reenactment comes to town, tensions build between Union and Confederate sympathizers, and Nancy needs to find out who has been digging holes in the battlefield.

Series I: Contains the formal reports, both Union and Confederate, of the first seizures of United States property in the Southern States, and of all military operations in the field, with the correspondence, orders, and returns relating specially thereto, and, as proposed is to be accompanied by an Atlas. In this series the reports will be arranged according to the campaigns and several theaters of operations (in the chronological order of the events), and the Union reports of any event will, as a rule, be immediately followed by the Confederate accounts. The correspondence, etc., not embraced in the "reports" proper will follow (first Union and next Confederate) in chronological order. Volume XIV. 1885. (Vol. 14, Chap. 26) Chapter XXVI - Operations on the coasts of South Carolina, Georgia, and Middle and East Florida. Apr 12, 1862-Jun 11, 1863.

History and roster of the 69th Indiana. Includes letters, narratives, and poetry written by the soldiers. Also includes an audio CD with poetry and a song written about the regiment.
