

Book Of Us A Journal Of Your Love Story In 150 Questions By Kate Marshall Book Of Us

Keep the romance alive with 3 years of memorable questions for couples Learning, changing, and evolving as a couple are the keys to a strong and enduring relationship. When couples continuously seek out new things to love about each other, their bond becomes even stronger--whether they've been together for months or decades. This couples journal offers 3 years of daily journal prompts that encourage thought, conversation, and playfulness. Each year, both partners will reflect on the same 365 questions and see how their answers have changed--or stayed the same--as they create a unique keepsake that documents their unique relationship. Moments big and small--This couples journal includes both deep and fun-loving questions that help couples preserve the past, discuss their hopes and dreams, and discover little things they never knew about each other. Daily time together--Create the habit of pausing to connect as a couple with an activity that brings both partners together every day. Short and sweet--The prompts in this couples journal are brief and simple so it's easy to make time for them even with busy schedules. Build a deeper connection and record precious memories with this 3-year couples journal.

This beautiful blank recipe book includes 100 pages for you to jot down all of your favorite recipes. ABOUT THE BOOK First Things First by Stephen R Covey is New York Times Bestseller time management guide developed using Covey's principles of value-driven decision making originally set forth in the blockbuster The Seven Habits of Highly Effective People. The title of the book comes from the summary of the third habit, Keep First Things First, that is, make sure the most important things in your life are actually your highest priority. In the introduction, Covey describes the genesis of First Things First in this way: through our work at the Covey Leadership Center, we've been in contact with many people from around the world and we're constantly impressed with what they represent. They're active, hard-working, competent, caring people dedicated to making a difference. Yet these people consistently tell us of the tremendous struggle they face daily while trying to put first things first in their lives. MEET THE AUTHOR Kelli Dunham (kellidunham.com) is a registered nurse and author of four books of nonfiction, including The Boys Body Book and the Girls Body Book (both from Applesauce Press) and How to Survive and Maybe Even Love Nursing School (FA Davis) an American Journal of Nursing 2005 Book of the Year. She is also a stand up comic and has been seen on Showtime, the Discovery Channel and the occasional livestock auction. EXCERPT FROM THE BOOK For many of us, theres a gap between the compass and the clock-between whats deeply important to us and how we spend our time. And this gap is not closed by traditional time management approach of doing more things faster. In fact, many of us find that increasing our speed only makes things worse. In How Many People On Their Deathbed Wish They'd Spent More Time At The Office were introduced to the guiding concept of First Things First,: the difference between making daily decisions based on the clock versus making daily decisions based on the compass. The clock, Covey explains, represents what we do and how we manage our time. Things like schedules, goals, meetings, items that generally get written on to-do lists: that's what First Things First calls clock items. TABLE OF CONTENTS - About the Book - About the Author - An Overall Summary - Chapter-by-Chapter Summary and Analysis - List of Important People - Key Terms & Definitions - Interesting Facts - Sources - Additional Reading Stephen Covey's First Things First Keep track of your book club selections and record your latest literary adventures with this reading journal to stay organized for your next meeting! Book clubs are a great way to read new books and discover different genres and new topics that you may not be too familiar with. You can share your thoughts in a social setting and enjoy interesting conversations that might open your eyes to other opinions about the book. But all too often we forget the best details once the book is finished and put back on the shelf. With The Book Club Journal, you can collect and remember all your important thoughts and feelings so that you can reflect on them for future meetings or rereadings. Made specifically for book club members, this journal has prompts for all the basic book stats, such as the title, author, and who suggested the book, along with book club specific questions like "How does this book compare with the titles we have read previously?" This fun and useful journal also includes reference pages with lists of classic book club must-reads, and room for you to create your very own to-read list. Following in the footsteps of such poets as Emily Dickinson, William Stafford, and Frank O'Hara, David Lehman began writing a poem a day in 1996 and found the experience so rewarding that he continued for the next two years. During that time, some of these poems appeared in various journals and on Web sites, including The Poetry Daily site, which ran thirty of Lehman's poems in as many days throughout the month of April 1998. For The Daily Mirror, Lehman has selected the best of these "daily poems" -- each tied to a specific occasion or situation -- and telescoped two years into one.

Spontaneous and immediate, but always finely crafted and spiced with Lehman's signature irony and wit, the poems are akin to journal entries charting the passing of time, the deaths of great men and women, the news of the day. Jazz, Sinatra, the weather, love, poetry and poets, movies, and New York City are among their recurring themes. A departure from Lehman's previous work, this unique volume provides the intimacy of a diary, full of passion, sound, and fury, but with all the aesthetic pleasure of poetry. More a party of poems than a standard collection, The Daily Mirror presents an exciting new way to think about poetry.

When you write together, you grow closer together. The secret to a great relationship is to stay emotionally open and connected with each other--year after year. A Couple's Love Journal makes it easy by providing a shared space for the two of you to explore (and write responses to) deep, thought-provoking questions that deal with your relationship, yourselves, your hopes, and more. From exploring how you've grown as a couple to reliving old memories, each weekly entry in A Couple's Love Journal features a new and meaningful way for you to grow your love together. You'll learn more about each other as you reflect on ways to share your feelings and build a connection that can last a lifetime. A Couple's Love Journal includes: A year-long journey, one week at a time--Rediscover your relationship over the course of a year with this love journal's 52 weekly prompts. Relationship building--Deepen your intimacy with engaging and enjoyable activities both of you will love to try. Journaling made easy--Never kept a love journal? Get helpful suggestions for making sure you get the most out of this experience. Spend the next year getting to know each other even better inside the pages of A Couple's Love Journal.

A bold motivational journal for anyone seeking to boost their productivity Whether you're embarking on a new project or planning your future, understanding what makes you tick is the crucial first step in making things happen. Do It For Yourself combines the pop-art-inspired graphics of Subliming with 75 thought-provoking prompts by creativity and productivity expert Kara Cutruzzula. Choose any goal and work through the five stages of the journal--getting going, building momentum, overcoming setbacks, following through, and seeking closure--or just open it to the phase you're in now. Each exercise is designed to help reorient your outlook, overcome roadblocks, and encourage mindfulness, with powerful typographic quotes to inspire you along the way. In these pages, find the much-needed space to focus your energy, clear up mental clutter, and set yourself up for success. Because isn't it time you did it for yourself?

100 Questions Every Person Should Ask Themselves is a journal for those who want to dive a little deeper into who they truly are and what they need to do in order to become the person they want to be. It's a wonderful book for anyone going through a big life change or for those who feel like they need a new direction and a fresh start. Just remember that self-examination can be painful. So be ready. This journal pulls no punches. But if you're honest with yourself, and honest in your writing; you'll find that by the end of this journal you'll have learned much more about who you are and what you should be doing to get where you need to be. 100 Questions Every Person Should Ask Themselves is set up so that you can go at your own pace; whether that means doing multiple entries in a day or just one a week. Feel free to skip around and choose the question that is perfect for that specific day. And while this journal is aimed specifically at adults, there's nothing inappropriate inside, so it's suitable for young adults as well.

With all the same fun and inspiration power as the original, Create This Book 2 includes a fresh set of 100 unique prompts designed to get your creativity flowing. Each prompt will get you thinking outside the box and making something amazing! Great for all ages and anyone who likes to get creative. Join the Create This Book online community. Poetry. Drawings by Paul Blake. Originally published in 1977 by Good Gay Poets of Boston. "A book whose page has come. ruth weiss has been sounding these poems, alone or with jazz accompaniment, for many years. It's now ocheny chorosho that they appear for the senses of those potential poets searching for new modulations of expression; for her poems are of the rhythms of our time and the interlaced, repetitive subtleties are sewn by that 'thread for those who breathe in rags' (Vallejo) which bespeaks and sings the deep loom of the bronze lotus."—Jack Hirschman
