We nearly died. We very nearly did, didn't we?" Samantha Heather Mackey couldn't be more of an outsider in her small, highly selective MFA program at New England's Warren University. But everything changes when Samantha receives an invitation to the Bunnies' fabled "Smut Salon," and finds herself inexplicably drawn to their front door--ditching her only friend, Ava, in the process. As Samantha plunges deeper and deeper into the Bunnies' sinister yet saccharine world, beginning to take part in the ritualistic off-campus "Workshop" where they conjure their monstrous creations, the edges of reality begin to blur. Soon, her friendships with Ava and the Bunnies will be brought into deadly collision. The spellbinding new novel from one of our most fearless chroniclers of the female experience, Bunny is a down-the-rabbit-hole tale of loneliness and belonging, friendship and desire, and the fantastic and terrible power of the imagination. DIGITAL DEXTERITY Let the child trace the letter of the alphabet on each page with his or her finger as you read the story or sound the letter. 4. IDENTICAL IDENTITY Ask the child to find the same letter in the text of the story on that page. The word is in caps and circled to make it easy to find. 5. LETTER SHAPES Have your child color in the letter outlines as you sound out the letter and the sound together. 6. MAKE A NOISE Ask the child to make a new animal sound that starts with the same letter or sound. 7. VISUAL LITERACY Some of these pictures contain hearts embedded in the image.
