Integrate practical insights from modern physics, ancient Hermetic Laws, non-dual metaphysics, transpersonal psychology, and humor, as tools for undoing conflicting beliefs we've dreamed ourselves into. The seven Hermetic laws are explored in depth and demonstrate how a mindfulness that embraces 'other' as 'self' can reverse the typical misapplication of these inescapable laws of Mentalism, Correspondence, Vibration, Polarity, Rhythm, Cause & Effect and Generation. Ubiquitous geometric symbols, paired to each of these laws - the circle, vesica piscis, sine wave, line, spiral, fractal and yin-yang - and their countless commonplace variations, seen from the vantage point of shared interests, reflect these ideas. The inspired use of natural law restores attributes of life, love, strength, purity, beauty, perfection and gratitude to our awareness.

Loyalty to Your Soul establishes Spiritual Psychology as a paradigm-altering frontier. It initiates a radical shift at the core of contemporary psychological thought by unveiling a technology for using everyday life experiences as rungs on the ladder of spiritual evolution. This book is uniquely suited for anyone seeking to discover and cross the bridge that spans the waters between life referenced in material reality and life lived within the context of spiritual reality. Loyalty to Your Soul shows you how to first gain access to, and then gradually learn to live from, that sacred place inherent within everyone referred to by the authors as the Authentic Self—a place where emotional suffering ceases and profound peace and love are present. While many people have written about such an inner state, Ron and Mary Hulnick show you how to travel there . . . and what to anticipate once you arrive. The radical technology they introduce empowers readers to transform challenging or negative human experiences into direct experiences of the Soul.

Affirmations have been used in many ways, but never have they been used to bring the truth of A Course in Miracles lessons to the student's daily life in such a consistent, easy, and intimate way. Using these affirmations cannot but hasten the students own awakening to their true Self. Barbara Goodman Siegel, a Course student, facilitator and spiritual counselor was inspired to come to the Course lessons with this fresh approach. Barbara took the essence from each of the 365 lessons and created corresponding affirmations. She instructs the student to do these affirmations in front of the mirror while engaging in their everyday grooming habits. With each lesson, she has also included a quote from the Course text that will help the student easily weave together the lesson with the text. Whether you are an advanced student or new to the

With time to reflect, making slow progress along the trail, McNabb discovered the secret of forgiveness. You only get one life. Don't waste it. Become a catalyst for change. Let your wounds heal and heal the wounds of others. Become one again.

Relationships give us some of our best moments . . . and also our worst. It's no wonder we're so preoccupied with them—whether that's fantasizing about your ideal partner or trying to save a marriage, pacifying a difficult colleague or struggling to control a rebellious child. There are thousands of books promising to reveal the secret of how to improve your relationships. But what if relationship problems had nothing to do with the specific people involved, their personalities or their life stories? What if instead they resulted from a mistaken understanding about what a relationship is for? What is its true purpose? Typically, relationships are special arrangements made between two people. A Course in Miracles takes a radically different approach. It teaches that relationships are the classrooms in which we learn to awaken to our true nature, which is only love. They are crucibles for enlightenment. Seen in this way: • We don't "get" love from a partner nor do we have to give up anything in order to get it. • We don't search for it out there in the world. • The love comes first, from within, then infuses all of our relationships. • To be open to this love, we release our judgments and grievances about others—what the Course calls "forgiveness"—understanding that by freeing them, we free ourselves. From Loving One to One Love is not another how-to-fix-it guide to relationships. By applying the Course's principles, we can achieve an experience of love that is beyond anything we can imagine: a universal love that's not limited to any one special person or group, but shines on all alike. We learn to see each other anew—not as separate individuals with competing needs and agendas, but through the eyes of love. We learn to love as God loves.

The sacred Flower of Life pattern, the primary geometric generator of all physical form, is explored in even more depth in this volume, the second half of the famed Flower of Life workshop. The proportions of the human body, the nuances of human consciousness, the sizes and distances of the stars, planets and moons, even the creations of humankind, are all shown to reflect their origins in this beautiful and divine image. Through an intricate and detailed geometrical mapping, Drunvalo Melchizedek shows how the seemingly simple design of the Flower of Life contains the genesis of our entire third-dimensional existence. From the pyramids and mysteries of Egypt to the new race of Indigo children, Drunvalo presents the sacred geometries of the Reality and the subtle energies that shape our world. We are led through a divinely inspired labyrinth of science and stories, logic and coincidence, on a path of remembering where we come from and the wonder and magic of who we are. Finally, for the first time in print, Drunvalo shares the instructions for the Mer-Ka-Ba meditation, step-by-step techniques for the re-creation of the energy field of the evolved human, which is the key to ascension and the next dimensional world. If done from love, this ancient process of breathing prana opens up for us a world of tantalizing possibility in this dimension, from protective powers to the healing of oneself, of others and even of the planet. Embrace the expanded vision and understanding that Drunvalo offers to the world. Coincidences abound, miracles flourish and the amazing stories of mysteries unveiled arise as the author probes the Ancient Secrets of the Flower of Life.

What if you knew there was only one problem and one solution to all the problems we face? How is peace possible in a world that seems impossible sometimes? How do we heal ourselves in a world where the silent epidemics of suicide, depression, and cyber-bullying run so rampant? Answers to these questions and other topics such as covid-19, black lives matter, parenting, relationships and even E.T.'s, will be found in this book, all discussed within the context of the non-dualistic teachings of A Course in Miracles, in which forgiveness is a key theme in helping one to awaken from the illusion of separation to the reality that we are one in God or Spirit. There is a way to practice forgiveness and experience true peace regardless of what is happening in your life or in the world, which puts you in an empowering position of cause instead of being at the effect or a victim of circumstances. Understanding forgiveness and knowing how to apply it in your everyday life can truly be a life-saver!

Take Me To Truth is the first book to present a practical guide to the six stages involved in shedding our distorted ego perception. It explains why our search for real happiness has eluded us and how to perceive the Love for which we all yearn so deeply. As Gary Renard says in the Foreword... despite the thousands of things we may appear to have to choose from in this world, there are really only two things, and only one of them is real. The ego is not. Take me to Truth heralds the next crucial step in the pursuit of evolutionary consciousness.

An open invitation for a fresh look at Jesus, inspired by ACIM, Thomas Gospel and Gary Renard.

The result is this startling book: an extraordinary record of 17 mind-bending conversations that took place over nearly a decade, reorienting the author’s life and giving the world an uncompromising introduction to a spiritual teaching destined to change human history.

Compiled from more than four hundred hours of channeling by Barbara Marciniak, Bringers of the Dawn imparts to us the wisdom of the Pleiadians, a group of enlightened beings who have come to Earth to help us discover how to reach a new stage of evolution. Master storytellers and humorists, they advise us to become media free, to work in teams, and to eliminate the words "should" and "try" from our vocabularies. We learn how to go beyond fear, how the original human was a magnificent being with twelve strands of DNA and twelve chakra centers, and who our "gods" are. Startling, intense, intelligent, and controversial, these teachings offer essential reading for anyone questioning their existence on this planet and the direction of our collective conscious--and unconscious. By remembering that we are Family of Light, that we share an ancient ancestry with the universe around us, we become "bringers of the dawn," consciously creating a new reality, a new Earth.

Spoken Miracles is an anecdotal account of Martha Lucia Espinosa's 30-year-long search for answers from God, as well as the result of a request that has been made by thousands of readers of author Gary R. Renard's The Disappearance of the Universe, lovingly called "D.U." Near the end of D.U., one of Gary's teachers mentions that there were 365 quotations from the modern spiritual guide A Course in Miracles (ACIM) used in the D.U. book. We are told also that if these quotations were read on their own, they could either be used as a thought for the day throughout the year, or they could simply be read like a book, in which case they would constitute a "refresher course" by Jesus, the Voice of A Course in Miracles. Many people requested that these quotations be put into book form, but it was a bigger job than most realized. Gary and his teachers had used more than 11,000 words from ACIM during the course of their discussions. Additionally, inspiration guides this book to be written in a way that it can stand on its own, to help introduce people to both D.U. and A Course in

"A unique and special kind of masterpiece." —John Banville
Stephen Mitchell's gift is to breathe new life into ancient classics. In Joseph and the Way of Forgiveness, he offers us his riveting novelistic version of the Biblical tale in which Jacob's favorite son is sold into slavery and eventually becomes viceroy of Egypt. Tolstoy called it the most beautiful story in the world. What's new here is the lyrical, witty, vivid prose, informed by a wisdom that brings fresh insight to this foundational legend of betrayal and all-embracing forgiveness. Mitchell's retelling, which reads like a postmodern novel, interweaves the narrative with brief meditations that, with their Zen surprises, expand the narrative and illuminate its main themes. By stepping inside the minds of Joseph and the other characters, Mitchell reanimates one of the central stories of Western culture. The engrossing tale that he has created will capture the hearts and minds of modern readers and show them that this ancient story can still challenge, delight, and astonish.

A MASTERPIECE of illuminative writing, Spiritual Enlightenment: The Damnedest Thing is mandatory reading for anyone following a spiritual path. After completing a first reading of A Course in Miracles, the most challenging read of her life, the author exclaimed, Never again! Yet, she knew that if she were to make real progress with her lifelong spiritual quest, she would need a thorough understanding of the Course's unique thought system. So, back to school she went the school of life, that is. Though a seasoned seeker, never did she anticipate the dark nights she would encounter along the journey, nor the gift of grace that would pull her through. Readers will delight in the same profound spiritual insight, candour, humour and lively writing style as found in Making Peace with God. This book is a wonderful companion for both new and seasoned students of A Course in Miracles. "

Su sentido del humor, combinado con una profunda sabiduría, nos recuerda a su vez que el trabajo de liberación interna puede y debe ser un recordar fácil y feliz... un re-despertar a nuestra única realidad: la unidad. You don't have to be a student of A Course in Miracles to appreciate the relationship and situational challenges expressed in these poems by Brian. His wife, Gabriela, and daughter Alzena form a triangle of conscious direction with Brian to return home. They are ordinary people with ordinary lessons of forgiveness. His poems deal with: healing special, up-close relationships, falling off the success ladder, past lives popcorn, surefire stock options expiring worthless, boomer ageing/raging, the professor of too much truth telling, dupe-licating our parents, the halo effect, "above the battleground" in marriage, even ten short auto poems, thoughts while driving, and stoned out of you. What is not ordinary is applying what Gary Renard calls quantum forgiveness, seeing the other[s] and ourselves as totally innocent and guiltless . . . so different than the ego's habitual denial and external projection! Then turning it over to Holy Spirit, our inner teacher, to show us the truth so that we can change our mind's thinking from separation to connection and union. "Remember, kindness created you kind."
