GUERRILLA NETWORKING Traditional networking is all about "meeting people. ; The success you reap in life, however, is directly correlated to not how many people you meet but rather, how many people want to meet you. Guerrilla Networking is all about becoming the type of person other people want to meet. Learn how from both guerrilla marketing legend, Jay Conrad Levinson, and guerrilla networking originator Monroe Mann. Jay and Monroe have flipped the typical networking mentality on its head but they've landed right side up and so can you, if you read this book. You're in for a wild ride. Trusted advice on successful consulting from the authors of the bestselling Guerrilla Marketing series Consulting is entering the era of the guerrilla client-buyers with a glut of information at their fingertips and doubts about the value consultants add. Guerrilla Marketing for Consultants is the first book to reveal how guerrilla marketing can transform today's challenges into golden opportunities for winning profitable work from the new breed of consulting clients. Packed with information, this step-by-step guide details the 12 marketing secrets every consultant should know, the anatomy of a marketing plan, Web sites, sources of free publicity, direct-mail marketing, winning proposals, and more. Jay Conrad Levinson (San Rafael, CA) is the Chairman of the Board of Guerrilla Marketing International and the author or coauthor of more than 30 books, including the bestselling Guerrilla Marketing series. Michael W. McLaughlin (Mill Valley, CA) has been a partner with Deloitte Consulting since 1994.

Why a book on guerrilla deal-making? Because people envy those who are more powerful than they are. They want to bring the big dog down to their own level. If they succeed, they'll feel better about themselves. That's why Jay Conrad Levinson's guerrilla books have sold over 30 million copies--Jay doesn't just promise to empower small businessmen, he actually becomes the wind beneath their wings. It's a natural! Empowerment! How to get powerful people--big dogs--to do what you--the small guerrilla--want them to do! Your impossible dream--actually controlling big dogs--seems within your reach. (A lot better than just catching their attention.) So millions of people buy Jay's books. And when they're in serious negotiations with big dogs, they'll buy "Guerrilla Deal-Making"! On top of that, jealousy of big dogs is on the increase, simply because there are more of them to envy today than ever before. In 2010, 8.4 million households in the US had assets of $1 million or more. That's 7-1/2 percent of the 112.6 million households. There are many other guerrilla vs. big dog situations, not just high-powered buying and selling. Readers will use the 100 very powerful tactics in "Guerrilla Deal-Making" when they deal with their boss, go to town hall meetings to talk to pompous politicians, deal with their home owners association, try to get their medical insurance company to reimburse them in full, and deal with uncaring bureaucrats at city hall. Guerrilla-marketing guru Levinson teams up with computer wiz Charles Rubin to create an essential entrepreneurial tool. The authors explain the basics of executing a marketing attack online -- from building and maintaining an effective web site to creating an online catalogue to encouraging customers to purchase your product online.

Levinson and Horowitz show the dramatic potential for profit in not just being a green company, but in addressing the huge social problems that have stumped humankind for millennia. Instead of waiting centuries for government to get it done, business can grab the reins and accomplish more through the profit motive than through any amount of guilt-tripping. Green practices can save and make money, and deep social change can skyrocket those revenues---when marketed correctly.
