Chris Roscoe, son of a policeman, was a corpsman in the Army. After his tour of duty in Vietnam, he went to college to pursue a nursing degree so he could continue to help the sick and injured. Along the way he met Alexandra Walton, a beautiful rich girl. They were classmates and friendly acquaintances, but after the class was over, they went their separate ways...until years later when Alex was injured in an accident and admitted to the hospital where Chris worked. They rekindled the friendship; only this time they fell in love. After marriage and a beautiful daughter, Chris discovered that he didn't know his wife. Alex had a hidden past, one that she was ashamed of but that didn't stop her from turning to it when her life wasn't going well, in her opinion, anyway. Chris loved and cherished her; together they had a beautiful new home, a child, and everything she could want, he found out that it wasn't enough. She wanted more, and what she wanted, he couldn't give her. Alex's story is one shared by many. Her struggle with substance abuse affected her marriage...and her life.

Rebecca has been captured and awakens alone in the dark, not knowing where she is. She can feel that Llyr is alive, but cannot contact him through the soul link. Chained to a wall and without magic, she must find a way to survive and escape. Llyr was defeated by his brother and witnessed the fall of the tower on Avalon. Being separated from Rebecca has created a problem: the soul link is draining his body of all strength. Despite not being able to stand on his own, he's determined to return to his world and save Rebecca from the Archwizard. Without Havaar to guide him, he must rely on the ghosts of Havaar's school to find a way home.

ABOUT THE BOOK Since the terrorist attack of September 11th America has been filled with clouds of evil. They have darkened our reason and covered us with ashes of anger. How do we sort out our feelings of revenge and retaliation with those of understanding, compassion and love? Some of us believe knowledge of American history will give us the insight and maturity that we need to help our nation through this war on terrorism. We need to understand the basic principles of democracy and freedom to know what we have fought for in the past and what we fight for now. Americans need to rededicate themselves to the cause of freedom to face the future. Freedom should not be taken for granted because there are those who would take it from us. We need to understand that some governments terrorize and abuse their people. These governments intentionally control their people by keeping them oppressed and ignorant. The history of our country is great but as Thomas Jefferson warned: "If a nation expects to be ignorant and free, it expects what never was and never will be." A recent alarming ACTA report which polled seniors at the nation's top 55 colleges indicates that we have a generation of Americans who are historically illiterate. The survey revealed that almost half would fail the basic test in American history required for immigrants who seek citizenship in the United States. American Symbols For Schools has the common information about the different state flowers, birds and trees as well as information about the many new symbols which the states have enacted which includes their scientific names and dates of inception it also includes the active and colorful history of each state and interesting facts and trivia about the states. This special commemorative Civics and History reference book also contains the American Symbols Collection (flags, seals and more than 150 photographs of American symbols), National symbols, History, National Parks, Places of Interest, Tourist Information, United We Stand Anthem, Song and Bookmark. Editorial Reviews From the Author As author of this keepsake edition I have taken great care in compiling this information to insure its value to you in your library. I sincerely hope you enjoy reading American Symbols For Schools as much as I enjoyed writing it. Debbie Sennett

Groomed for a place at a Big Name School since their obsessed, status-conscious helicopter parents passed out cigars at the Stockstill General Hospital Neonatal Unit, the privileged students of Pembrocton College Preparatory are ratcheting up the stakes in the race to get into the nation's most prestigious colleges. The PCP juniors are gloating, jubilant at the rumor that the valedictorian presumptive has received a B on her report card, a grade that will relegate her to in-state hell. Her heir apparent, a three-generation Yale legacy, is the sole mourner at the demise of her future—if only because her thoughtless academic lapse is going to derail his plans to attend MIT. Across town, in the graffiti-covered halls of Stockstill High School, the students slink to class, praying that they arrive without a knife wound—and dream of ivy-covered walls. And with the help of a take-no-prisoners principal and an enterprising parent, the students at SHS dare to encroach shamelessly on territory normally reserved for their wealthy private school rivals. Join the fray as a memorable cast of characters engages in the latest rage in extracurricular activities: college admissions as a blood sport. ??Laugh out loud funny, The Applicants lampoons the heights we scale—and the depths to which we sink—to get into the “right” college. ?

An insidious parasite is working its way through the suburbs of Washington, D.C. NITS follows the trail of a virulent outbreak of head lice as it wreaks havoc on the lives of a social climbing mother of a scholarship student, a buff young Latin teacher and a controlling do-gooder who is so consumed with exterminating the pest, people start calling her the "Lice Nazi." A social satire with bite, NITS explores the themes of class, ambition, and the unavoidable interconnectedness of modern life.

The life force, also known as “spirit,” is the essence of being and the conscious and most important form of energy. Living energy is personal and within our conscious control, and by learning about it, we can use it to transform our life into vibrant and meaningful expressions of who we really are. Consciousness is purely energetic and therefore difficult to quantify in mechanistic terms. It is the characteristic of living energy and is the foundation of awareness. Consciousness is the thread running through all life. Living Energy is an introduction to the process of mystic spirituality. The reader is encouraged to attain a deep and meaningful connection to the divine with expanded awareness. The principles given in this book are equally relevant to the novice and the advanced practitioner. Robert explains how we may reveal our hidden potential by shifting our perception away from what is customary and comfortable to open the doors to greater spiritual awareness.

This detailed examination focuses on day-by-day diplomacy and confronts the reasons why the United States hesitated to enter the war. The author discusses the American retreat behind the facade of neutrality legislation, and how by waiting until the nation was forced into fighting, the U.S. may have actually added to the severity of World War II. -- (Softcover)

First published in 1923, this book examines how the English and American people opposed or helped each other during and after the American Revolution.

Repeatedly, Divine concludes, America seeks to use warfare to create a better and more stable world, only to meet with unexpected outcomes and the seeds of new hostility. Ironically, Divine finds that America's high ideals continually prevent the very peace the nation seeks." "In the epilogue, Divine applies his points to the final American war of the century, the conflict in Kosovo."--BOOK JACKET.

Life in lower class as offspring of a notorious thief was simple for the Quartar daughters until accidental mishaps with the other classes of society turn their dirt poor lives around for worse and better. Eight young women are taken from the slums into the high class world they never understood only at first to find betrayal, suffering, scandal, revenge and corruption. Then, before they know it they are wrapped in the grandest scandal their country of Galli has ever seen. The kingdom of Cretaine is trying to overthrow the corrupted kingdom of Galli. The Quartar family must betray their world in order to save Galli from a brutal civil war.

I put this story line together with a Middle Eastern background. It is where I created and shared this story with many Iraqi children. Islam has angels too and I do believe that with all of the hatred that is in this world, children should never be a part of it! Children of all ages can enjoy this book, from Kindergarten to the 6th grade This story explains diversity. I have always used it as a tool to explain how wrong it is to hate other people because of how they pray or worship. Questions can be asked throughout the entire story of how wrong it is to mistreat others because of the color of their skin, where they are from. Being mean to another because they are hungry or hurt. I did make reference to bullying which a teacher can stop and ask the important question of being mean for no reason. The story explains what can happen to people who do not tell the truth.

Jayd wants a drama-free year at South Bay, but what she gets is a hot new boyfriend from the right side of town - white, rich, Jewish, and unlike anything she's ever known growing up in Compton. The plot contains profanity and sexual references. Book #2.

Daugherty offers an unflinching view of how a modern war on American soil would play out. A nightmare scenario which will come true.

'Anybody But Anne' is the fifth in the 'Fleming Stone' series of detective novels by prolific author Carolyn Wells.

Wealthy David Van Wyck has decided to become a philanthropist and leave his entire vast fortune to the local community. Whilst a noble intention, his family are opposed to the notion as it would leave them penniless. Following a meeting to certify his intentions, David is found dead in a locked room. His beautiful wife Anne is the obvious suspect, but there are many others who would have reason to want David out of the picture. A thrilling whodunnit from the popular author. Carolyn Wells (1862-1942) was a prolific American novelist and poet, best known for her children's literature, mystery novels and humorous verse. Following school in New Jersey, Wells worked as a librarian, where she developed her love of reading. It was during 1896 that Wells' first book 'At the Sign of the Sphinx' was published. From 1900 she dedicated herself to her literary career, writing over 170 novels in total across a range of genres. Some of her most loved works include the 'Patty Fairfield' and 'Marjorie Maynard' series for girls, as well as the 'Fleming Stone' mystery series for adults. Wells is also well-known for her humorous nonsense verse, and was a frequent contributor of verse to magazines. She published an autobiography 'The Rest of my Life' in 1937. Wells died in New York City in 1942.

"America Past and Present, AP Edition, Ninth Edition strives to achieve the shared goal of the previous editions: to present a clear, relevant, and balanced history of the United States as an unfolding story of national development, from the days of the earliest inhabitants to the present. We emphasize the story because we strongly believe in the value of historical narrative in providing a vivid sense of the past. In each chapter, we seek to blend the excitement and drama of the American experience with insights about the social, economic, and cultural issues that underlie it"--Preface.

With its careful balance of the social and political dimensions of the American past, America Past and Present, Sixth Edition, Volume B helps readers grasp the scope and the complexity of American history from 1848 to 1920. This book integrates political, diplomatic, social, cultural and economic history into one rich narrative that tells the story of all Americans-whites, blacks, Native Americans, Hispanics, women, politicians, business leaders, and the everyday person on the street. For anyone interested in American history from 1848 to 1920.

“Respect the teachers. They are like gods.” This was taught to me by my mom, who is a teacher. “Respect the teachers for sure but if they don’t behave like teachers, take you for granted always and start behaving like unethical monsters, then don’t forget to make them realize by your actions that you are also human as they are, and sometimes you can also make mistakes as they did.” This was taught to me by one of my mentors who is a school principal. I agree with both of them, because that’s how the life is supposed to be lived. “Respect the teachers for sure and but if they don’t behave.....and all the above I agreed to, but those who mentor you – your teachers, your parents, your peers, your bosses, even your juniors, trust me they are all biased for the one reason that they are all humans with one heart on the left side which can’t be right for most of the practicalities of life and a brain at the top of their head which makes them think – sometimes for you and is most of the times trained naturally to prioritize for themselves and their people, and occasionally you might also be a ‘rit’ in their favorites so they are thinking in favor of you. I am no one to judge anyone’s parents or teachers or bosses or relatives but why, why one of the kids becomes a better child for parents and why the teachers say, ‘o that kid is not ranked high in my list?’ Life in itself is a practice and you learn to live it better and better as you learn its principles and understand its simple complexities – just like playing a guitar, like playing video games, like understanding the female sex – the more you practice, the more near to perfect you become. But there is one more thing to it and that is that if I am intelligent and if I am mentally strong then I could not become anything – neither bad nor good, neither crook nor candid, neither a hero nor a zero. I can only curse myself sitting in a corner of a dark and shady room criticizing myself with a bitter and entirely rubbish but absolute truth and that is ‘an intelligent and mentally strong man can NOT seriously become anything and that a fool and a weak can only make efforts to become something, to gain and to achieve and a lot of weakness and foolishness is required to run this world.’ What achievement is an achievement, what mission is a mission without any challenges? And weak and foolish only MAKE themselves better, prepare to become strong and intelligent and plan to face the challenges and break the code. History is the biggest proof that everything that’s done without planning could let the strongest loose easily and proper planning, accompanied with a long smooch of confidence and a touch of zeal could make a weaker be victorious. That’s what I had learnt throughout my life after facing so many situations and problems till now and I am still learning the lessons of the game called life, not to win the wars but the hearts and that, my dear friends is this story for.... and this book is dedicated: To all those people who made me realize how delicate, beautiful, important, strong, powerful and deadly – IS the game of LOVE. I said ‘game’ of love because it is believed even in today’s world, that love is strong and it’s the strength of any relationship and it wins over all the obstacles and the ones who are against it; though it requires genuineness and sacrifices, but even that way, don’t its definition makes love a game, with its own properties and rules? ..... Every love story generally has a common theme - we see you meet, face challenges, fall in love, face challenges, even get married, face challenges and it’s all a predictable dream. The last shot will show you and your lover with a family. That’s it right? Well no. because I believe in mentioning something which is real, something from somewhere me and you belong – this real world. And there, love do not wins – not always;
