Remember when flying was glamorous and sexy, even fun? When airline food was gourmet, everyone dressed up for a flight, and stewardesses catered to our every need—at least in our imaginations? This classic memoir by two audaciously outspoken young ladies, who lived and loved the free-spirited stewardess life, jets you back to those golden days of air travel—from the captain who's as subtle as a 747 when he's on the make to the passenger who mistakes the overhead luggage rack for an upper berth; from the names of celebrities who were a pleasure to serve (and some surprising notables on the "bad guy" list) to the origins of some naughty stereotypes—Spaniards are the best lovers, actors the most foul-mouthed. This huge bestseller, a First Class jet-age journal, offers a hilarious gold mine of outrageous anecdotes from the high-flying and amorous lives of those busty, lusty, adventuresome young women of the swinging '60s known as "stews."

The hidden brain is the voice in our ear when we make the most important decisions in our lives—but we're never aware of it. The hidden brain decides whom we fall in love with and whom we hate. It tells us to vote for the white candidate and convict the dark-skinned defendant, to hire the thin woman but pay her less than the man doing the same job. It can direct us to safety when disaster strikes and move us to extraordinary acts of altruism. But it can also be manipulated to turn an ordinary person into a suicide terrorist or a group of bystanders into a mob. In a series of compulsively readable narratives, Shankar Vedantam journeys through the latest discoveries in neuroscience, psychology, and behavioral science to uncover the darkest corner of our minds and its decisive impact on the choices we make as individuals and as a society. Filled with fascinating characters, dramatic storytelling, and cutting-edge science, this is an engrossing exploration of the secrets our brains keep from us—and how they are revealed.

Interviews have always been nerve wracking experiences, however, the new style of behavioural questioning has made the final cabin crew interview a particularly gruelling process. Questions are fired in a way that actually keeps candidates from knowing what to say in response, and yet the recruiters are looking for quick and well-prepared answers. Under this pressure, candidates are often thrown off guard and, information that would never otherwise be revealed, is openly volunteered as they struggle to come up with appropriate answers on demand. And, if this wasn't enough, recruiters are able to use a variety of tactics to trick candidates into volunteering sensitive information that would be illegal to ask in an interview. It is this kind of information that recruiters use to unfairly eliminate candidates based on their secret criteria. Generic answers such as: I'm a workaholic, a perfectionist and I always try to please everyone are no longer going to cut it and neither is memorising lists of answers. In fact, memorising answers and trying to prepare for every possible scenario will work against you. Not only do you run the risk of sounding like a robot, with a boring and flat delivery, you are also more likely to be caught off guard by the aggressive and fast-paced style of questioning. Within this guide, you will be shown how to create powerful answers that are flexible and can be applied to any scenario. You will learn why airlines use these trick questions, what the recruiter is secretly screening for and how to spot one so that you can avoid being culled by their deceptive tactics. No longer will you be cursed with run-of-the-mill and uninspiring answers that will have you sounding like everyone else, but can enter the process sounding like a top candidate. So prepare yourself, as you are about to understand the interview and hiring process from an entirely different viewpoint.

"295 FLIGHT ATTENDANT INTERVIEW QUESTIONS WITH ANSWERS THAT WORK" is a very unique book which evolved from the first edition which had only 101 questions in 1998. It has always been a companion to another book written by Tom Janovsky, called FLIGHT ATTENDANT CAREER (ISBN 978-1-7337588-0-2). The fifth edition of that book was published in 2019. Both books helped thousands to the highly coveted job as a flight attendant. Tom Janovsky spent years working for the airlines and by far he enjoyed the most working for Delta Air Lines as a flight attendant.. He attended many Open Houses for the flight attendant job and saw that while he always got in, there was a huge number of those who have come to one interview after another but were always rejected. Since he had a knack for simplifying concepts (wrote several manuals for physicians and nurses when working as a registered nurse in Critical Care), he authored his first book on how to succeed at airline interviews. This question and answer book is now in its 5th edition. It owes its success to the system used for preparing flight attendant candidates for the tough interviews. It features all questions Tom collected around the world over the last two decades, and each question is followed by an answer that worked for many people during interviews. Those answers are merely examples so that each candidate can come up with his or her own answer that is uniquely theirs, but along the successful "line." It is profusely illustrated, mainly but great aviation photos taken by a Czech aviation professional, Mr. Martin Novak.

What to remember : * Make a good Resume/CV Don't compress everything into one page, do 2 pages if needed * When you go to your Open day or Assessment Day, go in a good business attire. Girls put on some make up and attach your hair in a bun. * Make a good first impression. Say something to the recruiter, at least tell them that you're thankful for their time. Practice in front of the mirror ;) * SMILE * Be enthusiastic while doing your group exercises. Don't focus on results, focus on having good communication skills. HAVE FUN ! * Don't interrupt people while they are talking. I insist on this one ! * Listen to others and only speak if needed. When you speak think about it before saying it (if it's possible), say something that makes sense about the situation that was presented. * Don't be afraid to look the recruiters in their eyes, they are not monsters ;) * It is better to try to get an invitation for an Assessment Day * Do a lot of researching on the web. * If you truly want to work for Emirates (Etihad/Qatar) never give up, do your best and be prepared !
