is no reason to continue paying top dollar for items that you need when there are alternatives. Saving money on everything you purchase allows you to invest additional money each month. Start with a good budget that cuts out unnecessary spending and reduces your expenses so you can save more each month. Even if you save just $20 per month that's over $200 that you wouldn't have available otherwise! Put that $240 into your savings account or use it for another budgetary item. Every dollar you save helps bring your budget into balance. Helps you live within your means. Don't spend more than you have. It doesn't get any more basic! Tips to remember are asking yourself these pertinent questions, as you are shopping: 1. Is this item something I really need? 2. Do I already have one of these items? 3. How many hours of pay is this item worth? 4. Again, do I really, really "need" this item or do I just "want it?" The answers to these questions and more are available at the click of your mouse at "15 Top Ways to Save Money." Good Luck and Success! You Deserve It! value of the things you own (car, house, property, insurance policylarge items)? Identify your income: How much money do you make? Detail your debts: What/who do you owe? When is it due? What interest rates are you paying on each debt? Approximate your monthly bills: What do you pay for rent/mortgage, utilities, gasoline/transportation, phone, food, clothing, insurance, entertainment? Helpful Hint: Keep a log throughout each month of everything you spend. Money Tip #2: Consider Your Lifestyle and Spending Habits Be introspective: Why do you live the way you do? For career advancement, to please family, to entertain friends, or to live comfortably? Consider what you could honestly do without: Do you pay others to do something that you could do yourself? Do you eat out when you could eat less expensively at home? Money Tip #3: Establish Financial Goals List future expenditures: What future expenses do you anticipate? (such as schooling, purchasing a home, replacing a car, etc). Consider future career and family changes: Are you considering starting your own business, serving in a ministry, getting married, or starting a family? How will these plans change your financial situation? State your future financial goals: Financially, where do you want to be 5 years from now...10 years? What are realistic expectations money saving goals? Money Tip #4: Take Action with Your Finances Pay extra on your debts and stop feeding your debt through unnecessary habits. Establish a savings plan: How much money are you setting aside for the future? How are you preparing for major emergencies and for retirement so that you don't find yourself in debt again? To help you chart your path to financial freedom, grab a copy of June Hunt's Financial Freedom: How to Handle Your Money Wisely. This tool offers practical help to find financial freedom, including: "Five Principles of Managing Money" and "How to Cancel Debt." What perspective should I have of money? Myth: "If you live a godly, Christian life, you will experience financial gain and prosperity." Truth: According to God's Word, godliness is not a means to financial gain. The Bible calls this "a different doctrine" taught by false teachers. Myth: "Money is the root of all evil." Truth: No, according to the Bible, it is the "love of money" that is a root of evil. (1 Timothy 6:10). Money can be used for great good. Myth: "If I ever have enough money and earthly possessions, I will be happy." Truth: Happiness does not spring from your financial situation nor does it come from possessions. "His master replied, Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master's happiness!" (Matthew 25:23). Finding true financial freedom involves more than having enough money to bask in the comfort of a prosperous lifestyle. It's more than learning to budget expenses, to save regularly, to invest wisely. True financial freedom is being content with what God gives you. And contentment is a matter of the heart! Accidents happen, and when they do, insurance is what keeps our finances safe and sound. Whether an auto collision is your fault or somebody else's, your car insurance coverage should help you. How much it helps, however, is up to you, and this is determined by the combination of options that comprise your insurance policy. I've been working in insurance for more than twenty years, and I have been a consumer longer than that. I'm always amazed when I talk to friends and acquaintances, and they tell me that they've been with one company for years and have never shopped for a better deal. They could be saving a lot of money. Of course, they have their reasons. Sometimes they tell me that since all insurance is alike, there's no point. Sometimes they tell me that the policies are just too confusing. And occasionally they tell me they really hadn't thought about

CAN bus and between devices and systems. Then, once you have an understanding of a vehicle's communication network, you'll learn how to intercept data and perform specific hacks to track vehicles, unlock doors, glitch engines, flood communication, and more. With a focus on low-cost, open source hacking tools such as Metasploit, Wireshark, Kayak, can-utils, and ChipWhisperer, The Car Hacker's Handbook will show you how to:

- Build an accurate threat model for your vehicle
- Reverse engineer the CAN bus to fake engine signals
- Exploit vulnerabilities in diagnostic and data-logging systems
- Hack the ECU and other firmware and embedded systems
- Feed exploits through infotainment and vehicle-to-vehicle communication systems
- Override factory settings with performance-tuning techniques
- Build physical and virtual test benches to try out exploits safely

People believe that putting in all the hard work to earn this wealth means it should be spent on enjoyment and making life luxurious. But in practical life this is not true. If you spend all your money without saving for rainy days, you might end up in great trouble. In the short run you might feel happy from all the spending but in the long run saving is the right path to follow. Have you ever thought what might happen if you lost your job tomorrow or God forbid end up in an accident or car crash. Truth is that all our life we encounter various surprises and unforeseen events. And most of the time spending of money in response to them is unavoidable. If you are a saver and have some bucks set aside for such surprises, it will definitely bring about some reduction in the stress and anxiety of not having the money. What is saving? Saving is the collection or accumulation of funds that can be used in the future to gain protection from the harsh adversities of life. Saving in the present can help provide flexibility in financial pressures in the future.

Problem: People are tired of feeling powerless and uninformed when dealing with insurance. Solution: At last, here you'll find the inside tips that will enable you to save money, time, and avoid frustration when buying or renewing your insurance. Dear Friend: If you're like most people, you're paying too much on your insurance premiums and should know that there are "untold" ways to save money and prevent aggravation. But unless you were privy to the "inside tips" that most insurance professionals know about, you wouldn't have a clue as to how you could save as much as possible. Well, here's your chance to get the secrets that some don't volunteer to share. Listed below are just some of the things you'll learn in "Insurance Secrets Revealed," to start putting cash back into YOUR pocket, take better control, and protect yourself & family...right away: • Learn the one simple "secret" that could save hundreds or thousands of dollars off of a homeowners or auto insurance premium immediately! • Discover the one thing that's overlooked by most people and causes them to overpay month after month • Learn the "special questions" to ask an insurance company or agent that can save you money off of your quote or premium • Discover how and when an insurance company can fix your car, even if you only have liability coverage • Learn “Secrets” to saving money when insuring younger drivers • How to prevent paying “out of pocket” (despite having insurance) to your finance or leasing company after a major accident • Discover 12 important insurance products you must know about NOW! • How to inexpensively cover yourself against major lawsuits • How to really buy auto insurance and what you should be asking for • How to choose a good insurance company before it's too late • Learn what to include in your policy, to get more money for your home or auto claim • How to get life insurance death benefits WHILE YOU'RE STILL LIVING (most people are absolutely shocked by this, and no, it's not the accumulated cash value of the policy.) • Find out these important tips to keep from being “penalized” or cancelled by your insurance company • Learn the difference between buying insurance through agents, brokers, and buying direct (there is a difference) • Find out things you should know about the claims process, that perhaps no one ever told you! • Discover what every homeowner should know about mold, where to go for help, and much more! DON'T RELY SOLELY ON AGENTS OR SALES REPS TO TELL YOU HOW TO SAVE ON, OR BUY INSURANCE! Insurance is a serious topic and the truth of the matter is that most people don't have a clue as to what they're getting or what they should be asking for when talking to an insurance agent. Not knowing what to buy or what type of policy is best for your situation can cost you and your family BIG TIME by leaving you at the mercy of an insurance salesperson's lack of experience, knowledge and/or concern. To be honest, you have a right to know all you can without being an insurance agent yourself. This is why this information is now being revealed, so consumers like yourself can be put on a level playing
