A boy observes the Muslim holy month of Ramadan with his family.

In his first work of narrative nonfiction, Matthew Pearl, bestselling author of acclaimed novel The Dante Club, explores the little-known true story of the kidnapping of legendary pioneer Daniel Boone's daughter and the dramatic aftermath that rippled across the nation. On a quiet midsummer day in 1776, weeks after the signing of the Declaration of Independence, thirteen-year-old Jemima Boone and her friends Betsy and Fanny Callaway disappear near the Kentucky settlement of Boonesboro, the echoes of their faraway screams lingering on the air. A Cherokee-Shawnee raiding party has taken the girls as the latest salvo in the blood feud between American Indians and the colonial settlers who have decimated native lands and resources. Hanging Maw, the raiders' leader, recognizes one of the captives as Jemima Boone, daughter of Kentucky's most influential pioneers, and realizes she could be a valuable pawn in the battle to drive the colonists out of the contested Kentucky territory for good. With Daniel Boone and his posse in pursuit, Hanging Maw devises a plan that could ultimately bring greater peace both to the tribes and the colonists. But after the girls find clever ways to create a trail of clues, the raiding party is ambushed by Boone and the rescuers in a battle with reverberations that nobody could predict. As Matthew Pearl reveals, the exciting story of Jemima Boone's kidnapping vividly illuminates the early days of America's westward expansion, and the violent and tragic clashes across cultural lines that ensue. In this enthralling narrative in the tradition of Candice Millard and David Grann, Matthew Pearl unearths a forgotten and dramatic series of events from early in the Revolutionary War that opens a window into America's transition from colony to nation, with the heavy moral costs incurred amid shocking new alliances and betrayals.

The explosion of a jetliner over India triggers an Apocalyptic battle that sweeps across the subcontinent. Reprint. Inspirational, simple Islamic Stories and authentic Islamic Facts for Kids The Book "Inspiring Islamic Stories" is not like other Islamic Books for Kids! It contains three stories; one of them is the most inspiring and unforgettable story of all - Prophet Muhammad (Peace and Blessings of Allah be upon him). This Islamic bedtime book for Toddlers is filled with good Islamic morals and manners, teaching your child age three and above about Allah and to understand the importance of good and bad actions. It has been created in recognition of the need for books that tell real, authentic Islamic stories for children. Most of the Islamic children's books available today lack authenticity or are written in a complicated language for young Muslims to understand. "Inspiring Islamic Stories" is written in a way that even very young kids can easily understand. The author made these stories as authentic as possible by taking stories and information from the Quran, Tafseer Ibn Katheer, Bukhari, Muslim, and other authentic Hadith books and simplifying the language and adding context children can understand, without changing the intended meaning. This simple language results from an interactive reading process between the author and her children. If you are looking for a good Islamic children's book with inspirational, simple stories for kids 2-10, this colorful picture book is a great choice. Don't be surprised if it quickly becomes one of their favorite books they ask to read again and again. Editorial Reviews: "I thought this book was enlightening and entertaining. Also, I think there are many similarities across religions with respect to their morals and values for a life well spent. I cannot say whether the book might be confusing for very small children from different faiths, but I think it would be great for Islam children of various ages and for older children from other faiths." -Dr. Jay "[The] idea would have been to buy the book.. brand it to MC and give it away free. But you will make more money selling it it seems. Jzk."-Head Admin of Muslim Central whose co-director is Mufti Ismail Menk (Zimbabwe) "And as a children's book author myself, I like to see what 'new' books are out there. This book is VERY nicely illustrated (calming color scheme; enchanting overall) and evenly paced. It can be hard to write for a very young audience, especially about religions, but this book gets it right. In addition, I would also recommend this book for older non-Muslim children and teens, who simply want to learn more about Islam. Well done!" -Christy Burbidge, Author, Copy Editor, MSW (Simmons University) and PhD in Expressive Therapies (Lesley University) "The last story about the gardens of Sheba was by far the best and illustrated wonderfully."-Nikki Lewen, 5 Stars Award winning American Author, who was featured at the National John Steinbeck Center About the Author Julia Hanke was born and raised in Germany.
