Boone and Kurtz's Contemporary Business Brief Edition is packed-literally-with innovation, giving students up-close, hands-on experience with the dynamic world of business. Instead of just offering students a glimpse of the 21st century marketplace, this entirely new book provides a firsthand, personal experience, enabling readers to feel the excitement of wrestling with real-world business issues. Responding to the almost universal call for a shorter text that could be covered in one term, Boone and Kurtz have produced a cutting-edge book that is 28 percent shorter than Contemporary Business 10th Edition. All the features that have made Contemporary Business the world's most popular text—and the choice of more than 4 million students—are included in the new Brief Edition.

Renowned for its authoritative, comprehensive coverage of contemporary international finance, Multinational Business Finance trains the leaders of tomorrow's multinational enterprises to recognize and capitalize on the unique characteristics of global markets. Because the job of a manager is to make financial decisions that increase a firm's value, the authors have embedded real-world mini-cases throughout to apply chapter concepts to the types of situations managers of multinational firms face. The 15th Edition attempts to capture the rapid evolution of our global marketplace, taking a closer look at the types of organizations that permeate the widespread arena, competition, and opportunities in emerging markets, and how financial leadership can integrate the strategic and financial challenges that global businesses face today.

Warren/Reeve/Duchac's MANAGERIAL ACCOUNTING 14E provides a solid foundation in managerial accounting fundamentals, while motivating students to learn by showing how accounting is important to business. Business examples and a new chapter schema provide context for readers, demonstrating how each chapter's content fits into the big picture, connecting fundamental concepts with real businesses. Important Notice: Media content referenced within the product description or the product text may not be available in the ebook version.

In the Fourteenth Edition of The Middle East, Ellen Lust brings important new coverage to this comprehensive, balanced, and superbly researched text. In clear prose, Lust and her outstanding contributors explain the many complex changes taking place across the region. New to this edition is a country profile chapter on Sudan by Fareed Hassan. All country chapters now address domestic and regional conflict more explicitly, and all tables, figures, boxes, and maps have been fully updated with the most recent data and information.

This anthology looks deeply at women researchers' personal stories, struggles, and successes within the context of conducting research in the male-dominated sphere of prison studies. Their insights provide an analytical resource from which readers can better understand the context of doing prison research and the theoretical and methodological challenges that come with it. Their autoethnographic stories shed light on the unique issues faced by women prison researchers and provide a roadmap for understanding the novel strategies, methodological landmines, and epistemological challenges for those who will come after them. Their experiences as women investigators are couched in a distinct set of challenges. This book is intended to highlight those researchers' challenges and also, to celebrate their successes.
