

Conveyancing Greens Conveyancing Statutes Library

Greens legislative reprints are designed to provide the Scots lawyer and student with collections of statutes and subordinate legislation in key subject areas of Scots law. Each item of legislation is presented in its current form, as amended by subsequent legislation. Full notes on amending provisions are included under each section saving valuable time researching in the law library and providing a reliable statement of how the present statutory position has developed. This annually updated looseleaf brings together all the Statutes and Statutory Instruments which deal with or impinge upon Scottish conveyancing practice, and will be updated as legislation and statutory instruments come into force. The work takes into account significant changes in the law relating to conveyancing since 1994, including the Requirements for Writing (Scotland) Act 1995 and the Contract (Scotland) Act 1997.

Refining conveyancing procedures can save valuable time and money. Using checklists is a reliable method of ensuring that all the necessary steps in a transaction have been successfully fulfilled, in order, and to deadline. This book provides a comprehensive range of checklists that follow the steps of a transaction.
