Many books have been written on how to be a leader. But few books deal with how to be a follower. While some are called to be leaders, far more are called to be followers. In our daily lives, we are called to be followers in many different forms. The secret to a strong marriage is the ability to be a good follower of our spouse. Parents must teach their children how to be good followers in the family, in school and in the church. Much has been written about the decline in the respect for authority among the children of today. But where can parents go to find guidance in teaching their children the importance of being a good follower? In our jobs, we must follow our leaders. In the church, we must follow the leading of our pastors and other church leaders. But the pastor must also be a good follower, as we are all called to follow God. In the last words of Jesus, he commended His spirit to his Father. This is the example of the true follower that Jesus left for us. In this ground-breaking book, Dag Heward-Mills provides practical ways that we can be good followers in all that we do.

The Bible admonishes us to: "look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others"(Phillippians 2:4). In this timely book, Dag Heward-Mills challenges you to go beyond thinking about yourself and think of others also! Love others also! Consider others also! Care about others also! Live for others also! Jesus came to die for us because He thought about "others". I want to be more like Him. Do you want to be like Jesus?

Practical solutions to the challenges of church administration are clearly outlined in this phenomenal new book by Dag Heward-Mills.

In this book, Dag Heward-Mills invites us, urges us and shows us how we may join this great work of looking after God's people. Don't be left out of this beautiful job of how to become a shepherd! More

The priorities of Jesus are stated throughout the Gospels. When you are a sinner, you basically choose between two options: good and evil. As you grow in the Lord, your options increase and you begin to have more to choose from. Now you have to choose between good and good. When you get to this point, it is important to understand the concept of priorities so that you can decide what to do first. Whenever Jesus spoke of the first or the foremost issue, He used the Greek word proton . In this book Dag Heward-Mills takes a look at the proton issues, things that Jesus said should be done first. This passionate author takes a look at all the important aspects of our lives like relationships, our faults, our problems, our mistakes and what the priority should be in these aspects. One of the examples is that the Lord wants us to sort out our relationships before we come to Him

In this book, the author shows the believer a master key to receiving spiritual, physical, financial and material breakthrough!

There are many things that do not look like disloyalty but are disloyalty. They are the attitudes and behaviour patterns that give rise to treachery and disloyalty. It is important to know about these things because they are often the predecessors of serious leadership crises. Satan causes confusion in the house of the Lord and uses it to stir up disloyal elements in the church. Many people use pretence, familiarity and their power of intimidation to be disloyal.

Many Christians have struggled with questions like, "How can I know the will of God for my life? What is God saying about this particular situation I am passing through? What is the right decision to make?" This exceptional book by Dag Heward-Mills will teach you about the different kinds of voices that influences our decisions, the different methods by which God speaks.

Life on this earth is affected by different things. Have you ever wondered why life is fraught with unexpected results despite all your efforts to succeed? There are factors, elements, indeed determinants that influence the outcome of the things we do. In this book, you will encounter determinants that cross the path of everyone. This book gives you a chance to make the best of the race of life! May you be guided by the revelation of this book, to walk as one who is aware that, "Time and chance happeneth to us all." Let these determinants move your life forward!

In this outstanding book, Dag Heward-Mills examines real life situations in ministry today. He addresses practical issues like finances, politics, relating with the opposite sex, and ministerial interactions. A common sense guide to the principled practice of your calling, this book is a must for every Christian leader. It is highly recommended for Bible schools and clergy in general.

This book helps to explain how to develop the most important habit of your life. Dag Heward-Mills, a passionate Christian leader, reveals the greatest secret of his relationship with God as his quiet time they have everyday. Quiet time is the time you spend with God alone and because we have such busy schedules, the important thing is to develop a strategy and follow steps for successful time with God. It is important not to lose your only chance for a personal relationship with God. A lot of practical guidelines are given like a daily prayer time, studying the Bible during this time and tools for effective time with God. The importance of how to interpret the Bible is also stressed and quotes of what great men said about the Bible are used to show how important the Bible is to Christians. George Washington, the first president of the USA, said: It is impossible to rightly govern the world without God and the Bible.

In this book Dag Heward-Mills unveils the certain characters that you deal with in your ministry and who you should watch out for. You'll get to deal with doubtful men whose loyalty comes into question from time to time, dangerous sons who can turn on you like wild tigers, bad advisors who will not protect and help you and painfully disloyal people. Scoffers and mockers will always be part of the world we live in and they don't think much of you and actually despise you. This is a spirit that tries to shut up and intimidate you. Like in any other work environment, there is always a person that you should watch out for and that is why you should be able to recognize these certain traits that are taught in this book. The author also tells the reader to be grateful. This world has six billion ungrateful people! This is what creates the discontentment, conflict and wars. There are people we must be grateful to, says Dag Heward-Mills in the conclusion of this book.
