A dense black cloud boiled up in the southeastern sky. It rose high and fast, like a time-lapse movie of the birth of a thunderhead. But it was no rain cloud. Wholly black, it reached up and up until it loomed over her, blocking out the sun. Somehow, she knew, it was Death coming for her. Pre-med student Coral is on vacation in Idaho when something terrible happens. The black cloud is followed by a wildfire and searing heat that lasts for days. She survives deep in a cave but emerges days later to find the world transformed, with blackened trees, an ash-filled sky, and no living creatures stirring--except for her. So begins her desperate journey: to find water, and food, and other survivors...and the answer to the mystery of what happened. Gray I is the first novel in a series.

In January of 2013 Max was diagnosed with an incurable chronic inflammatory degenerative autoimmune disease. Contrary to all medical prognosis that Max will need multiple surgeries and will suffer in pain for the rest of his life, taking powerful anti-inflammatory and immune suppression drugs, Max completely recovered in 180 days. Dozen's of scientific research papers were published in the past five years and new diagnostic tools were developed revealing the real causes and factors for chronic inflammation, degeneration and premature aging of cells, tissues and organs. When your joints hurt so much that you cannot walk, when inflammation and pain takes over your body, when ulcers bleed inside your stomach cavity, when no medicine brings relief, when physicians tell you there is no medical cure - you don't give up hope. Suffering brings wisdom, strength and most important knowledge that can change everything. We were told so many times that there is no medical cure for this painful, inflammatory, degenerative, auto-immune disease, and they were absolutely right because the cure was at the farm and not at the pharmacy. Max's blood sedimentation rate was reduced 20 folds. From 61 mm/hr to 3 mm/hr in 180 days after changing his diet to real food. Max's calprotectin protein (inflammation marker) was reduced 28 folds. From 504 mcg/g to 18 mcg/g in 180 days after changing his diet to real food. Max's C-reactive protein (inflammation marker) was reduced 12 folds. From 6.2 mg/dl to 0.5 mg/dl in 180 days after changing his diet to real food. The book is short, simple, and straight forward. It is an effective tool in your hands to start your own search for the truth. The book is printed in full color and contains 27 pictures and over 90 references and links to relevant scientific research papers, medical research papers, books, videos, and news articles published worldwide in the last five years. A Bionic, a Mutant, and a Geek are forced by their Keepers to team up and prepare to take back the ruined world. Throughout their training, these teens are led to believe that not everything is as it seems. Vitriol is the autobiography of musician and magician Ray Sherwin. It highlights the deceptions used to control the people of the world by governments, banks, religions and organised pharma. Sherwin provides for the first time a history of the early days of Chaos Magick and the Illuminates of Thanateros. He does this as an outsider in the same way that he discredits all organised religion and, in particular, the religious bias which allowed Europeans to invade Palestine and to perpetrate genocide there. He shows, with the help of statistics, how vaccination is a scam, a method for the ruling elite to dumb down and reduce the population. Sherwin sees The Old Religion as the only genuine religion and backs up this thesis with a historical look at Christianity, Judaism and Islam, disciplines which he sees as 'mutable'. People are fascinated by their birth date and what else happened on that day throughout history. This is the perfect birthday gift for friends and family members, guaranteed to be remembered as one of the most interesting gifts they receive! Full of not only the usual historic events from news, sports and the entertainment world, but also including quite a bit of captivating trivia.

Jesse Michaels, bike messenger, Damon Miles, just out of prison, Maggie Gray, call center technician, and Elliot, who has been living on the streets, all find themselves in Times Square on New Year's Eve but instead of a celebration, all the power goes out and the city descends into chaos. The only way these four people will survive the aftermath of an EMP is if they work together to get out of New York City. At times poignant, at times funny, always touching, this wide-ranging essay collection will speak to every reader. The heartrending opener, Forgiving Myself, is about Stephanie Kepke's struggle to overcome the soul-crushing guilt after she fainted while holding her day-old newborn, allowing him to plummet to the hospital floor and leaving him with a skull fracture. The bittersweet closing essay is a letter to young mothers, written after leaving her oldest son at college, imploring them to enjoy the beautiful chaos that is life with young children--before the house is quiet. In between are essays about parenting a child with mental illness; giving up perfectionism in motherhood; battling an eating disorder (and parenting a child battling an eating disorder); health struggles; beauty and aging gracefully; hockey and more. This book is a journey--a winding, sometimes joyous, sometimes painful, but always worth it--journey, just like life...

Amsden Ironwrought is a master blacksmith living in a remote village in Ancient Egypt. Ethan Samuels is an ordinary, fourteen year-old boy living in modern-day Chicago. Though two thousand years separate their intertwined timelines, the two of them have more in common than they would expect. Ethan has spent the last fourteen years of his life moving from city to city with his mother, but after finally laying roots in Chicago, his life seems to have settled down. In a snowy alleyway, an unexpected mugging plunges Ethan into the magical world of the Bloodline and whisks him away to Aschwood Academy, a school for the magically gifted. There, he befriends a quirky mix of loyal friends and finds himself in the midst of a plot by the Blood Host to steal one of the most powerful relics in the world. Amsden's tale centers upon the creation of those very relics nearly two thousand years ago. A group of ambitious foreigners have discovered an unknown material near his homeland that grants them near god-like powers, and the men conquer and mercilessly rule the land fueled by the talismans they had Amsden create. Enraged by the stories of brutality and chaos, he decides to use the powers he has secretly acquired and bring the fight to them. Aschwood Academy: The Bloodline is the debut children's, fantasy novel by M. B. Cohen and is the first book in the Aschwood Academy series.

As Ruben Wells kneels with a gun pointed at his head all he can do is reflect on the life he spoiled. What has led him here? Was it his willingness to always try to do the right thing that has him staring at the barrel of a gun? Or was that he was too much of a people pleaser having a hard time saying no that has led to him begging for his life? Every thing begins and ends with a choice. The moment a choice is made it only takes a second for a life to change. Ruben made a choice to initiate a relationship with the alluring Bianca Jones. She makes heads turn and every man's dream. She is beautiful as a gazelle, but as dangerous as a lioness, as she's unavailable due to being unhappily married with children. Being married doesn't keep her from wanting to pursue Ruben as well as being pursued by him. Getting involved with Bianca changes Ruben's life in ways he never could have imagined. Choices are a gift constantly given to everyone. The choices made lead to different paths. We all have to choose this day what we're going to do with our own lives not knowing what the end result will be. What kind of impact will Ruben's choices have on his life?

Past failures don't have to define you. Order from Chaos offers a helping hand to get you on the path to a more peaceful and rewarding life. Having survived the worst effects of the Civil War, the city of Memphis, battered but unbowed, finds itself facing a far more dangerous foe. It is invisible, lethal, and unstoppable: a plague of yellow fever. It is the story of JP Mahoney, 14-year-old farm boy who dreams of escape from tedious chores and farmlife routine. It is the story of a courageous young woman, Ginnie Moon, onetime Confederate spy, who now operates a boarding house for men who have survived the war. And it is the story of Kevin O'Boyle, an embittered riverfront laborer, who blames the world for his troubles, and finds the crippled city his perfect prey. Several characters in the novel are actual historical figures, most notably Ginnie Moon, Judge "Pappy" Hadden, and Cap'n Jim Lee. Their actions, and those of the other characters, are entirely fictional. The plague, one of several to hit the city in the years following the war, was all too real.

After surviving the prison riots and deadly skirmishes with the wanna-be dictator of Texas County, Maddie and her group are left with dwindling resources, unprepared for the harsh winter ahead. Old friends pitch in to help until a more deadly foe arrives to put all of their lives at risk. A daring mission to St. Louis for precious lifesaving supplies has deadly consequences. Will they have the courage it takes to make it back in time? As the long, hard winter takes its deadly toll and gives way to spring, a force no weapon can defeat threatens the group. Can they pull together under its weight or will they all be lost? Upheaval is Book Five in T. L. Payne's heart-stopping series, Days of Want. Watch for Mayhem: Days of Want, Book Six, coming in early 2020.

"In the spring of 2031 terrorists detonate nuclear bombs in nine American and European cities. They are not the small "suitcase" bombs intelligence agencies had anticipated, but large strategic weapons, smuggled to their targets on trucks and aboard ships. Millions die in the firestorms. In the months that follow, thousands more are lost to radiation sickness, starvation and the lawless gangs terrorizing the countryside. The global financial system collapses. The military labors to establish order but is forced to commit nearly all its resources to the cities, which have become massive refugee camps. In the rural outland there is anarchy. The Chinese offer aid, but demand an impossible concession: the dissolution of the United States and creation of a new Sino-American continental state. They are refused. Can the U.S. hope to rebuild without aid? Its wounds are deep, the damage severe. The struggle continues, the days grind on, but the leaders know they are making almost no progress. In July they receive news so terrible that at first they cannot believe it. In five locations at once, Chinese troops are landing on American beaches. For the first time in over 200 years the United States is being invaded by a foreign power!"--Amazon blurb.

30 days of reflections from the stillness of the time-out chair in the midst of the hustle and bustle of one busy woman's topsy turvy life.

So Hannah rose up after they had eaten in Shi-loh, and after they had drunk....and she was in bitterness of soul, prayed unto God." 1 Sam. 1:9:10 Hannah represents the weak bullied by the strong, Peninnah. God hears and rescues the Hannahs of the world. Hannah discovered God was always present and ready to help during those moments in life when she felt there was no one she could turn to, no one who would understand and simply feared being judged by the world. Transparency gives us not only an insight into Michelle's heart for God, but reveals how she learned through her caterpillar stage of growing pains, to trust Him with all her imperfections. Daily she turned to Him with her weaknesses, fears, desires, and gratitude, faithfully praying "Lord here I am with You. I surrender my mind, body and soul to You. Lead, guide, and instruct me the way You will have me to go." Many times, we do not understand why things happen, but we can find comfort in knowing God knows each of our stories from the beginning to the end. He knows what He purposed and created us for. His strength is made known through our weakness. He is waiting with outstretched arms to save us. We can give it all to Him! Hannah prayed, "My heart exults in the Lord; my strength is exalted in the Lord." Like Hannah, we must recognize our strength comes from God and not ourselves. God hears our prayers and will show us how He can use our weakness to complete the work He began in us. In the words of Ana Claudia Antunes all we need to do is, "Keep up our faith to go high and fly, even after so many pains and sorrow. You can turn from a caterpillar to a butterfly."

Instant #1 New York Times and Wall Street Journal bestseller From the Washington Post journalists Yasmeen Abutaleb and Damian Paletta—the definitive account of the Trump administration's tragic mismanagement of the COVID-19 pandemic, and the chaos, incompetence, and craven politicization that has led to more than a half million American deaths and counting. Since the day Donald Trump was elected, his critics warned that an unexpected crisis would test the former reality-television host—and they predicted that the president would prove unable to meet the moment. In 2020, that crisis came to pass, with the outcomes more devastating and consequential than anyone dared to imagine. Nightmare Scenario is the complete story of Donald Trump's handling—and mishandling—of the COVID-19 catastrophe, during the period of January 2020 up to Election Day that year. Yasmeen Abutaleb and Damian Paletta take us deep inside the White House, from the Situation Room to the Oval Office, to show how the members of the administration launched an all-out war against the health agencies, doctors, and scientific communities, all in their futile attempts to wish away the worst global pandemic in a century. From the initial discovery of this new coronavirus, President Trump refused to take responsibility, disputed the recommendations of his own pandemic task force, claimed the virus would “just disappear,” mocked advocates for safe-health practices, and encouraged his base and the entire GOP to ignore or rescind public health safety measures. Abutaleb and Paletta reveal the numerous times officials tried to dissuade Trump from following his worst impulses as he defied recommendations from the experts and even members of his own administration. And they show how the petty backstabbing and rivalries among cabinet members, staff, and aides created a toxic environment of blame, sycophancy, and political pressure that did profound damage to the public health institutions that Americans needed the most during this time. Even after an outbreak in the fall that swept through the White House and infected Trump himself, he remained defiant in his approach to the virus, very likely costing him his own reelection. Based on exhaustive reporting and hundreds of hours of interviews from inside the disaster zone at all levels of authority, Nightmare Scenario is a riveting account of how the United States government failed its people as never before, a tragedy whose devastating aftershocks will linger and be felt by generations to come.
