Siendo hijo adolescente de un padre millonario y una madre en el negocio de los espectáculos, Doug Batchelor tenía todo lo que el dinero puede comprar; todo, menos la felicidad. Él consumió drogas, tuvo peleas en la escuela y albergó fantasías suicidas. Chasqueado consigo mismo, y convencido de que la vida no tiene sentido, Doug estaba decidido a obtener toda la diversión y emoción que pudiese hallar. Tiempo antes de terminar con su búsqueda, se instaló en una caverna en los cerros de Palm Springs, California. Y, a pesar de que su padre era dueño de un yate, un jet privado y una línea aérea, Doug llegó a revolver tachos de basura en busca de comida. La felicidad que Doug deseaba se le escapaba, hasta que un día comenzó a leer la empolvada Biblia que otro "buscador" había olvidado en su caverna. Lo que sucedió después solamente se lo puede describir como un milagro. ¡Un impresionante testimonio del poder transformador de la Palabra de Dios!

The letters of Paul to the Thessalonian believers not only provide insight into the challenges faced by one of the early Christian churches, but also allow a glimpse into the great pastoral heart of the stalwart evangelist. Yes, he endured beatings, stoning, and imprisonment on his missionary journeys and even rejoiced that he was found worthy to suffer for his Lord. Yet in the midst of his own trials he longed to nurture and encourage those converts who were experiencing persecution as well. Intertwined among such familiar themes as the Second Advent, the resurrection of believers, church discipline, and the man of lawlessness, Paul's recurring emphasis is how to live while waiting for Jesus to return. It may come as a surprise to Christians steeped in a postmodern culture, but holiness separation from the ways of the world and commitment to the ways of God and the requisite dependence upon God's power are commanded. This user-friendly devotional commentary divides the text of these Using the Bible (especially the Gospels) as a source of consolation for the believed potential devastation that would result in the Wrath of God once seen imminent through Global Warming, one is led through by the author to view positive signs of God's mercy and a new City of God that the Bible promises in Revelations. The dolphins trapped in our rivers were our delight as we witnessed the twists and turns brought upon life through our eco-systems and society. Also a film-maker, Risoli-Black details this additional dialog in the novel with anecdotes and criticisms of films of the fifties, sixties and seventies when one had choices of decent role models with ideal standards, not idols that led away from God. WRONG TURN: The Fifth Season of Love is a novel of true events where the townsfolk are the heavies that recall plots like Peyton Place and Town Without Pity. Also includes the novella, "The Song of the Bow" about the love between Jonathan and David, a love greater than the love of women.

If you are a Seventh-day Adventist Christian, you have no doubt heard of The Shepherd's Rod, a message of present truth and reform first presented to leaders of the Seventh-day Adventist Church in the years 1929 and 1930. It has created much controversy. In What Every Seventh-day Adventist Should Know about The Shepherd's Rod, author Garrick D. Augustus brings to light the historic and the theological reasons behind the rejection of The Shepherd's Rod message. It exposes the systematic misinformation, as well as the willful manipulations of the facts surrounding Victor Houteff and the movement he began more than eight decades ago. It provides clear and accurate answers to the questions raised against the Rod's message. And, it answers the objections church leaders have historically offered as "proof" against its bearing the credentials of inspiration. Augustus fused the forensic methods of evidence analytics, as well as the investigative method of internal evidence analysis, to the claims brought against the message by the leaders of the Seventh-day Adventist Church. His research took him from the Heritage Library in Loma Linda, California, to The Biblical Research Committee in Silver Spring Maryland, and beyond. What Every Seventh-day Adventist Should Know about The Shepherd's Rod journeys through the pages of history and helps to separate truth from propaganda. It takes a fresh look at an old controversy that began in eternity past and has played itself out in the rank and file of Seventh-day Adventism.

Like a jewel box filled with bright jewels and rare coins, this book is a collection of the clearest views and brightest nuggets of light from many Second Advent writers, concerning the precious prophecies of the Revelation of Jesus Christ! Inside, you will find the most amazing thought revelations, the most beautiful jewels of truth you would never have thought of before. Listen as the harmonious voices of many Second Advent authors make clear Revelation's fascinating lines of prophecies. Follow the footsteps of God's leading in the past, present, and future. If there was ever a book that should be, and is studied today, it is the book of Revelation. In fact, God has pronounced a blessing on those who hear, read, and keep the words of Revelation. May this book be a springboard to still greater light for you.

This second edition covers its history through a chronology, introductory essay, appendixes, and an extensive bibliography. The dictionary includes over 600 cross-referenced entries on key people, cinema, politics and government, sports, and critics. This book is ideal for students, researchers, and general readers.

"Someone to love me." That's all she wanted--all anyone really wants. We are all addicts, "sinaholics," says the author, trying to fill with various addictions a gaping void in our hearts designed for God. Take Mary Magdalene. She was a prosperous prostitute, but her life was one sad, sordid story--until she met Someone who loved her with a pure, unconditional love. Ever afterward the shame of her past was eclipsed by her absolute devotion to the One who set her free.

Thank you, God, for family! It is so special to have mommies and daddies, grandmas and grandpas, and brothers and sisters and cousins who love each other. Keep us close and safe, Jesus. God Bless My Family!

Franz hasel, a 40-year-old pacifist, was drafted and assigned to Pioneer Company 699, Hitler's elite troops who built bridges at the front lines. His religious scruples did not endear him to his superiors. Sarcastically dubbed "carrot eater" and "Bible reader," he finally gained the respect of his unit. Just before he was sent deep into Russia--where all but seven of his 1,200-man unit would die--he secretly discarded his gun, fearing that, as the company sharpshooter, he might be tempted to kill. In Russia he faced a new problem: how to warn the local Jews before the SS got to them.

The unpardonable sin is lurking like a deadly shark preying on its next unsuspecting meal. ... Will you be its next victim? One of the most confusing and debated teachings of the Bible is the unpardonable sin, found in Matthew 12:31: "Every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven men, but the blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven men." Some attribute this frightening sin to cursing the name of God, while others believe it has to do with murder. Whatever it is, millions of Christians live in fear that they've committed it and have no real hope. But even worse, others might be close to living beyond God's mercy and don't even know it! What is the Bible truth about the unpardonable sin? What is so awful about it and why can't God forgive it? You don't need to guess! Pastor Doug Batchelor tackles these questions to give you all the information you need to know about this perplexing topic. Not only will you get clear and penetrating answers, you'll discover new hope and a strategy to stay right with God. The occupation of the West Bank and Gaza has been one of the world's most widely reported yet least understood human rights crises for over four decades. In this oral history collection, men and women from Palestine—including a fisherman, a settlement administrator, and a marathon runner—describe in their own words how their lives have been shaped by the historic crisis. Other narrators include: ABEER, a young journalist from Gaza City who launched her career by covering bombing raids on the Gaza Strip. IBTISAM, the director of a multi-faith children's center in the West Bank whose dream of starting a similar center in Gaza has so far been hindered by border closures. GHASSAN, an Arab-Christian physics professor and activist from Bethlehem who co-founded the International Solidarity Movement.

Beginning with the destruction of Jerusalem and continuing through the persecutions of Christians in the Roman Empire, the apostasy of the Dark Ages, the shining light of the Reformation, and the worldwide religious awakening of the nineteenth century, this volume traces the conflict into the future, to the Second Coming of Jesus and the glories of the earth made new. In this concluding volume, the author powerfully points out the principles involved in the impending conflict and how each person can stand firmly for God and His truth.

After a decade of careful study and scholarly legwork, international speaker Tim Roosenberg unveils a staggering new study of Bible prophecy that demonstrates that God's Word is not silent regarding Islam in these last days.

God created us, and He knows how our minds, spirit, emotions and physics work. He made us to be dependent on Him. We must fill the vacuum with Him, not other obsessions. We belong to The Higher Power and we are His creation. Everything we do in life is empty and meaningless if we don't put God first. He wants to spend time with us. He wants to give us power to live a victorious life for Him. He wants to show the world, through us, that it is possible to live a life that is pleasing to Him and we can only do this with His constant watch and help. When the storms of life attack us, we must be solidly anchored in our Higher Power.

"A cookbook containing over one hundred plant-based recipes"--

Since 1994, Pastor Doug Batchelor has been using historical, scientific, and other amazing facts to share the gospel. And now many of his popular and unusual facts have been compiled into one comprehensive volume! So whether you're preparing a sermon, need an illustration for a children's story, or just enjoy interesting trivia, this book is sure to be a wonderful resource in your home or office.

"Rest in Christ reviews the principles of finding rest in Jesus Christ. It shows how sitting at the feet of Jesus can bring genuine spiritual, mental, relational, and physical rest"--

This favorite devotional brings together Ellen White's writings about the closing events of earth's history and the triumphant return of our Lord. You will rejoice that Jesus is coming soon.

The companion book to the Adult Sabbath School Lesson for third quarter, 2003 The Theme of Hebrews is Jesus. Written to new Christians who were tempted to waiver between the old way of Judaism and the new, living way of Christ, Hebrews is a no-holds-barred argument on why Christianity is superior. New Testament scholar Ekkehardt Mueller takes us on an incredible voyage into the heavens themselves, where Jesus, our High Priest, ever liveth to make intercession for us. Come Boldly to the Throne reveals the reality of Christ's ministry in the heavenly sanctuary and the importance of that ministry to His people on earth. In these pages we see the Cross revealed in the only context that can fully explain its significance -- the heavenly sanctuary. You will rejoice in the hope, promises, and assurance that exudes from every page of this faith-affirming book

The Exodus was a dominant and defining story in the Jewish nation, life and faith- and it became one of the foundational ways in which His first followers understood Jesus and, in turn, the New Testament writers explained who Jesus was and what He did. So this story also becomes a key for our understanding of Jesus, the early church and the New Testament, and for what it means for us to follow Jesus today. "In this thoughtful and accessible volume, Kayle de Waal has shown us the way that challenging and high-quality biblical research can continue to enrich the life and witness of the disciple community. With a scholar's grasp of literary structure and a pastor's skill in bringing the Word to the life lived, he has offered a 'new exodus' of his own-one that leads the worshipping fellowship of Christ-followers out of the naïve and simplistic readings of Scripture that we too often settle for. Having followed de Waal on his exploration of 'the way', I will never read the New Testament as I used to-and that's a gift I celebrate."-Dr Bill Knott, Editor, Adventist Review and Adventist World.

Who Do You Think You Are? Finding the Right Life Through Real Faith At Jesus' Feet The Gospel According to Mary Magdalene Review and Herald Pub Assoc "Deuteronomy, The Book of Love is a review of the primary themes of the fifth book of the Bible. It shows how Deuteronomy expands on God's previous revelation, providing practical advice on how the Israelites are to live in the new territory He is giving them. It also reminds them to revere God and maintain a loving and obedient relationship with him"--

We live in interesting times. In our times we know many facts but lack faith. We know so much about medicine but enjoy little health. We ask many questions but receive few answers. Living in a broken world, in times where wrong is considered right and right is considered wrong, we question the reality of the existence of God. Yet wherever we look, we see battered, scarred, bruised, maimed, and broken people crying for Him. God is always present. He is never caught off guard or taken by surprise. The problems and heartaches we face are a result of sin. The solution to sin is Jesus Christ the Creator, Savior, Sustainer, and Answer to all our questionings. By accepting Him, beholding His love and mercy, and studying His Word, our lives are transformed into His likeness. We become new creations. Jesus left the splendor of heaven to come and die for us on a cruel cross at Calvary for the sins He did not commit. He would have come and died for us if we were the only sinner in the whole universe. In Times Like These is about Jesus and His love for lost humanity. In times like these, we need Him every nanosecond of the day and night. He is coming back soon to take His children home. A home where there is no pain, cancer, disease, tears of sorrow, or disappointment. Will you go with Him to Paradise? Now is the time to get ready.

In a time of so many distractions from television, to the internet, movies, and more Bible study is fast becoming obsolete. Who in the world has time to open the Book? Yet God promises huge blessings for those who daily receive His bread of truth. In this inspiring booklet, Pastor Doug shows you the power of God's Word to change your life and the tremendous need to return to the source of our faith.
