Katharine Kerr's richly imagined cycle of novels set in Deverry and the Westlands has earned a devoted following—and a reputation as the finest Celtic fantasy being written today. Now she returns to Deverry's war-ravaged past. . . . In a kingdom torn by civil war, young Lillorigga seeks to shield her dawning powers from her cruel mother Merodda's manipulation. Mistress of a magic that, untamed, could kill her, Lilli brings her terrifying visions under the kindlier tutelage of the mysterious dweomermaster, Nevyn. But soon she must choose between her own clan and the true king who fights to claim his rightful throne, between sanctuary and blood feud, loyalty and love. Little does she dream that the slaughter she invites, and the malevolence she defies, could stalk her across the ages...twisting and twining the strands of timeless destinies.

My passion in life? Saving animals. I'm the person they call when a cat has kittens under their shed or a stray dog shows up with no collar and tags. Be it dark or rain or foggy night, I'm there for friends of fur, scale, and feather alike. I just never expected one of my rescue calls to be a werewolf pup. Not like I knew it when I showed up, but something was definitely different about him. His snout was too round, his ears too pointed, and I'd thought he was a coydog; one of those dog-coyote mixes that showed up now and then. That was before he bit me. And even an alpha pup can change an innocent mortal like me into a shapeshifting powerhouse. Flung into a new world where submission might mean death and pack politics rule the secret supernatural society, I'm lost but not alone. With the pup's father, Hudson, and his packmates leading me through this strange environment, I feel as though I could take on the world. They have everything I need; confidence, power, money. And I'm everything they could ever want. But how do we come to terms with the fact that it feels as if we've always been together? As if we all belong as a group? I haven't been on a date in years, now I have four gorgeous, rich werewolves chasing me. What's a girl to do? This book is intended for mature audiences. Adults only. This is a fated mates straight omegaverse reverse harem where the girl gets all the guys. Why choose if you don't have to? Light M/M references included.

The last of her kind. Four hot alpha mates. A legacy of bloodshed. When Ren Landis goes looking for excitement on her 21st birthday, getting kidnapped is a little more than she bargained for. So is finding out that shifters exist-and that she's one too. As the last of the dragon shifters, she's got a role to fulfill: Take the alphas of the four shifter groups as her mates and unite all shifter kind. No pressure, right? Too bad Ren's fate isn't as simple as getting it on with four scorching-hot guys. Someone is out for dragon shifter blood, intent on finishing the massacre they started years ago. If Ren can't figure out how to kickstart her buried powers, her life's about to go down in flames.

And now, I'd do anything for my men, even if it means risking my life for a job half a world away. The job is risky and takes us far from home, but for these men, I'll do anything. Fighting for this prize will test the fragile trust we've built. We have to win or we risk losing not only our love, but our lives. I've lived an eternity. I've killed thousands. Destroyed worlds. I thought I'd seen everything. I didn't think there was anything left in the galaxy that could surprise me. Then I met her. Lani Dennison. A human woman. My mate. My mission was simple. Find Lani Dennison. Zorahan scientists tortured her. I killed them, of course. Okaki pirates abducted her. I tracked them down and infiltrated their ship. Routine stuff. Nothing that presented a problem to a trained soldier that could shift into a fire-breathing dragon. I expected her to be smart. You'd have to be, to survive the Okaki pirates. I didn't expect her to be lovely. I didn't expect her to make me laugh. And I definitely didn't expect her to be the one woman I was destined to be with, the missing piece of my soul. My mate. Now what?

Two intrepid girls hunt for a legendary treasure on the deadly high seas in this YA remix of the classic adventure novel Treasure Island. 1826. The sun is setting on the golden age of piracy, and the legendary Dragon Fleet, the scourge of the South China Sea, is no more. Its ruthless leader, a woman known only as the Head of the Dragon, is now only a story, like the ones Xiang has grown up with all her life. She desperately wants to prove her worth, especially to her mother, a shrewd businesswoman who never seems to have enough time for Xiang. Her father is also only a story, dead at sea before Xiang was born. Her single memento of him is a pendant she always wears, a simple but plain piece of gold jewelry. But the pendant's true nature is revealed when a mysterious girl named Anh steals it, only to return it to Xiang in exchange for her help in decoding the tiny map scroll hidden inside. The revelation that Xiang's father sailed with the Dragon Fleet and tucked away this secret changes everything. Rumor has it that the legendary Head of the Dragon had one last treasure—the plunder of a thousand ports—that for decades has only been a myth, a fool's journey. Xiang is convinced this map could lead to the fabled treasure. Captivated with the thrill of adventure, she joins Anh and her motley crew off in pursuit of the island. But the girls soon find that the sea—and especially those who sail it—are far more dangerous than the legends led them to believe.

Isaac Morningstar III, or Zach to the few who know him, has hit rock bottom. Once an immortal, nearly-invincible dragon from Medieval times, he's been awakened only to have his powers and his treasure locked away until he can prove himself to be trustworthy and a protector of humans. Since he has never liked humans, Zach is pretty sure he's going to end up back on ice. That is, until he meets sweet, curvy Erin, a human hairdresser who might just be his mate. Erin has a pretty routine life, but that ends when a tall, gorgeous man appears out of nowhere, claiming to be an ancient dragon with immeasurable power who wants her as his mate. She doesn't know whether to laugh or run for the hills. But when the mysterious stranger saves her life and needs her help she can't just turn away. Still, the closer she gets to Zach, the more she realizes there may just be something truly magical about him. As well as something dangerous. But as the forces around them close in, Zach is quickly realizing that the darkness lurking inside him may be greater than he anticipated. And the beast within may not be the only thing they have need to fear. Warning: contains ferocious dragons, fearsome fights, fiery love scenes and a fiercely cute three-legged kitten that will steal your heart. They miscalculated when they took expert thief Yara Parmstone's little brother, though. Now, Yara is out for revenge—after she finds the final key that will allow her to save him. But the three scorching hot, mysterious men who hold that key have a message for Yara—the dragon goddess has something important in store for her. Too bad it's not as fun as a forked dragon tongue. They can make me come when they breathe. I used to be the galaxy's first daughter-its princess. In a devastating attack on my homeworld, I am taken by the enemy, evaluated like common cattle, and prepared to be sold. Then four dragons burst in and burn the place down. They save me. But it isn't safe for me to return to Nidia, so they take me to their planet, Telia II, instead. Brynn, Argon, Sharpe and Canavan are outcasts; the other alien races fear their great power. They protect me, treasure me, test my limits and chastise me when I disobey their strict rules. But what future can we have, when I must return to my duties and piece together my shattered planet, while they will never be accepted by anyone? This is a standalone reverse harem not a love triangle. It features dragon shifters doing dragony things, including setting things on fire, BDSM and spanking. It's set in the same universe as the Twenty-Fourth Century Daddies series, but this is a separate storyline featuring a completely new species.

I don't belong here. Seriously. I don't. For as long as I can remember, supernatural clans took care of their own bad apples. Shifters, fae, vampires, elves, witches—we handled our crap quietly, efficiently, and within the confines of our community's law. Until now, apparently. How else am I supposed to explain doing inventory in my café one minute, then waking up the next in a processing cell, cuffed and shackled to a chair, wearing a collar that mutes my magic? I've never gotten so much as a parking ticket before. I'm a witch without a coven, but I play by the rules. I don't start beef with other supers. Me and my familiar-we don't make waves. We like cozy, rainy Sunday afternoons and the smell of freshly baked bread. So, whatever they've got on me, it's nonsense. I know, I know. That's what everyone in Xargi Penitentiary says. Innocent. Innocent. Innocent. Only the creatures around me aren't always so innocent, and even inside these four walls, trapped by wards and warlocks and wolves, my past is determined to damn me. Until I find a non-magical way out of this, my wits are all I've got. Well, my wits... and the gruff dragon shifter who looks at me like I'm treasure he's desperate to hoard. The gorgeous fae who delights in the fact that I'm not impressed with him. Oh, and the brooding vampire who could tempt me into darkness with his smile. But I'm not here to make friends or fall in love. I don't belong in Xargi Penitentiary, and if it's the last thing I ever do, I'm getting out. Or... I just might die trying.

To top it off, she's confronted with a half-sister she had no idea existed, a half-sister with fae and witch blood. Can Sophia and her men find out what happened to the missing earth dragons? And how much is Sophia's father involved with what's going on in the town right now? But most importantly, can they heal the town and the people in it, so that they can thrive again, like they used to? This collection includes the second three novellas in the Guarding Their Dragon Mate serial, Captured Dragon, Reclaimed Dragon and Ferocious Dragon, a six episodes long reverse harem #WhyChoose story. These novellas may include any of these elements: steamy scenes, 'I need tissues NOW' moments, cries of 'why, oh, why' and cliffhangers that make you bite your nails (and curse the author). This story takes place in the same world as the Lughnasadh Elite Academy and happens after the events from the first 10 parts of the other series. Both series can be read stand-alone, they are about different characters, but they are connected.

One woman on the run. Four dangerously sexy bodyguards. And a war brewing that will change the shifter world forever... I'm living on borrowed time, fighting for survival against a deadly new virus that has no cure and a cult doing its best to brainwash me. But when a mysterious note shows up on my windowsill one night, its chilling message--Run, Wren--launches me out of the frying pan and into the fire. Within hours, everything I thought I knew about my life, my family, and my origins is obliterated, and I'm racking up enemies at an alarming rate. Between the cult I've just escaped, a violent shifter faction out for my blood, and an ancient evil who eats "chosen ones" like me for breakfast, my last hope is to join forces with four dangerous-looking men who claim they were sent to guard my life. Luke, a werewolf with a rap sheet. Creedence, a lynx shifter who never met a mark he couldn't con. Kite, a bear kin with a mean right hook and heart of gold. And Dust, my childhood best friend and dude voted least likely to be a secret shape-shifting griffin. But are these men really what they seem? Or are my alpha guardians hiding a secret agenda of their own? I'm not sure, but one thing is for certain—choosing the right allies will mean the difference between life and death. For me, and everyone I love. UNLEASHED is book one in the Dark Moon

Just when Sophia thinks she's got a handle on things going on in the dragon town, her whole world is rocked, quite literally. While Sophia, Gale and Topaz 'get to know' each other more intimately, things at the school they're camping out at have taken a turn for the worse. A group of dragon rebels were supposed to arrive today, but they never did, making everyone worry that they might have been caught by the deserter fae soldiers roaming the area. As Sophia makes it back to the school, she finds out that the parents of Gaia, the little earth dragon orphan, went missing last full moon and it's another full moon tonight... Then more bad news reaches her, another two sets of parents have gone missing... Sophia and her men try everything in their power to find out why earth dragons are going missing, what's happening to them. Why can Gaia still sense her parents when they're not there?
