

Duck Goose

A quacktastic Easter read! The stars of the bestselling Duck & Goose and Duck, Duck, Goose return in this board book for preschoolers, this time, to introduce basic opposites. In this ALA-ALSC Notable Children's Book, Goose carries an oh-so-heavy log, while duck easily balances a light-as-a-feather feather. Thistle is one fast bird, but Goose is slooo-w. And when Duck is sound asleep, Goose is wide awake. With a simple text and colorful illustrations—plus the inimitable characters, of course—here's a wonderful, and humorous, introduction to an important concept.

This edition of Ducks, Geese, and Swans consists of two volumes, printed in full color, and packaged in a slipcase, along with a CD containing references and additional maps. Duck and Goose return in their third board book appearance! All the lovable characters from Duck & Goose and Duck, Duck, Goose return, this time to teach little ones about feelings. The simple text and colourful illustrations will help children to identify familiar feelings like happy, sad, scared and proud. A simple and reassuring introduction to an important concept.

"Duck and Goose have fun dancing together as friends"--

"Duck and Goose introduce the colors"--

The beloved, classic, and New York Times-best-selling odd couple Duck & Goose are back, and this time their friendship is put to the test! Duck & Goose, Goose & Duck. Feathered friends forever . . . or are they? You see, there's a challenge to their friendship: a little whippersnapper of a duck named Thistle. Thistle is good at everything (or so she thinks), from math to holding her breath to standing on her head. Duck thinks she's fantastic. But Goose does not! And so Goose is faced with a problem close to the hearts of children everywhere: What happens when your best friend makes a new friend? PRAISE FOR THE DUCK & GOOSE SERIES: "Duck and Goose have taken their places alongside Frog and Toad and George and Martha as fine examples of friendship, curiosity and problem-solving."—Kirkus Reviews "Charming, funny, simple, and surprising. . . . Hills is master of the light comic touch."—The Boston Globe

When Duck has a gift for Goose, he puts in a box that he painted with red, blue, and yellow stripes.

Duck and Goose find an egg. "Who does it belong to?" they ask. Duck says it is his because he saw it first. Goose says it is his because he touched it first. Little by little they agree that the most important thing is to look after the egg and decide to share it. But their parenting skills come to an abrupt end when a little bird tells them that their egg is really a ball. Delightfully funny story with rich paintings and strong main characters, which firmly establishes the positive aspects of learning to share.

Bounty hunter. Vigilante. Reluctant hero. Fresh off a failed stint in the Army, Rosa Guzman has fallen back on what she knows best: bounty hunting. When an offer arrives from a man with connections to the Northeast Crime Syndicate, she's hesitant to take the job - until she hears the name of the man she'll be going after. Caught in a web of lies and her past misdeeds, Rosa's skills will be put to the test in the deadliest way possible.  Born on the streets, Rosa Guzman has lived her whole life with the dark secrets of her checkered past. Caught in a gang war with her life spiraling into chaos, the only way out is to join up with Uncle Sam. Eight years later, after a dishonorable discharge from a mission gone wrong, Rosa is back on the same Springfield streets she started from. Working as a bounty hunter with fellow Army vet Chuck Heath, she stays away from gang life, working for the side of good as she tries to atone for the sins of her past. Money, talks, though. And none talks louder than the cash offered by the mob. Caught between a desire to do good and the sins of her past catching up with her, Rosa's skills will be tested beyond their limits, forcing her to decide what is truly good and evil - and which side she is on.  Written by thriller author Jackson Riggs, the Rosa Guzman series is an edge-of-your-seat, nail-bitingly intense, adrenaline-drenched thriller, perfect for fans of Tim Tigner, Ethan Jones, Diane Capri, Russel Blake, and DV Berkhom.
