Written for a wide variety of musicians, 15 Easy Jazz, Blues & Funk Etudes will appeal to both aspiring players and to more experienced musicians. For the younger player, particular care is given to range, rhythmic figures and overall playability. The more accomplished musician will appreciate the high level of musicality, the lyrical compositions and the opportunities to improvise. Either way, the format is simple: Bob Mintzer plays and demonstrates each etude with a stellar rhythm section on the included recording. You learn each etude slowly. When ready, you play the etude with the audio accompaniment.

According to Larry Teal, the best method of learning to play the saxophone is to study with a competent teacher. Teal's studies were mostly of instruments other than the saxophone, but as a student at a Chautauqua summer session, he came under the influence of Georges Barrère, the eminent French flutist. He played bass clarinet with the Detroit Symphony, but he continued to be absorbed by the saxophone. As a result of his acquired expertise and growing reputation, he was appointed to a full-time faculty position as a saxophone teacher by the University of Michigan -- the first ever to receive such an appointment from a major university. During his 21-year tenure, he attracted students from all over, thus exerting an ever widening influence on saxophone teaching and performing.

"'La frontera'...I heard it for the first time back in the late 1940s when Papa and Mama told me and Roberto, my older brother, that someday we would take a long trip north, cross la frontera, enter California, and leave our poverty behind." So begins this honest and powerful account of a family's journey to the fields of California -- to a life of constant moving, from strawberry fields to cotton fields, from tent cities to one-room shacks, from picking grapes to topping carrots and thinning lettuce. Seen through the eyes of a boy who longs for an education and the right to call one place home, this is a story of survival, faith, and hope. It is a journey that will open readers' hearts and minds.

No estamos preparados para la muerte, vivimos de espaldas a ella, como si no existiera. Sigue siendo un tema tabú alrededor del cual existe una conspiración del silencio. Sin embargo, más de una vez vamos a tener que pasar inexorablemente por un proceso de duelo. Este libro del psicólogo Vicente Prieto, director de Clínica del Centro de Psicología Álava Reyes, te ayudará a llevarlo con la hondura y la serenidad que la situación requiere y así encauzar el impacto emocional. Y, por supuesto, te enseñará a seguir adelante tras la pérdida de esa persona con la que te unían intensos lazos afectivos. El duelo no es una enfermedad, sino una oportunidad para aceptar la pérdida y adaptarnos a vivir sin la persona fallecida.

Las historias que aparecen en Horizontes del cangrejo transcurren en Cuba y Europa y se atribuyen a Cornelius Monteagudo, un enigmático intelectual franco cubano de cuya existencia real se tienen pocas certezas. La aparición en La Habana de una copa robada en la tumba de Nerval en París, las confesiones de un Che Guevara refugiado en las montañas de Córcega y las pesquisas para encontrar un grabado iluminado de Cuba donde se profetiza la fecha de una cuarta nevada en esta isla del Caribe, son algunos de los relatos del libro. Con un perspicaz manejo del humor que interrumpe la aparente solemnidad de las intrigas, el autor expone su sugestiva visión de una escritura literaria basada en la recreación de situaciones absurdas y fantásticas a través de la coincidencia lúdica de variadas referencias culturales, tales como el imaginario medieval europeo o la popular lotería cubana conocida como la charada china. Caminos 3 offers students complete preparation for GCSE/Standard Grade through full coverage of all five Areas of Experience, Grades A -G.Mixed abilities are catered for in one carefully structured Student's Book by the use of symbols to indicate differentiated activities.Student motivation is encouraged through the use of material appropriate for the 14-16 year age group in both content and style.Full support for the teacher is provided through detailed notes, National Curriculum cross referencing, tapescripts and answers as well as general teaching advice.Student's Book and worksheet activities are supported by 7 cassettes of audio material.
