

Face2face Advanced

face2face is a six level general English course for adults and young adults. It goes from Starter level through to Advanced. The Student's Book provides approximately 80 hours of core teaching material, extendable to 120 hours using the photocopiable resources and extra ideas in the Teacher's Book. An interactive CD-ROM, packaged with the Student's Book, encourages learner autonomy with exercises in all language areas, video, games, customisable tests and a progress chart. Please note that the Class Audio is available separately. At Advanced level, 'Accurate Writing' sections help students overcome typical problems such as spelling and punctuation. 'Real World' lessons help learners become more natural communicators by teaching practical language as well as developing learners' reading, writing, listening and speaking skills.

Face2face is the flexible, easy-to-teach General English course that helps adults and young adults to speak and listen with confidence. face2face is informed by Cambridge English Corpus and its vocabulary syllabus has been mapped to the English Vocabulary Profile, meaning students learn the language they really need at each CEFR level. The course improves students' listening skills by drawing their attention to the elements of spoken English that are difficult to understand. The free DVD-ROM in the Student's Book includes consolidation activities and electronic portfolio for learners to track their progress with customisable tests and grammar and vocabulary reference sections.

An IELTS preparation course in two levels, Intermediate for students needing a band 5.0 - 6.0, Advanced for students aiming for Band 6.0 - 7.0.

This book merges theory and practical activities to show how research on speech acts can be implemented in EFL teaching.

This series is devoted to significant topics or themes that have wide application in mathematics or mathematical science and for which a detailed development of the abstract theory is less important than a thorough and concrete exploration of the implications and applications. Books in the Encyclopedia of Mathematics and Its Applications cover their subjects comprehensively. Less important results may be summarized as exercises at the ends of chapters. Each book contains an extensive bibliography. Thus the volumes are encyclopedic references or manageable guides to major subjects.

Based on the communicative approach, and drawing on the best of current thinking and practice, this major new course prepares students for real world communication. The presentation and practice of vocabulary and grammar are of equal importance and there is a strong focus on listening and speaking with an emphasis on 'real world' language for social situations. The listening and reading material provides fresh new angles on universal topics and students are given numerous opportunities to practise new language through a wide variety of communicative activities, many of which are personalised. face2face is also fully compatible with the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages and gives students regular opportunities to evaluate their progress. Each self-contained double-page lesson is easily teachable off the page with minimal preparation. The Teacher's Books contain optional photocopiable resources and tests, ensuring that the course can be tailored to the needs of different classes. Each level provides approximately 80 hours of core teaching material, which can be extended to 120 hours with the inclusion of the photocopiable resource material and extra ideas in the Teacher's Book. The Student's Books are packaged with a free CD-ROM/Audio CD that offers hundreds of extra practice activities, video sequences, recording capability, customisable texts and much more. The face2face Elementary Student's Book CD-ROM/Audio CD won the ESU President's Award 2005 for the best use of new technology in ELT. Based on the communicative approach, and drawing on the best of current thinking and practice, this major new course prepares students for real-world communication.
