Financial Reporting & Analysis (FR&A) by Revsine/Collins/Johnson/Mittelstaedt emphasizes both the process of financial reporting and the analysis of financial statements. This book employs a true "user" perspective by discussing the contracting and decision implications of accounting and this helps readers understand why accounting choices matter and to whom. Revsine, Collins, Johnson, and Mittelstaedt train their readers to be good financial detectives, able to read, use, and interpret the statements and-most importantly understand how and why managers can utilize the flexibility in GAAP to manipulate the numbers for their own purposes.

The Kieso, Weygandt, Warfield, Young, Wiecek: Intermediate Accounting text

has an outstanding reputation as “THE” text for the course and is viewed as a reliable resource by accounting students, faculty and professionals. After listening carefully to instructors and students alike, and after having built on what we have learned over eight successful editions and more than 25 years of being the market leader, we are confident that the Ninth Edition is the best one yet! The integration of the new International Accounting Standards and their comparison with the new Private Entity GAAP, enhances the main goal of the book “ to help students understand, prepare and use financial information by linking education with the ‘real-world‘ accounting environment”. Our industry-experienced and leading-edge author expertise in the field of IFRS, combined with an update of the text’s technical content ensures that accounting faculty and students can continue to rely on Kieso, especially during a time of change. Even though the rapidly changing landscape of Canadian and international accounting is a focus of the text, the authors continue their emphasis on helping students understand the core concepts that are at the heart of the accounting profession. The chapters are interesting, informative and pedagogically sound. Clear explanations of important issues, concepts, and business transactions are provided, followed by examples of how these are applied in practice. Interesting examples show how the resulting numbers are used, and how “real life”

Canadian companies actually account for and report their accounting transactions and results.

Financial Accounting: Information for Decisions, addresses the topics and issues typically covered in the financial accounting course, while at the same time motivating student interest in accounting through its extensive use of entrepreneurial examples, application of analysis skills, integration of online course management, and a highly engaging pedagogical design. This title thoroughly integrates ideas and practices followed by today's business entrepreneurs, speaking more directly to students and better preparing them to enter the work force.

Libby/Libby/Short wrote this text based on their belief that the subject of financial accounting is inherently interesting, but financial accounting textbooks are often not. They believe most financial accounting textbooks fail to demonstrate that accounting is an exciting field of study and one that is important to future careers in business. When writing this text, they considered career relevance as their guide when selecting material, and the need to engage the student as their guide to style, pedagogy, and design. Libby/Libby/Short is the only financial accounting text to successfully implement a real-world, single focus company approach in every chapter. Students and instructors have responded very favorably to the use of focus companies and the real-world financial statements. The companies chosen are engaging and the decision-making focus shows the relevance of financial accounting regardless of whether or not the student has chosen to major in accounting.

This text offers a structured approach to principles of auditing using International Standards on Auditing as its basis.
