

Fourth Dimension Yonggi Cho

Move from Unconscious Living to Wide-Awake Destiny! Have you taken a leap of faith in life, only to discover that you have crossed an invisible threshold that seems to have launched you into an unfamiliar place where nothing looks or works the way it used to? Do you feel stranded on strange seas without a map or a compass? Does it feel as if you are drifting through life without a rudder, or as if you are rowing hard but getting nowhere fast—hitting stronger, more contrary winds than you anticipated? Do you feel stuck between a former “somewhere” to which you cannot return and a new “somewhere” that you cannot seem to reach? Welcome to the “gap.” You are living in a messy but miraculous patch of real estate—albeit in the unstable element of the baptismal waters of life’s transitions—that lies between your current reality and the location of your desired destiny. Traversing this gap is a vital step in the journey of all human beings, regardless of their race, gender, or creed. The assumption that God is in control of absolutely everything in our life will be challenged as we enter the gap to find that this notion isn’t necessarily so. Rather, the choices we make determine the outcomes we receive. When you arrived on this planet, you weren’t handed a script to memorize and follow. You have had to walk by faith from the moment you learned to put one foot in front of the other. You were surely created with a grand design in mind, one that includes your capacity to invoke, evoke, and provoke personal destiny. Calling your destiny into being requires your intentional participation and cooperation. Through LifeQuest, seasoned people-helper, semiotician, professional certified coach, and master consultant Dr. Mark Chironna will guide you in charting a course for your life’s journey. He will help you to ask the right questions, encourage you to explore the mysterious gap between your current reality and your future destiny, and show you that change is not your enemy. Get started on your LifeQuest today!

Dr Masters here answers the arguments used by healers in support of their methods. He explains Bible teaching on what demons can and cannot do, and how James 5 should be implemented in churches today. He also proves that the conscious mind should always be switched on for spiritual activities. Included is a brilliant assessment of miraculous healing by a leading British medical professor. Jesus said, "Knock and the door will be opened to you." Discover the keys that open the door to the Fourth Dimension for every child of God who wants to know and experience God in all His fullness. This book unlocks the door and leads readers into the spiritual dimension, a wonderful place of love, peace, and joy, where they'll be inspired to fully live.

What drives you? Or what is the "motivation" or "purpose" of your life? Robert Oh has traveled to close to fifty countries in his lifetime and met hundreds of thousands of God-fearing and God-loving people who are still asking the fundamental question of life: "What does God want me to do with my life?" At the end of your life you don't want to catch yourself saying, "That was it?" You see, without God, your life will be only earthly, natural, and predictable; it won't be supernatural or godly. You reap what you sow. The Prayer Driven Life is an invitation to enter this incredible supernatural life--fashioned by God and through your own prayer. What does God want you to do with your life? Why don't you ask Him? Pray!

Discover a new world of answered prayer and how to live by faith.

Home cell groups are becoming a necessity in the believer's life, not only for the mega-churches but also for the small corner churches, as well. This book is a how-to resource that details everything you need to know in order to make home cell groups work in your church. The plans developed here are designed to bring intimate fellowship and involvement in the Christian's life, to effectively show Christians how to evangelize their neighborhood and community, and to share their spiritual gifts with one another. Home cell groups, therefore, give church members the opportunity to participate in the ministry of their church. Dr. Cho promises that, "By following the guidelines I have presented here, you can bring the miracles of home cell groups and church growth to your own congregation." So how does a church of more than 800,000 believers grow and work? Small groups, one household at a time. Cho is careful to share both his mistakes as well as his successes. One of the prime ingredients for a successful home group program is evangelism. He insists that the cell groups focus on the neighborhoods and communities to reach the lost. Leadership, training, discipline, recognition, focus, and personal involvement by the senior pastor are other critical elements. There is a careful balance which needs to be struck between control and freedom for each group to strengthen and grow. Great wisdom is shown in relying on the Holy Spirit to strike the right balance. As a senior partner in ministry, The Holy Spirit has grown the body of Christ in a miraculous way. Recorded in this book are lessons for us all, laymen and clergy, large church and small.

Cale Alexandros was five years old when the path of his life was irrevocably altered. As the scion of a wealthy and powerful family, he enjoyed a privileged existence—until his family's starship was attacked en route to Morningstar, the lone outpost of civilization on a savage planet known as Conrad's World. In an escape ship, Cale crash-landed in the wilds, and was picked from the wreckage by nomads. For years, Cale is forced to endure life as a slave, sold and shuffled from one group of brutish thugs to another—until a trader recognizes a glimmer of promise in Cale's eyes, and frees him. Cale travels far and wide, but he never forgets what happened long ago, in the desert wastes . . . when, in a strange, ancient temple, he found a book with pages made of a strange metal, and writings he could not identify. When he finally reaches Morningstar, he comes to realize that the book is a key to understanding a language never heard by mankind, an alien dialect. It also holds a secret that some people want to learn, a treasure that some want for themselves, and a revelation that some will do anything to control.

Asia Pacific Pentecostalism, edited by Denise A. Austin, Jacqueline Grey, and Paul W. Lewis, yields previously untold stories and interdisciplinary analysis of pioneer foundations, denominational growth, leadership training, contextualisation, and community development across East Asia, Southeast Asia, and Oceania.

Many of Dr. Cho's books talk about life in the fourth dimension -- a realm that is more real than the physical world in which we live. He points out that the world we know was fashioned in the invisible fourth dimensions -- the spiritual realm -- and the things we see are only temporary; whereas, spiritual things are eternal. In light of this, he wants each of us to gain entrance to the fourth dimension, the place where the God of might and miracles lives and moves.

A commemorative look at 50 years of Dr. Cho's ministry of hope, released in time for his retirement this summer. Over the years, as he struggled to bring hope to people and build his church, God taught Dr. Cho not to depend upon himself but totally upon the Holy Spirit. In this book Dr. Cho tells the stories of his temptations and doubts, failures and successes, and how the Holy Spirit was with him in every situation. The teaching in this book will inspire the reader to stand strong in the face of adversity, doubt, and fear. Followers worldwide will add this highly anticipated autobiography to their collection of Dr. Cho's coveted works.

What can we learn from the Scriptures about how to trust God no matter what, and believe in something that is not yet seen? As a young man with only weeks to live, Yonggi Cho was healed of terminal illness, saw the resurrected Jesus, and quickly began sharing God's hope with others. Those listeners became the world's largest church. In Faith, Pastor Cho and Dr. Wayne Goodall share how to Understand and grow in your faith. Walk with the Holy Spirit and produce the fruit of the Spirit. Overcome mistakes and continue to depend on Christ in times of discouragement. Believe for and trust God's supernatural power. Use every situation to accomplish tremendous things for God's kingdom. For our lives to work, we need faith—the kind of faith that gives birth to hope and chooses to believe in every circumstance. God will answer prayer, heal, and perform signs and wonders as we walk daily by faith. You can trust God as your source, security, and assurance.

A Bible study based upon Cho's 4th Dimensional teachings.

Presents a lesson that shows the power in possibilities.

We are submitting ourselves to the dealings of the Spirit day after day, week after week, month after month. We are subjecting ourselves as students in the spirit allowing Him to change us and bring us into the comprehension of Kingdom realities. Because a time will come when the dividends of this sacrifice will appear unto all and we want to position ourselves. We are not careful to admit that not everybody is opened to the things of the Spirit especially in this day and age where there are all kinds of Christian distractions. The church of Christ has become a place where ethics of religion are taken as usual. But the presence of Christ and His body ought to be a place of freshness where we can communicate to the world what the spirit of the Lord is doing at every given time. Read This Book and Be Blessed Revival comes from prayer. Today's church needs an outpouring of the Holy Spirit. Early church leaders like Luther, Wesley, Finney and Moody were filled and refilled with the Holy Spirit. Prayer like theirs was the powerful key to every revival throughout Christian history. Whether you're an ordained minister, a stay-at-home mom, or a new Christian, God can work through you. Join Yonggi Cho and Wayde Goodall in Prayer, the story of Pastor Cho's personal life and successful ministry. Readers will: understand the different types of prayer, value the importance of prayer, learn why, how, and when to pray, cultivate a lifestyle of prayer, and receive new revelations of how to listen to the Holy Spirit. Hear the secrets God desires to share with you and be immersed in His profound love.
