Transaction Accounting Frank Wood, Sheila I. Robinson, 1998 This book has been devised to enable students to attain knowledge and understanding in carrying out cash and credit transactions in accounting. It has been structured into a number of parts to enable students to undertake a particular topic to meet their specific needs. Whilst the book centres on the two main topics of Recording and Accounting for Cash and Credit Transactions, other topics, such as Introduction to double entry have been included, since competence is needed in the double entry system of book-keeping when undertaking accounting transactions. Each chapter in the book includes 'Student Activities' to enable students to assess their progress. Practice assessments have been devised to simulate the AAT Central Assessments and the ACCA Multi-choice assessments. These are designed for the student to gain a valuable indication as to their competence and readiness for undertaking either the AAT or ACCA assessments. Transaction Accounting for NVQ Level 2 is suitable for students studying the following courses: the Lead Body for Accounting NVQ Level 2, AAT Foundation NVQ Level 2, AAT Diploma in Accounting (for non-UK students), ACCA Accounting Technician Certificate and Edexcel Accounting at NVQ Level 2. It is also ideal for other accounting courses where a basic book-keeping knowledge and understanding is required.

Financial Accounting David Alexander, Christopher Nobes, 2013 Financial Accounting is the ideal introductory book to anyone with little prior knowledge or new to this subject area. Its clear writing style and unique international focus builds on the success of the previous editions. This fully updated text uses the International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) as its framework to explain key concepts and practices while linking them with contemporary and real world examples from Europe, US and beyond. 'A hugely enjoyable and informative book with an international focus' Eleimon Gonis, University of the West of England, Bristol 'This book will be welcomed by students and academics alike. The text is easy to read and well laid out, the case studies are very helpful, and it is supplemented by a good range of quality supporting material' Christopher Coles, Department of Accounting and Finance, University of Glasgow What's new! Updated to be fully compliant with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) New coverage on ethics and corporate social accounting, creative accounting and groups as reporting entities Expanded discussion of revenue recognition and Islamic accounting and finance Numerous examples taken from European Union (EU) and the wider European Economic Area (EEA), showing the rules and practices of particular European countries or companies New end-of-chapter practice questions with guided solutions The text is ideal for undergraduates and MBA students worldwide, taking a first course in financial accounting. Visit www.pearsoned.co.uk/alexander to find valuable online resources for both students and lecturers, including links to relevant websites, additional practice questions, an instructor's manual and full set of power point slides. David Alexander is Professor Emeritus of Accounting at the University of Birmingham Business School, England. Christopher Nobes is Professor of Accounting at Royal Holloway, University of London, England. He is also Professor at the University of Sydney, and Adjunct Professor at the Norwegian Business School. Frank Wood's Business Accounting Tommy Robinson, Frank Wood, 2000 This text has been developed to test students' knowledge of basic bookkeeping and accounting. It is specifically linked to the seventh edition of Business Accounting 1, but is general enough to be used alongside any text in basic accounting. Approximately 400 questions are provided with answers, explanations and workings at the back of the book.

Intermediate Accounting Kin Lo, George Fisher, 2016-01-01 Lo/Fisher is praised for its readability and conversational writing style that helps students better understand difficult concepts in Accounting. Lo/Fisher presents the how and why of reporting accounting information from within an easily-understood theoretical framework. Lo/Fisher has a clean layout that engages the reader with a clear writing style using plain English. This text is built on the current International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) and incorporates Accounting Standards for Private Enterprise (ASPE) where appropriate. Our philosophy is that when students understand the current standards, they will be able to analyze and interpret changes in the future.
