This Student Book has been developed specifically for the Edexcel GCSE (9-1) Design and Technology.

The ideal student companion to the Edexcel GCSE Music course from September 2016, containing detailed analyses of the set works and sections dedicated to preparing students for the exam and other assessments.

This workbook will help students gain the necessary skills and confidence to write a successful composition at GCSE. A series of forms, styles and genres are covered, including music for special occasions, verse and chorus, ternary form, theme and variations, minimalism, rondo, musique concrete, film and programme music. There are various exercises throughout, building in difficulty to help students gain the required level of knowledge to work towards their first composition. For downloadable resources and sample pages, please scroll to the bottom of this page. "Very useful for teachers who perhaps aren't so comfortable with teaching composition, and would appreciate a structured course to follow." Russ Millard Head of Academic Music, Charterhouse

The aim of this book is to provide an accessible text for students, covering each of the elements in the OCR GCSE (9-1) Computer Science specification J276. It will be invaluable both as a course text and in revision for students nearing the end of the course. It is divided into eight sections, each broken down into manageable chapters of roughly one lesson.

Sections 5 and 6 of the textbook cover algorithms and programming concepts with a theoretical approach to provide students with experience of writing, tracing and debugging pseudocode solutions without the aid of a computer. These sections would complement practical programming experience. Each of the eight sections cover one of the major topics in this course, and each subtopic contains sample examination questions from past papers, which can be set as homework.

This revision guide presents all of the key information that you will need to know for your written exam in a concise and friendly manner. It has been written by an experienced teacher and examiner in a clear and approachable style. It will help you achieve the best results possible.

Focuses on developing students' listening and appraising skills around the 12 set-pieces, and includes performance and composing tasks within four Areas of Study to ensure students develop the key musical skills assessed in the coursework element. Loosely based on the Odyssey, this landmark of modern literature follows ordinary Dubliners through an entire day in 1904. Captivating experimental techniques range from interior monologues to exuberant wordplay and earthy humor.

This book provides a complete two-year course of study for pupils taking Edexcel 9-1 GCSE Music. As a workbook, there is no need for additional textbooks, exercise books, files, or anthologies: performing, composing and appraising activities are all within these pages. Pupils are able to analyse all eight set works with the aid of structured listening exercises, and there are plenty of additional exercises for wider listening. Several complete scores are given for both set works and wider listening. There is a detailed step-by-step composing project for each area of study to guide pupils through the process of creating music in a methodical way. Performing opportunities are provided across a range of musical styles, using a variety of notation, from chord charts to full scores. The book also includes a full glossary, listening records for wider listening, performing and composing assessment forms, and blank manuscript paper.

Creative and Critical Projects in Classroom Music is both a celebration and extension of John Paynter and Peter Aston's groundbreaking work on creative classroom music, Sound and Silence, first published in 1970. Building on the central themes of the original work – the child as artist, the role of musical imagination and creativity, and the process of making music – the authors and contributors provide a contemporary response to the spirit and style of Sound and Silence. They offer reflections on the ideas and convictions underpinning Paynter and Aston's work in light of scholarship developed during the intervening years. This critical work is accompanied by 16 creative classroom projects designed and enacted by contemporary practitioners, raising questions about the nature and function of music in education and society. In summary, this book aims to: Celebrate seminal work on musical creativity in the classroom. Promote the integration of practical, critical and analytical writing and thinking around this key theme for music education. Contribute to initiating the next 50 years of thought in relation to music creativity in the classroom. Offering a unique combination of critical scholarship and practical application, and published on the occasion of the 50th anniversary of Sound and Silence, themes from Paynter and Aston's work are here given fresh context that aims to inspire a new generation of innovative classroom practice and to challenge current ways of thinking about the music classroom.

Exam board: AQA Level: GCSE Subject: History First teaching: September 2016
First exams: Summer 2018 Make AQA GCSE History more accessible, enjoyable and manageable. Based on his own experience of teaching the specification, renowned author Dale Banham knows how to cover the content with the right pace and depth, while also equipping students with the knowledge and 'complex thinking' skills required for exam success. Using the latest research on memory and visible learning, this textbook will help to raise attainment for students of all abilities.

- Engage students with accessible routes into challenging topics.
- The text is broken down into bullet points and boxes, while stories about interesting people start each chapter, providing a memorable 'hook' for revision.
- Encourage students to take responsibility for their learning.
- Tasks are structured around five 'steps to success', teaching students how to Research, Summarise, Connect, Apply and Review the content.
- Make learning stick.
- Techniques such as interleaving, retrieval practice, dual coding and spaced practice help students to remember everything and use their knowledge effectively in the exams.
- Build top-grade skills.
- Cover the content in one term.

A double-page spread for each lesson and a clear pathway through each unit focuses students on what they really need to know, leaving one final term for revision.

The five-term plan is provided FREE online at hoddereducation.co.uk/engaging, along with editable resources that support the tasks in the textbooks and guidance on using homework effectively.

This Anthology of 72 music examples, consisting of the Teacher's Manual, Pupil's Questions, Music book and two Music Cassettes, is intended to provide comprehensive resource materials for the listening component of the GCSE music syllabuses. The extracts have been selected especially to illustrate the periods, styles and rudiments of music encompassed within the syllabuses, and the four components of the publication produced to ensure maximum assistance to the teacher in the classroom.
