This DVD by Paul Hamilton provides tips and techniques for trouble-free operation of a Light-Sport Aircraft (LSA) with a ROTAX 912 engine and provides an introduction to important aspects of maintaining the 912 and 912S. Based on years of operational and maintenance experience, industry-recognized experts Phil Lockwood and Dean Vogel outline typical procedures every owner, operator and mechanic should know. Learn about vital engine fluids, selecting fuel and proper filters, coolant options, cold weather operations, as well as how and when to check and change the oil. Gain insight on cold weather operations and dual carburetor synchronization for avoiding engine clattering, prolonging engine life, and reducing maintenance costs. This new edition also addresses an oil pressure sensor update, best types of oil to use, frequency of oil changes, tips on finding updated Rotax information, automobile gas and avgas options, and extended TBO (time before overhaul) information. If you fly, operate, or work on a ROTAX 912 engine, this DVD is a must have to ensure proper maintenance and safe operation. Approximate running time 68 minutes, plus 28 minutes of extras.

This represents the first time that Pirandello's Baccarecce and the War has been translated into the English Language. Pirandello's historical novella, set in the months preceding Italy's entry into the First World War, is amongst much else a highly individual contribution to war literature and historical fiction. As he charts the crisis of those times as it affects the carefully constructed identity of his protagonist, he embarks on a radical questioning of nineteenth-century notions of order, method and discipline. Further, his dialogue with historical narrative leads him to explore and expose the fiction inherent in representing historical reality, and the fictions by which we all live.

Joel, aka 'The Rink' (because his bald patch is shiny enough to skate on), the unpopular owner of the only bar in town has been murdered. There are so many suspects, it's not so much a question of who did kill him as who didn't. There's Magalie, the temperamental teenager obsessed with Paris Hilton; her troublemaker boyfriend, Tani; Tani's mother, Madame Levi; her unemployed, daytime-TV addicted husband; Yeznig, their younger son, who has learning difficulties but perfect memory recall; and newcomers Ali and Nadia, the Muslim twins struggling to fit in. As the tension mounts and we're still none the wiser, the ending is as tragic as it is unexpected.

The So-called Nonsense Inscriptions on Ancient Greek Vases by Sara Chiarini is the first systematic study of the phenomenon of nonsense writing on Greek pottery of the late archaic and early classical age. This book is about the importance of water and how we use water.

The idea of the region has been a central concept in the understanding of the natural environment, of human society and culture, and of their interactions, from the ancient Greeks to the present. In this book Paul Claval provides a critical introduction to the ways in which the concept of the region has been, is, and could be used to make sense of spatial organization and areal variation in human activities. He examines both economic and policy issues, and relates these to culture, regional identity and ecology. The book is divided into three parts. Part I provides a concise account of regional studies from the ancient Greeks to the present. It then outlines the main current issues in regional geography. Part II describes the main perspectives on the division of space, the different kinds and typologies of regions, and contrasting modes of regional representation. Paul Claval also examines here how ecological, economic, social, cultural, and political phenomena can be understood through their areal variations. Part III looks at how states and non-state societies organize themselves regionally and of the evolution in contemporary dynamics of such modes of organization. The author shows how the perception, representation, imposition and claiming of regions changes from non-state societies, through traditional to industrial societies, and considers the merging of territorial borders of a globalized world economy. This is a complete and penetrating survey of the regional concept as a key to the geographical imagination. Written by France's most prominent geographer, it draws equally on Anglo-American intellectual traditions, and is illustrated by a wide range of examples drawn from all over the world.

This pictorial survey of Western architecture, covering ancient Egyptian times to the present, contains two thousand drawings of buildings, ground plans, and architectural details. The book includes maps, time-charts, and a very brief text.

“Emma Griffin gives a new and powerful voice to the men and women whose blood and sweat greased the wheels of the Industrial Revolution” (Tim Hitchcock, author of Down and Out in Eighteenth-Century London). This “provocative study” looks at hundreds of autobiographies penned between 1760 and 1900 to offer an intimate firsthand account of how the Industrial Revolution was experienced by the working class (The New Yorker). The era didn't just bring about misery and poverty. On the contrary, Emma Griffin shows how it raised incomes, improved literacy, and offered exciting opportunities for political action. For many, this was a period of new, and much valued, sexual and cultural freedom. This rich personal account focuses on the social impact of the Industrial Revolution, rather than its economic and political histories. In the tradition of bestselling books by Liza Picard, Judith Flanders, and Jerry White, Griffin gets under the skin of the period and creates a cast of colorful characters, including factory workers, miners, shoemakers, carpenters, servants, and farm laborers. “Through the ‘messy tales’ of more than 350 working-class lives, Emma Griffin arrives at an upbeat interpretation of the Industrial Revolution most of us would hardly recognize. It is quite enthralling.” —The Oldie magazine “A triumph, achieved in fewer than 250 gracefully written pages. They persuasively purvey Griffin’s historical conviction. She is intimate with her audience, wooing it and teasing it along the way.” —The Times Literary Supplement “An admirably intimate and expansive revisionist history.” —Publishers Weekly

Science -- and the technology derived from it -- is having a dramatic impact on the quality of our personal lives and the environment around us. Science will have an even greater impact on the lives of our students. The lives of scientifically literate students will be enriched by their understanding, appreciation, and enjoyment of the natural world. To prosper in the near future, all students must become scientifically literate and embrace the notion of life-long learning in science. Without scientific literacy, it will become impossible for students to make informed decisions about the interrelated educational, scientific, and social issues that will confront them in the future. Intended for science teachers, teacher educators, researchers, and administrators, this volume is concerned with the innovative research that is reforming how science is learned in schools. The chapters provide overviews of current research and illustrate how the findings of this research are being applied in schools. This research-based knowledge is essential for effective science instruction. The contributors are leading authorities in science education and their chapters draw clear connections among research, theory, and classroom practice. They provide excellent examples from science classes in which their research has reformed practice. This book will help educators develop the scientific literacy of students. It bridges the gap between cutting-edge research and classroom practice to provide educators with the knowledge they need to foster students' scientific literacy.

Unlike most books on TCP/IP which focus on network management and highly technical topics, this book shows users what they need to know to connect to and use networks, like Internet. Arick's step-by-step approach makes using TCP/IP easy for everyone. Each chapter describes how to use a different service.

A critical study of Karl Marx's landmark work, Das Kapital, details the author's two-decade struggle to complete his work and its seminal influence on philosophers, writers, revolutionaries, and others, as well as its impact on the course of twentieth-century history. Reprint.

Geographical Information Systems has moved from the domain of the computer specialist into the wider archaeological community, providing it with an exciting new research method. This clearly written but rigorous book provides a comprehensive guide to that use. Topics covered include: the theoretical context and the basics of GIS; data acquisition including database design; interpolation of elevation models; exploratory data analysis including spatial queries; statistical spatial analysis; map algebra; spatial operations including the calculation of slope and aspect, filtering and erosion modeling; methods for analysing regions; visibility analysis; network analysis including hydrological modeling; the production of high quality output for paper and electronic publication; and the use and production of metadata. Offering an extensive range of archaeological examples, it is an invaluable source of practical information for all archaeologists, whether engaged in cultural resource management or academic research. This is essential reading for both the novice and the advanced user.

Because of her sheltered village life, Antonietta convinces her new husband, Don Lucio, to allow her sister to move to the city with them where Don Lucio assumes the traditional Sicilian role of lord and master

"The New Wild: Vita nelle terre abbandonate," un libro-film in tre lingue - Nuovi e sorprendenti paesaggi emergono in tutta Europa mentre le popolazioni rurali invecchiano e scivolano a valle. Dove i terreni agricoli rimangono incolti si reinsedia una natura autodeterminata: crescono alberi dove un tempo c'erano campi, e i selvatici vagano liberi tra i ruderi. Distanti dall'attrazione dei nostri centri economici, le regioni marginalizzate stanno assistendo all'inizio di un crollo demografico e culturale. Interi stili di vita diventano storie, le storie diventano Storia e, a mano a mano che la città si espande, i ricordi cominciano a svanire. Qualcosa però cresce dalle spaccature della rovina, e tra le fessure di più grandi cambiamenti si incrociano storie minori: da un'abbandonata valle alpina un paese ci offre, nel suo precario tentativo di sopravvivere, una serie di riflessioni sul nostro mutevole rapporto con la campagna e con il mondo naturale tutto.

"Translation and Lexicography" includes a selection of papers presented at the 1987 European Lexicographers' Conference (EURALEX). The CEFR Companion volume broadens the scope of language education. It reflects academic and societal developments since the publication of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) and updates the 2001 version. It owes much to the contributions of members of the language teaching profession across Europe and beyond. This volume contains: ? an explanation of the key aspects of the CEFR for teaching and learning; ? a complete set of updated CEFR descriptors that replaces the 2001 set with: - modality-inclusive and gender-neutral descriptors; - added detail on listening and reading; - a new Pre-A1 level, plus enriched description at A1 and C levels; - a replacement scale for phonological competence; - new scales for mediation, online interaction and plurilingual/pluricultural competence; - new scales for sign language competence; ? a short report on the four-year development, validation and consultation processes. The CEFR Companion volume represents another step in a process of engagement with language education that has been pursued by the Council of Europe since 1971 and which seeks to: ? promote and support the learning and teaching of modern languages; ? enhance intercultural dialogue, and thus mutual understanding, social cohesion and democracy; ? protect linguistic and cultural diversity in Europe; and ? promote the right to quality education for all.

This collection of chapters written by some of the most important persuasion scholars of our time represents the scope, depth, and richness of the field of persuasion. With contributions from authors in a wide variety of disciplines, "Perspectives On Persuasion, Social Influence, and Compliance Gaining" provides students with a panoramic view of the field, broadening their perspective and understanding of the influence and impact of persuasion in our lives. Contributing authors include: Richard Petty, John Cacioppo, James Dillard, Daniel O'Keefe, Michael Cody, Robert Cialdini, Michael Burgoon, Linda Carli, David Buller, Judee Burgoon, and others. Features: Students gain insights directly from those who produced the theories and research, as these top-notch scholars reflect on the development of the theory or research, where it is going, and where it has been. The contributors come from multiple disciplines, including communication, psychology, and business, offering students multiple perspectives on the content. Introductions to each section provide students with the rationale for student, an appreciation of ethics, an orientation to each chapter, and an understanding of each chapter's contribution to the field. Early chapters on conceptualizations of persuasion, the history of the field, and theoretical developments give students the background necessary for understanding what persuasion is and how it functions. Chapters on both theories of persuasion and the practice of persuasion in multiple contexts help students see the connection between theory and practice. Concrete examples of theories and concepts bring the text to life and help students more easily understand the material. Chapter on deception enables students to see how one of the most recently researched areas fits into the field of persuasion. "

TEACHER'S KIT Il Teacher's KIT contiene il teacher's book con i lesson plan, e tutti i materiali in dotazione agli studenti: i tre lapbook, corredati del disfalibro con gli elementi da ritagliare ed eventualmente completare per costruirli, e il workbook operativo con i compiti da svolgere a casa. TEACHER'S BOOK Nel teacher's book sono forniti i lesson plan per ognuno dei tre macro-argomenti, sviluppati alla luce delle Indicazioni nazionali per il curricolo e dell'esigenza di poter affrontare i contenuti a spirale, con diversi livelli di approfondimento, e modularmente in base alle necessità. I lesson plan seguono sempre una struttura in tre fasi: ricognizione delle conoscenze e abilità pregresse, che ha la funzione di anticipare l'argomento; descrizione dell'attività didattica vera e propria, che dà ampio spazio alle esperienze quotidiane degli alunni e all'apprendimento laboratoriale e cooperativo; condivisione del lavoro in coppia e/o in gruppo. Il teacher's book contiene inoltre indicazioni rispetto agli obiettivi connessi alle «4 C» (Content, Communication, Cognition, Culture), infografiche per la costruzione dei lapbook e materiali per la valutazione e la verifica finali. WORKBOOK Il workbook è un quaderno operativo pensato per il consolidamento degli apprendimenti e lo studio individuale. Propone una serie di esercizi, che il docente assegnerà come compiti a casa, che riprendono contenuti e strutture linguistiche affrontati e utilizzati in classe. All'interno del workbook è presente anche un glossario illustrato con i vocaboli più significativi e ricorrenti nei tre percorsi didattici. LAPBOOK Un lapbook per ognuno dei tre macro-argomenti disciplinari affrontati nel corso dell'anno, da costruire progressivamente con i vari elementi forniti nel disfalibro. Oltre a organizzare in forma concreta i contenuti, il lapbook è uno strumento che permette di esercitarsi e di consolidare gli apprendimenti e di autovalutarsi. Risulta particolarmente motivante per i bambini, sia durante la sua costruzione, perché li rende protagonisti di un atto creativo, sia in seguito, perché dà loro la possibilità di studiare su un materiale che loro stessi hanno realizzato. Speciale scontistica per adozioni di classe.
