Features: Get to the heart. Bible study material for children often focuses only on the "whats" and "whens." It is good to learn facts about what the Bible tells us, but we think you can do more than memorize facts. It is our goal to get your mind accustomed to seeing the reasons why people do things and how God works. That is why you will find questions in this work-book that probe deeper than simple facts. We aim to help you focus on meaningful issues. In short, we want God's Word to speak to your heart and help you follow Jesus every day. Color-coded questions. Each daily lesson has several questions to be answered. You will notice that the days have specific colors. Use the Discovery Guide and your Bible to find the answers to the questions. Active hands, engaged minds. The daily lessons you will learn in this book are valuable and worth remembering. A great way to ensure that they are remembered is to give you something to do or create that relates to the truth you have learned. Days 2 and 5 in this workbook offer craft and activity ideas that are meant to keep the lesson in your memory for years to come. They are simple enough to be done with household supplies. In most cases, the activity for every workbook is the same. If you have brothers, sisters, or other students learning with you, you can all do the activities together! Ready for anything! Each Bible lesson is a building block. As one-by-one they are set in place, they provide an increasingly effective defense against the stealthy attacks of our enemy. As you work through the questions and activities in this workbook, you will find yourself prepared to joyfully follow the Lord and meet the challenges of life. This Student Workbook is part of the Illuminate Bible Series. Some scriptural truths seem simple on the surface, and yet the deeper you explore, the more spiritual riches are brought to light.

In Drawing Near, John Bevere invites readers to explore a life of intimacy with God. Emphasizing the need for obedience, he urges us to practice—just as we would practice anything we hope to improve—our communication with the Holy Spirit. Understanding that prayer is a dialogue, not a monologue, Bevere encourages us to listen at the Father's feet. Study questions in each chapter offer opportunity for reflection, and a "How to draw near to God" section offers practical steps toward developing true intimacy with Him. Nothing provides the true follower of Christ with more profound and enduring satisfaction than turning from the limitations of self and this world to the unfathomable fullness of the living God. Nothing so directly affects the study of Scripture as one's understanding of what lies behind the little word "God." Nothing calls for such an entire consecration of the mind, heart, and will of the student as the study of this eternal Being, who is the cause and reason for all things. Nothing holds more practical value for the Christian than the realities of God's perfection. For twelve weeks, Behold Your God: The Weight of Majesty guides the reader through passages that reveal God's perfections: His incomprehensibility, self-existence, independence, transcendence, immutability, infinity and eternity, omnipresence, omnipotence, omniscience, wisdom, sovereignty, righteousness, holiness, wrath, goodness, love, patience, and zeal. The aim of this study is to provide the student with a tool for vastly enlarging his or her understanding of God in a manner that enlightens the mind, captivates the heart, and re-directs the will. Behold Your God: The Weight of Majesty is designed for individual or group study. This workbook may be studied alone, but is intended for use with a companion set of thirteen DVDs which reinforce the lessons of each week. God truly is a "sea without a shore, a sun without a sphere." Each of us stands before the boundless immensity of God's majesty. He commands us to know Him. He has provided all that we need to know Him through the redemptive labors of His Son, the illuminating work of the Spirit, and the Bible. A.W. Tozer wrote only the truth when he stated that God "can show a new aspect of His glory to us each day for all the days of eternity, and we have but begun to explore the depths of riches of His infinite being."

A modern classic that has sold millions of copies worldwide, Experiencing God helps readers know and do God's will and is now revised and updated with seventy percent of its material newly written.

The identity of the person and work of Jesus of Nazareth is arguably the most critical subject in all Christian reflection and ministry. Indeed, it is impossible to minister in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ if that ministry is based upon false and ignoble views of whom he was (and is), what his life signified, and what we are to make of him today. Everything is at stake in our right conception of his life, death, resurrection, ascension, and return. This module highlights his majestic person and deeds, and mastering the biblical material on him is the task of all responsible discipleship and ministry. In this important course we first consider the significance of the Nicene Creed for Christological studies, especially how it frames Christ's work as two movements: his humiliation (i.e., his becoming human and dying on the cross for our sakes) and his exaltation (his resurrection, ascension, and the hope of his return in power). We explore the humanity of Christ and its dual focus: to reveal to us the Father's glory and redeem us from sin and Satan's power. We note key heresies calling into question his human nature, and explore the theological implications of Jesus' humiliation and death, and the various theories of atonement which have sought to explain the meaning of his death for humankind. Finally, we consider aspects of two events which mark the exaltation of Christ, i.e., his resurrection and his ascension to the Father. We close our study by looking at his coming in glory, his judgment of the nations, and his coming reign as King in the Kingdom of God. This is the Student Workbook for TUMI's Capstone Module 10 English course, God the Son, which is one of 16 modules in the Capstone Curriculum. This book is intended to be purchased by TUMI satellites, mentors, or site coordinators for use within a TUMI Satellite. The Urban Ministry Institute (TUMI) is a ministry of World Impact, Inc. TUMI Satellites are a part of the TUMI Network, where leaders are developed in the local church using TUMI's curriculum and training system.

We want the life-changing truth of the Bible to be your student's focus. For this reason, this work-book is designed for the teacher to work alongside students in 1st to 2nd grade after the daily Discovery Guide lesson. It can also be used as a stand-alone, simplified study if desired! Features: Weekly stories. The allure of a well-told story is strong for nearly anyone, but in a child's early years, stories have special appeal. That is why we draw their minds into spiritual things with a captivating Bible story and illustration for the first day of each week (although you may want to read it again throughout the week). Meaningful discussion. The best way to know how much a young student is learning is to ask meaningful questions and engage the child in conversation. Each day is accompanied by discussion questions you can use to gauge your child's comprehension and help him understand things that he finds difficult or confusing. Scripture memory. Each week features a new Bible memory verse. We provide tools and suggestions each day of the week to help the children remember the verse. Fun activities! Studies have shown that children remember more of what they learn when the learning involves more of their five senses. Each day, we offer some kind of activity to help stimulate students' minds and cement Bible truth in their memories. This Student Workbook is part of the Illuminate Bible Series. Some scriptural truths seem simple on the surface, and yet the deeper you explore, the more spiritual riches are brought to light. Illuminate Bible Series is intended to help children to think deeply about God and His Word. The number of Bible learning aids available for kids today is enormous. Yet, on average, children and teens today manifestly know less about the Bible than children and teens a generation ago. The best way to combat this uncomfortable reality is to draw kids into meaningful engagement with Scripture.

God Made Life Student Workbook Drawing Near A Life of Intimacy with God Thomas Nelson

Otto D. Batty received most of his education from parochial schools. His first nine years were at Bethlehem Christian School in Kennewick, Washington, graduated from Concordia College-High School in Portland, Oregon in 1956. He received his A.A. degree from Columbia Basin College in Pasco, Washington in 1969, and B.A. degree in Education from Pacific Lutheran University in Tacoma, Washington in 1976. Otto majored in Social Studies with a strong emphasis in History. In 1961 while in Wyoming, Otto developed a great love for the Scripture. Over the years, he read 23 different translations and paraphrases of the Bible. He even read the Bible backwards from Revelation to Genesis. When asked why, he simply replied, "Just for fun." However, he wouldn't do it again or recommend it, saying "It was chronologically distracting." Otto has taught many Sunday School classes to both teenagers and adults. This work emerged out of those life experiences. The more Otto read the scripture the more he became excited about what he "discovered." It was quite a surprise to him to learn so many believers had never read the whole Bible through once. Filled with a hunger to encourage others to read and find the "gems" he found in the Scripture, in 1985 he wrote and taught this Bible Study with a twist. The emphasis is on "discovering the gems," not theology or doctrine. It is fast paced, fun, and simple. Its primary purpose; to encourage believers to apply Romans 10:17, "faith comes by hearing and hearing by the Word of God."

Saints Among Us, a two-year curriculum, prepares second graders for First Reconciliation and third graders for Confirmation and First Communion. This curriculum supports the implementation of the restored order of the sacraments of initiation in the Archdiocese of Denver. This curriculum is designed not only to impart the necessary content of the faith to second and third graders, but also seeks to form their hearts as they prepare for the sacraments. It does so by drawing students to the divine Persons of the Holy Trinity, especially Jesus, the Son of God who became Incarnate to save us. The students meet Jesus in the curriculum by listening to the Word of God, learning to pray with the Bible, learning other forms of prayer, and by relating the content to their lives both in the classroom and with follow up at homes. The goal of this curriculum is to help students to encounter God more fully when they receive the sacraments. Book One places the students and the sacraments they will receive within the story of Salvation History. It includes figures such as Adam and Eve, Noah, Abraham, Moses, and David. It presents the life of Jesus as the fulfillment of these figures and shows how He founded the Church. It teaches students how Salvation History is their story too.

Those learning from the pages within will soon discover their fear replaced with strength, depression with joy, anxiety with faith, and rage with rest. Best yet, they will discover what it means to go in peace! The Go in Peace Biblical Discipleship Curriculum is easy to use. Then simply read the text out loud from the Leader's Manual as the one you are discipling follows along in the Student Workbook. Every place the Leader's Manual has a bold/underlined word, the Student Workbook has a blank space. The curriculum was written in this manner to keep the student's attention. By having to fill in the blank the student not only pays attention, but God can speak deeper to his or her heart as the blanks are filled in with thought provoking words. You can also order the book Go in Peace (ISBN: 978-0983167815) which is assigned throughout the curriculum as homework, however the homework is optional and is not necessary to complete the curriculum. But it does reinforces the Biblical concepts which are taught in the curriculum. Here are a few words that some have penned after going through the Go in Peace Biblical Discipleship Curriculum: "Amazing and life changing!" "Easy to understand and apply!" "Awesome resource!" "Great discipleship tool!" "Highly recommended!" "God blessed my life through it!" "Go in Peace will expose you to yourself!" "I will never be the same again-praises to the Lord!" Note from Cherie about the Go in Peace Leader's Manual Men's Edition: I must say that I was surprised to hear from so many men how this curriculum ministered to them. All I can say is: Praise the Lord! As the original flowery cover portrays I never intended to target men as my readers. But obviously God had greater plans! Since my original intent was never to write to men, the pages within this book remains the same as the original Go in Peace Leader's Manual, only the cover has been changed. As inspiration for the cover, the Lord kept bringing a sentence to mind that He had me write in the curriculum. "Why do we choose to stand in the prison cell when the door is wide open? Accept the gift . . . go in peace." To learn more visit Cherie's website at: www.cheriefresonke.com.
