

God Made Me

God created animals with everything they needed. To be content and succeed, He designed homes perfectly suited to each one. However, the animals were unhappy with the places that God had made for them and eventually gave into the insecurities and fears they all felt. Owl was frightened of the dark, Mountain Goat became faint-hearted as he looked down from the narrow mountain ledge. Duck panicked every time she neared the water. Camel detested the hot, dry wind and Penguin hated the icy cold. Through whimsical illustrations and creative prose, "God Gave Me Everything I Need To Be Me!" encourages self acceptance, individuality and appreciation as the animals finally realize God had given them exactly what each one required to make them complete.

It's no secret that children tend to have a special bond with their grandfathers. With humorous art and fun verses, this book celebrates that relationship and recognizes the many ways that grandfathers support, love, and empower their grandchildren. Go to bhkids.com to find this book's Parent Connection, an easy tool to help moms and dads (or anyone else who loves kids) discuss the book's message with their child. We're all about connecting parents and kids to each other and to God's Word.

God Made Me AND You Celebrating God's Design for Ethnic Diversity New Growth Press

Preschoolers will love the rhyming verse and bright colorful illustrations. This delightful little book presents children with the message that God created all of us - even them! The learning and fun continue with the book is read for a second time to the tune of Twinkle, Twinkle Little Star! Full color throughout.

A children's story book, about Sarah and why she's special.

Show your pre-schoolers that God made everything around them. These sturdy books start them early in their understanding and are so attractive that they always pick them up first.

"This simply-told story helps parents teach kids that God not only created their bodies, but he made them in his image"--

Amayah is a ten-year-old girl that has a port-wine stain birthmark. She puts on makeup everyday in fear that her classmates will bully her. One day, a new student with a unique birthmark of his own, enrolls in her class and teaches her the power of self-love and self-confidence.

A children's book to encourage little girls and teaches them to be confident in their identity in God. This book teaches them to love themselves just how God made them, wonderfully and fearfully made.

A combination of plush and board book will delight babies and encourage "book time." Baby will see himself in the mirror as Mom reads the words "God loves you" while sharing the story of creation. Full color.

It's never too early to start building an appreciation and understanding of our Creator, the Bible, and basic learning skills. Developed by a professional with 30 years' experience in early childhood education, this creation preschool curriculum is a wonderful opportunity to start building a solid faith foundation while children learn about the world around them with lessons children will enthusiastically enjoy. Thirteen comprehensive curriculum lessons combine science, art, physical activities, Bible memorization, and songs, as well as activity suggestions for younger and older students!

"Marty Machowski shares deep theological truths about heaven through a creative story"--

In My God Made Me Brittany tells a beautiful story. God gave her a head, eyes, mouth, nose, hands and feet. Every part of her body is used for doing great things! Brittany concludes that she is beautiful!

This beautifully illustrated children's book invites kids to explore God's design for ethnic diversity and challenges readers—both parents and children—to learn and live out counter-cultural, biblical views, fostering a lifelong celebration of diversity for the glory of God. Designed for four- to eleven-year-olds, God Made Me AND You by Shai Linne is the second book in the God Made Me series, starting with God Made All of Me by Justin and Lindsey Holcomb. Because Scripture teaches that ethnic diversity is not something that should be tolerated but rather enthusiastically embraced, Christian hip hop artist Shai Linne helps children, parents, and caregivers to celebrate this biblical truth through a lyrical, rhyming style and colorful illustrations. God Made Me AND You is an approachable guide for families to begin conversations about cultivating a God's perspective on ethnic diversity, confronting the sins of racism, bigotry, and ethnic pride. Because children learn from family members, media, or peers, parents and caretakers have a responsibility to teach their children what God has to say about the beauty of diversity in his image-bearers, with a particular focus on ethnic diversity. This colorful and compelling children's book serves as a resource and lifelong gift for children and parents, helping families understand diversity from a biblical perspective and with a clear picture of the beauty and glory of God.

Count along and you will see how wonderfully God made me! Freckles, fingers, toes, and nose—this delightful counting board book helps toddlers recognize parts of the wonderful bodies God gave us. Count from 1 to 10, and then start over again, thanking God along the way! In the Little Words Matter™ board books, it only takes a few words to tell a big story. Crafted especially for toddlers, these books make biblical truths easily understandable and enjoyable for little ones and their parents too!

A contributor to Guideposts annuals for ten years, Karen Valentin's narrative pieces about her journey to marriage and motherhood and then to single motherhood have resonated with readers. Here she collects the longer versions of her pieces and adds many new ones. Karen lived an adventurous single life but longed for a family of her own. After years of maintaining her vow of purity and waiting for a man who shared her Christian faith, she fell in love with her best friend and co-worker. They married. She bore two sons. They divorced. With humor, honesty and raw emotion, Valentin tells her story of wrestling between God's will and her own, with visions of happily ever after. In the midst of her weakness and grief, she experiences God's strength and restoration like never before. Through her family and friends, mission workers, the pastor of Graffiti Church, and her two beautiful boys, God turns her ashes to beauty and her sorrow into joy. Women who desire to be loved, who know the pain of rejection and who have found themselves in a dark place will be touched by her pain and encouraged by her victories. Whether you've been touched by separation, divorce or a broken home, or it's your friend, sister, mother or daughter who've gone through the experience, Karen's story will help you connect with your own emotions and give you tools to reach out to those in similar situations.

Where To Download God Made Me

God Made Me A Boy celebrates being born a boy. The following questions are answered in an easy to read format. Who is my creator? Why was I born? Who will I become?

Tells children they are important and that God loves them.

Does God, in His infinite wisdom, convince people to get rid of their car insurance? Does He encourage cannibalism? Does the God of more than six billion people actually have time to root for the Minnesota Vikings? According to some, yes. How do they know? God told them. Luckily, God also told Marc Hartzman to write this book, a collection of the most shocking, absurd, and hilarious things people have ever claimed God asked them to do, and to present them for your pure reading enjoyment. Including: The man that God told to perform surgery on himself God's generous offer to miraculously fill his believer's gas tank The fateful day God (assumedly feeling nostalgic for his teen years) asked a man to TP a police station The woman God instructed to direct traffic—topless And, sadly, many more

In rhyming text, animals describe the unique qualities they were given by God.

A Little Boy Speaks to God "God, I just figured it out, I figured out what You did. You made all kinds and colors of flowers and placed them in various locations for the people to love and admire, and you created different kinds of people and placed them in much the same way for you to enjoy and admire. When asked, who made you? They each said God made me, but, will they ever know the truth, God? Will they learn that You made them?" Then God answered, saying, "They'll know, son, they'll know. Eventually, when there is nothing left to fight for, they'll know" "God Made Me; Who Made You" was written for children of all ages, inspired by the author's desire to help them understand who God is in relation to who we are. It was also written with our future leaders in mind, to inspire them to execute their duties from that Christ center of love, compassion, and forgiveness.

It only takes a few little words to tell some big Bible stories! Noah and the ark, David and Goliath, the birth of Jesus—the Bible has some big stories for little ones to hear and learn. These 19 stories say it all in just a few words so that toddlers are sure to understand and to request their favorites again and again.

Most baby books begin when a baby is born, but this one begins when the world was born, running from creation to Mom and Dad to baby. With helpful charts and plenty of space for photos and cherished memories, the acid-free pages are safe and beautifully designed with full-color artwork throughout.

My journey from newlywed, to mother of two, to single mom - trying to heal - and become the mother God made me to be Karen lived an adventurous single life but longed for a family of her own. After years of maintaining her vow of purity and waiting for a man who shared her Christian faith, she fell in love with her best friend and co-worker. They married. She bore two sons. They divorced. With humor, honesty and raw emotion, Valentin tells her story of wrestling between God's will and her own, with visions of happily ever after. In the midst of her weakness and grief, she experiences God's strength and restoration like never before. Through her family and friends, mission workers, the pastor of Graffiti Church, and her two beautiful boys, God turns her ashes to beauty and her sorrow into joy. THE MOTHER GOD MADE ME TO BE contains a discussion guide for book clubs and church groups. karenvalentin.com

God Made Everything Preschool and Kindergarten Program The God Made Everything series is a comprehensive early childhood program designed to nurture and enrich the faith and spiritual lives of children ages three, four, and five. Each developmentally appropriate curriculum is carefully planned so that, at completion, the children are ready to continue their faith journey into first grade and beyond. The God Made Everything series has been found to be in conformity with the Catechism of the Catholic Church by the Ad Hoc Committee to Oversee the Use of the Catechism. About the God Made Everything Program God Made Everything is a complete early childhood program developed for God's youngest followers. Program features Scripture is integrated into faith content of each lesson Incorporates the spiral curriculum Parent and family resources connect family and faith Colorful art, engaging photos, and music capture young children's attention Variety of prayers invite personal and communal prayer Parish religious education and Catholic school needs are met using the same Student Book God Made Everything Program Components Each developmentally appropriate curriculum is carefully planned so that, at completion, the children are ready to continue their faith journey into first grade and beyond. God Loves Us Catechist's Manuals God Loves Us Student's Books God Made Everything Catechist's Manuals God Made Everything Children's Books God Loves Us Catechist's Manuals Features Faith Focus is introduced and systematically reinforced throughout each chapter Preparing the Faith Experience offers background resources and supports catechists' spirituality Special Seasons and Days section presents lessons on liturgical seasons and saints' feast days Comprehensive children's literature and music lists provide teachers with over 400 additional resource recommendations of age-appropriate resources School and Parish editions available In the first year of adoption, a FREE guide is included with every 25 children's books purchased. God Loves Us Student's Books Student Book Five-year-olds explore God's love as they are introduced to God's goodness shown through words, actions, feelings, people, places, and things. Learning, growing, sharing, and celebrating provide the foundation for each chapter. One special aspect of God's goodness is the focus of each chapter. Features Prayer is integrated throughout, using traditional and guided prayer. Appealing art and graphics capture young children's attention. Summary of the lesson involves parents in each chapter and offers ideas to reinforce learning at home. Family features at the end of each unit offer additional support for parents of young children. FREE with each Student Book A Child's Bible Punchouts in back of book for hands-on activities God Made Everything Catechist's Manuals

Understanding the different parts of a worship service can be confusing for any young child. One minute everyone is singing loudly, the next everyone is sitting and listening quietly. Sometimes the adults know something that should be said out loud, like, "Thanks be to God!" How did they know what to say? What is communion all about? And why does the pastor raise his hands and pray at the end of the service? Using the vision of Isaiah 6, God Made Me for Worship by Jared Kennedy focuses on teaching kids about the key liturgical movements in a worship gathering, including the call to worship, praise and adoration, confession, assurance and passing the peace, ministry of the Word and sacraments, and benediction and sending. This bright and colorful children's book illustrated by Trish Mahoney celebrates how God reveals himself to his people in the movements of worship. All the parts of worship tell the story of the gospel, and since Jesus is the object of our worship, his story of redemption gives shape to our worship. The author guides parents to help their kids understand why we're intentional about worship, encouraging them to engage—not just to manage behavior during a worship gathering, and invites children to respond to God along with the whole church body. God Made Me for Worship is part of the God Made Me series which equips parents to have important, impactful conversations with their children, helping them to grow in understanding of God, themselves, and others. Each book in the series contains a special section just for parents and caregivers that provides biblical guidance and offers additional information and resources for talking about the topic addressed in the story.

God Made Me Unique, a beautifully illustrated picture book, helps parents and caregivers teach children that God creates every person in the image of God and each individual has tremendous value, regardless of his or her appearance or abilities. The story is set in a Sunday school classroom where a new girl, Brie, is introduced by her mom. Brie's Sunday school teacher takes the time to welcome Brie and to explain to the other children why she is wearing headphones. Through getting to know Brie, the children are guided into a biblical understanding of the uniqueness of each of God's children. Along the way they learn to ask questions and gain an understanding about their new friend. Told in a charming rhyming style, this colorful, hardcover book will help eliminate fear and misconceptions about those who have special needs and emphasizes that every person deserves to be treated with kindness and respect. The back of the book contains a special section just for parents and caregivers that will guide them in

