"Inviting, accessible and personal. . . . A reminder of an overlooked truth: faith leads to joy." —James Martin, SJ, author of The Jesuit Guide to (Almost) Everything Fox News analyst Father Jonathan Morris challenges the wisdom espoused by New Age self-help experts with the time-tested counsel found in the Bible. Readers who may have sought solace in popular self-help books like Eckart Tolle's A New Earth, Rhonda Byrne's The Secret, or Deepak Chopra's The Seven Spiritual Laws of Success will be enthralled by Morris's moving argument about the enduring spiritual succor awaiting in Scripture. The question most people ask is "why doesn't everyone get healed?" and that's a good question. The question rests in God's sovereignty. God is in control and ultimately He knows what's best for us. While this is certainly true, there are several clear-cut reasons given in Scripture to further explain why God may not heal a person.

Set the Captive Free is meant to help those who want to have a better relationship with our Heavenly Father, through Christ Jesus, our Lord and Savior, through and with You, Holy Spirit. It is meant to help readers have successful lives in whatever God has called them into, whether it is business, the arts, elected office, education, etc. It is meant to help them discover and come into their fullness in the spiritual realm and into the fullness of their spiritual calling. This book is about health, healing, and wholeness with spiritual and practical steps. As in the Lord's Prayer, "on earth as it is in heaven." Miracles still happen; just believe.

These twelve Bible studies on Christian Character help you become the person God wants you to be. They are a contribution to LifeGuide, a popular line of Bible study guides which seeks to provide solid biblical content and raise thought-provoking issues. Trusting Jesus is hard. It requires following the unseen into an unknown, and believing Jesus's words over and against the threats we see or the fears we feel. Through the imaginative retelling of 35 Bible stories, Not by Sight gives us glimpses of what it means to walk by faith and counsel for how to trust God's promises more than our perceptions and to find rest in the faithfulness of God.

Growing up, all my friends would have described my family as a Christian family. I assumed all my friends were Christians as well. We all believed in God. We occasionally attended church. We were good people. Even though we believed in God, we didn't know his word, didn't understand the gospel, and didn't pursue his will. We believed in God, but we lived as if he didn't exist. After pastoring for eighteen years, I've noticed a large percentage of people in my church living similar lives. Some seem to be Christian in name only without a lot of visible spiritual fruit. Others boldly claim Christ is Lord while living lives diametrically opposed to the teachings in scripture. The more I looked, the more I found Christian Atheists everywhere. While it is often easy to spot the hypocrisy in others, it is generally more difficult to see in the mirror. One day in an honest moment, I painfully admitted that although I unquestionably believed in God, I was leading the church as if he didn't exist. I wrongly depended more on my own abilities than on his Spirit. Sadly, I dangerously cared more what people thought about me than what God thought about me. And although I preached about putting your whole faith in God, I still lived as if everything was up to me. The book Christian Atheism reflects my personal journey toward a more authentic God-honoring life. Every woman needs a little jump start in life. Donna Partow knows how to make it happen. Do you want to prosper? Do you want to enjoy financial prosperity? Do you know that God can make you rich? Do you want to know how? The journey into financial prosperity begins with the understanding that God wants you to prosper. The doubt many believers exhibit about the concept of prosperity can be traced to a lack of this foundational understanding. This is why many believers wallow in poverty with the assumption that it may be God's will for them. The focus of this book will therefore be to expose the origin and source of poverty, God's original mind about your prosperity and how God prospers a man. Also, the way God prospers a man is different from the way of the world, an understanding of how God prospers a man is thus necessary to walk in the God kind of prosperity. Therefore, dedicate quality time to read and meditate on this book because it contains all round truth about financial prosperity. Provides a curriculum to guide teens in growing spiritually and understand how to live life as God desires. Christians should be the happiest of all people! Randy Robison, writer and producer for Life Today television program, encourages readers to embrace everything God wants for them, including deep, overflowing gladness that does not depend on pleasant circumstances or emotional highs. Robison provides helpful answers to important questions like these: What is true happiness? How does it compare to blessing, joy, and our delight in the Lord? Is true happiness attainable in this life? Why does God want us to be happy? How does happiness relate to our relationship with God, our character, and our mission? What keeps us from being happy? What promotes happiness? How can we be happy even when we are broken, afraid, or navigating stressful situations? Full of biblical wisdom and insight, this engaging new look at happiness challenges readers' unexamined assumptions and opens new possibilities for them to rejoice in the Lord like never before.

Health is something everyone wants. Billions of dollars are spent each year trying to retain or restore health. It is a basic desire of all mankind. Anyone who likes sickness must be mentally sick! Yet, religion has told us that God is the one who wants us sick. It even tries to make us believe that sickness is a blessing. That's just not true. God wants you well.

Healing is in Christ's Atonement. Jesus died for our health just as much as He died for the forgiveness of our sins. This has to be the foundation of our faith for healing. Many Scriptures relate the healing of our bodies and the forgiveness of our sins in the same verse. Jesus went about healing all who were oppressed of the devil and told us to do the same. Jesus hasn't changed, it's the people who represent Him who have changed. What about Paul's thorn in the flesh? It is commonly believed that the apostle Paul had a sickness for which he besought the Lord for healing three times, and the Lord wouldn't heal him. From that assumption, people teach that God sometimes wants us sick. In this book, Andrew reveals what Paul's thorn in the flesh was, and it wasn't sickness. If it is God's will to heal everyone, then why isn't everyone healed? It's not because of God. And it's not just because we don't have enough faith. We do have the faith to be healed. Jesus said the problem is our unbelief - unbelief cancels out faith. Instead of trying to get more faith or bigger faith, we just need a pure faith that isn't negated by unbelief. There are laws that govern the spiritual world just as there are laws that govern the physical realm. Electricity has been around since the beginning of the world, but mankind didn't benefit from electricity until recently, not because it didn't work, but because of our ignorance of the laws of electricity. Likewise, God's healing is here and available. It's only our ignorance of the laws which control the flow of God's power that keeps us from benefiting from it.

Founder and Global Senior Pastor of Hillsong Church and author of LIVE LOVE LEAD shows how, with God's power, you can believe and achieve a life that exceeds every earthly expectation. When you surrender control and follow God's guidance, you become empowered and equipped to do the impossible, reach higher, and go further than you could have ever imagined--giving Him all the glory. By building our lives around godly principles, surrounding ourselves with wisdom, and living for a cause greater than ourselves, we can effectively live out God's purposes and have an enduring impact. As Brian Houston has personally discovered, when we depend on Jesus as the source for our identity, our lives can be a lasting legacy that maximize the gifts He has given each of us as unique individuals. There is More is for anyone who wants to be challenged to live with expectancy. Ephesians 3 is a call to release the immeasurable potential within you and the exceeding, abundant, and above plans and purposes of a Holy God that are beyond your greatest imagination. "Now to Him who is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that works in us, to Him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus to all generations, forever and ever. Amen" (Ephesians

What if we were wired for happiness? If you were to ask a room full of people about how God wants us to live, you'd likely get a wide range of answers. Some people would say he wants us to be holy. Others might claim he wants us to love people and stand up for peace and justice. But chances are, you wouldn't hear anyone say, "God wants us to be happy." We all want to be happy, but we may feel guilty for this longing. Isn't it selfish to pursue happiness? Isn't it more spiritual to frown than to smile? In a world full of brokenness, is happiness a worthy pursuit? For those seeking to follow Jesus, should this quest be written off as superficial and unspiritual? In Does God Want Us to Be Happy?, New York Times bestselling author Randy Alcorn offers a collection of short, easy readings on one of life's biggest questions. As he explores what happiness is and how we attain it, Alcorn provides wisdom, insight, and scriptural proof that God not only wants us to be happy--he commands it! (Adapted from the trade book Happiness.)

A re-release of a best-selling work argues that today's economy is firmly rooted in the nation's Judeo-Christian heritage, explaining the author's belief that financial prosperity is compatible with spiritual wealth if it promotes the well-being of society overall. Reprint. 25,000 first printing.

Your subconscious makes 95% of your decisions. If you deep down believe the LIE that it is spiritual to be poor, then your subconscious will sabotage your life and your finances to keep you spiritual (poor according to your belief system).

There is only one thing that can free you from the bondage of a lie, THE TRUTH SHALL SET YOU FREE!!! The truth will set free this generation. This will be the generation of Christians who get the wealth that was laid up for them. God will take pleasure in the prosperity of his children (psalms 35). God wants you to have an abundance that you can give out off for every good work (II Corinthians 9). God wants you blessed so you can be a blessing.

God is doing far more than we can see in our pain. We plead for God's deliverance from our pain and wonder why he keeps letting it go on. We are not alone. A cloud of witnesses surrounds us and they help us understand. In these 35 creative retellings of Bible stories, Jon Bloom explores the hope and joy that Abraham, Moses, Naomi, John the Baptist, and others experienced in the painful process of discovering that God's promises really are more trustworthy than our perceptions.

Where does sickness come from? Many people think that bad things and catastrophes such as hurricanes, floods, tornadoes, storms, sickness and disease come from God. They believe that God has a purpose in these things to make us better Christians. They think that God place sickness and disease on us to teach us something. We need to know today that it is God's will for His people to be well. Healing did not go out with the last apostle; healing goes out when people stop believing for it. Jehovah Rapha is one of God's redemptive names, which means, 'For I am the LORD who heals you'. Jesus spent more time in His ministry healing than He did doing any other thing. You are NOT who you think you are. In fact, according to bestselling author Craig Groeschel in Altar Ego, you need to take your idea of your own identity, lay it down on the altar, and sacrifice it. Give it to God. Offer it up. Why? Because you are who GOD says you are. And until you've sacrificed your broken concept of your identity, you won't become who you are meant to be. When we place our false labels and self-deception on the altar of God's truth, we discover who we really are as his sons and daughters. Instead of an outward-driven, approval-based ego, we learn to live with an "altar" ego, God's vision of who we are becoming. Discover how to trade in your broken ego and unleash your altar ego to become a living sacrifice. Once we know our true identity and are growing in our Christ-like character, then we can behave accordingly, with bold behavior, bold prayers, bold words, and bold obedience. Altar Ego reveals who God says you are, and then calls you to live up to it.

This book isn't for Bible scholars. It's a weekly devotional for regular guys who want to become better men, fathers, and husbands. It was written by a man for men and actually started out as a list of simple life lessons scribbled on a little notepad that I wanted to share with my four boys. After looking over the list, it dawned on me that, "You know what? This looks like pretty good advice for men in general." In the book, you'll find 52 weekly devotions. Each devotion features a simple take-home point, some relevant Scripture, a thought to mull over, and a brief suggested prayer. There's nothing fancy about this devotional. The language is plain and simple, and Scripture verses have been taken from modern translations of the Bible that are easy to understand. Everything has been written in a clear, straightforward manner that doesn't require you to dedicate a lot of effort into trying to figure out what in the heck you just read.
