In this compelling and informative new book, trusted author and pastor Rev. Darrell W. Johnson explores how the New Testament answers life's most important question: Who is Jesus? Drawing on years of teaching and preaching experience and weaving insightful stories from his own ministry, Johnson guides readers through selected passages of Scripture in order to paint a portrait of Jesus that is both contemporary and timeless. Darrell W. Johnson is senior minister of First Baptist Church in Vancouver. Before joining First Baptist in 2009, he was associate professor of pastoral theology at Regent College in Vancouver. He served as an adjunct professor of preaching for Fuller Theological Seminary and is the author of several books, including Discipleship on the Edge and Fifty-Seven Words That Change the World.

Word. When we get in the Faith Zone, He brings us to another level and reveals so many amazing wonders to us. My prayer is that we as women and women of God know without a shadow of doubt that we are God's priceless, royal daughters and He wants so much to be good to us.-Rosemary J. Turner

How did an ex-hippie chick Viet Nam War protester become a fierce soldier supporter, living in a combat zone in an increasingly unpopular war? From 2004 to 2007, Ali Elizabeth Turner had the chance of a lifetime to learn firsthand that freedom isn't free and to say a much belated "thank you" for her freedom by working in Morale, Welfare, and Recreation centers in Baghdad. She heard the stories of hundreds of Iraqis, Coalition soldiers, interpreters, Navy SEALs, Army Rangers, and contractors from around the world. She was in Baghdad for the return of Iraq to the Iraqis, Saddam's ongoing antics in court, all three Iraqi elections, and Saddam's trial and execution. No matter what you think of Operation Iraqi Freedom, you deserve to hear the stories that go beyond the politics--stories of courage, compassion, miracles, and humor. Read and see if you don't end up "singing the Ballad"!

I was no longer controlled by the emptiness, anger, drugs, alcohol, pill abuse, and all my old worthless ways. The first year after I decided to become a Christian was difficult, confusing, and lonely. I steered away from my fake friends, went to church alone, and started my search for the truth by studying all religions. Empty... empty was a regular feeling I had felt haunted by since I was a young child feeling like I had no purpose in life. My journey began figuring out what religion is right and what exactly is in the Bible? Who is God? What is he all about? What am I going to have to do in order to go to Heaven and please God? The experience began as I discovered what the Bible said and what people who claimed to be Christians said were usually two different things. "You are just going to have to do something, Matt. You're not going to get a good job and you just need to take something for even minimum wage to have something." They also said statements of defeat where I wondered if I had the same Bible they read at all. I didn't believe the contradictions. I found ministries that took the Bible for what it said as they believed for better, lived better, and they talked with confidence. They took seriously the task of gaining wisdom to eat right, talk right, study, and to expect the promises of God to his followers. Released is for the unbelieving and those experiencing Christian confusion. Take my experiences and the setbacks I had to overcome to motivate your own life. God can forgive anything, and he is the only thing in this world that will never let you down, because they will. The acceptance of Jesus is the best decision we can ever make. I am living proof . . .

Worship is always a choice. During peaceful and pain - free times, the choice to respond to God in thanksgiving and praise may be relatively easy. But at other painful or confusing times in our lives, the choice to worship is a costly act of devotion. In the life of every worshiper there will come times when worship meets with suffering. In Blessed Be Your Name, Matt and Beth Redman use the words of their inspiring song to explore how to stand in the place of praise even in the face of hardship and pain. Focusing on the Psalms, many of which were written out of struggle, the Redmans share from their own experience and show how painful circumstances and our choices can either propel us toward God or away from Him, build up our faith or break it. Learn how to ride out the storms of life saying "Blessed be Your name, Lord" and mean it.
