"What are you, some kinda PSYCHO?" How many times have you said this to someone? Probably a lot. How often has someone said this to you? Hopefully, not so much! Truth is, we've all dated or been involved with someone who drove us nuts or, if we haven't, chances are that we were the ones who got on the other person's nerves. Now, the question is: who is the Psycho; you or the other person? Don't Date a Psycho: Don't Be One, Don't Date One looks at why we behave in the ways that we do in relationships, what makes us stay with the person we're with and what makes us leave them, and how to tell who is safe to be in a relationship with and who is unsafe. Done with humor and written from more than two decades of clinical experience as a psychologist, Dr. Keiron Brown helps us to gain a clearer understanding of who we are as individuals, who we are as partners in relationships and what makes each and every one of us prone to acting a little nuts sometimes when our hearts are at stake.

Become an Unstoppable Force with E-mail If you have a business or brand that you want to bring to the light, then this is the book for you. In "Hack E-mail," I share my best strategies for turning e-mail into a marketing weapon. From e-mail outreach campaigns I've been able to: 1) Book between 40-50 podcast and radio interviews across the world, promoting my first book ("Buy Your Own Island") to a best-seller 2) Build an extensive network of mentors and affiliate partners 3) Increase my blog traffic by 400% in a one month period (from 4,262 to 16,688) 4) Connect with influential people 5) Pick up new coaching and freelance clients Before I began to use these techniques for my own brand, I honed them in campaigns for clients.
