NATIONAL BOOK AWARD FINALIST • NATIONAL BESTSELLER • A twisting, haunting true-life murder mystery about one of the most monstrous crimes in American history, from the author of The Lost City of Z. In the 1920s, the richest people per capita in the world were members of the Osage Nation in Oklahoma. After oil was discovered beneath their land, the Osage rode in chauffeured automobiles, built mansions, and sent their children to study in Europe. Then, one by one, the Osage began to be killed off. The family of an Osage woman, Mollie Burkhart, became a prime target. One of her relatives was shot. Another was poisoned. And it was just the beginning, as more and more Osage were dying under mysterious circumstances, and many of those who dared to investigate the killings were themselves murdered. As the death toll rose, the newly created FBI took up the case, and the young director, J. Edgar Hoover, turned to a former Texas Ranger named Tom White to try to unravel the mystery. White put together an undercover team, including a Native American agent who infiltrated the region, and together with the Osage began to expose one of the most chilling conspiracies in American history.

There is more to selling insurance than writing policies. When done right, you can build a successful business that affords you a lifestyle most people only dream about. This book presents a complete discussion of life insurance distribution. It begins by putting life insurance distribution within the broader context of distribution and marketing in general, thus demonstrating why life insurance distribution is different. It then goes on to discuss the history of how distribution, as we know it today, developed, and the ten primary distribution channels that exist in the business. With all of this as background, the book continues with more detail and discusses the various functions performed by distribution, and how distribution systems are managed today. It also goes into more specifics regarding the compensation and the economics of distribution. The text concludes with a discussion of managing distribution channel conflict, and how distribution of life insurance is expected to evolve in the near future. Spreadsheet models are available on the ACTEX website to assist readers in understanding the economics of distribution.

a reality! This book gets straight to the point on what you can do right now to start the transition into operating your business remotely. Read the book and connected to the network of experienced individuals already running successful insurance businesses from their phones and computers!

Do you hate shopping for insurance? Try selling it! Although insurance companies have some of the most entertaining commercials on television, most people still dread shopping for insurance more than just about any other product or service. The experience people have often leaves them confused as to what they are really paying for. As an insurance agency owner since 2001, I have learned it doesn't have to be that way. This book will explain how people can have a better experience when buying insurance if:

- * They feel that their needs are the focus of the agent.
- * They feel confident the insurance coverage will help them when it's needed.
- * The customer relationship is maintained by the agent through effective communication.

This book will also explain how insurance agents can:

- * Create a learning environment when meeting with a client.
- * Foster the perception of an insurance expert.
- * Build an agency team of teachers.
- * Continue to educate and coach clients beyond the initial purchase.

The best salespeople are good teachers. Buying insurance requires trust that the policy you buy is what you need. An insurance agent that can educate someone on their needs as well as their policy coverages will earn that trust. Maintaining that trust as life and needs change will allow for a long term client/ advisor relationship which is the ultimate goal.

Control Your Cash Making Money Make Sense Greg McFarlane Betty Kincaid

This book will enable Life Insurance Agents to develop their skills on selling Life Insurance Policies within 45 minutes. This is a step by step approach on EMERALD Sales Process - a unique way to persuade and convince customers about their Life Insurance needs and how to buy them to secure their LIFE - because there is an "IF" in between "LIFE"

"A 14% credit card rate! What a deal!" "Where it says 'adjustable' here on my mortgage - that means 'fixed', right?" "Work until I retire, then collect Social Security. That's my wealth plan." If you've ever wondered how your money works, where it goes or how it grows, stop wondering. "Control Your Cash: Making Money Make Sense" deconstructs personal finance so that everyone but the hopelessly inept can understand it. Inside the book, you'll learn: [how to get your bank accounts, credit cards and other financial instruments to work for you, and not the other way around [the right way to buy a car (i.e. with the salesman cursing your name as you drive away) [where and how to invest, and what all those symbols, charts and graphs mean [how to turn expenses into income, and stop living paycheck-to-paycheck [whom the tax system is stacked against (hint: it's most of us) and how to use that to your advantage [the very key to wealth itself. In fact, the authors thought it was so important they put it on the cover so you can read it even if you're too cheap to buy the book: Buy assets, sell liabilities. Finally, a book that explains personal finance not only in layman's terms, but in detail. If you can read, and have any capacity for self-discipline, invest a few bucks in "Control Your Cash" now and reap big financial rewards for the rest of your life.
