Getting Ready to Learn describes how educational media have and are continuing to play a role in meeting the learning needs of children, parents, and teachers. Based on years of meaningful data from the CPB-PBS Ready To Learn Initiative, chapters explore how to develop engaging, playful, and developmentally appropriate content. From Emmy-Award-winning series to randomized controlled trials, this book covers the media production, scholarly research and technological advances surrounding some of the country's most beloved programming.

For 10 years, kids have had fun learning about Scripture with The One Year Devotions for Kids series. Now The One Year Devotions for Kids, Volume 1 is available with a great look for a new generation of readers. Each day's lesson focuses on a key theme from a Bible story. A contemporary story, application questions, a memory verse, and an action phrase combine to reinforce the theme for each day. A great way to help kids connect with God!

There are those who've prepared, and those who wish they had. Let Ready for Anything be your go-to guide for facing any unexpected crisis with confidence. Bad stuff happens all the time--big stuff like hurricanes and wildfires, and smaller-scale yet no less devastating disasters like a sudden injury, job loss, or a computer crash. But this doesn't mean we have to live in constant fear. For anyone who falls somewhere between "I'll just trust God" and stocking a ten-year supply of canned pinto beans in the pantry, Ready for Anything gives finite simple steps for being proactive rather than reactive--preparing your mind, your heart, and your home for any unfortunate circumstance. Full of stories and humor along with facts, tips, and lists, Kathi offers a down-to-earth guide that will show you how to face the unexpected with confidence, relying on God's strength and plan rather than giving in to our fear and anxiety. Her step-by-step plan is easy to implement and will help any Christian become a better steward of their resources as well as be the neighbor who can help in a crisis rather than needing help themselves. Ready for Anything will show you: Practical strategies for building an emergency fund Indispensable tips for safeguarding your physical and digital valuables How to mentally, emotionally, and spiritually prepare your kids The power of pre-deciding your actions in response to an unexpected event How to create a five-minute plan and why you need it And so much more!

A practical and comprehensive guide to surviving the greatest disaster of our time, from New York Times bestselling self-help author and beloved CBS Sunday Morning science and technology correspondent David Pogue. You might not realize it, but we're already living through the beginnings of climate chaos. In Arizona, laborers now start their day at 3 a.m. because it's too hot to work past noon. Chinese investors are snapping up real estate in Canada. Millennials have evacuation plans. Moguls are building bunkers. Retirees in Miami are moving inland. In How to Prepare for Climate Change, bestselling self-help author David Pogue offers sensible, deeply researched advice for how the rest of us should start to ready ourselves for the years ahead. Pogue walks readers through what to grow, what to eat, how to build, how to insure, where to invest, how to prepare your children and pets, and even where to consider relocating when the time comes. (Two areas of the country, in particular, have the requisite cool temperatures, good hospitals, reliable access to water, and resilient infrastructure to serve as climate havens in the years ahead.) He also provides wise tips for managing your anxiety, as well as action plans for riding out every climate catastrophe, from superstorms and wildfires to ticks and epidemics. Timely and enlightening, How to Prepare for Climate Change is an indispensable guide for anyone who read The Uninhabitable Earth or The Sixth Extinction and wants to know how to make smart choices for the upheaval ahead.

When we are faced with the unknown, we turn to others for help. Then we find ourselves on a journey of hard times. When we face those times with the right one, it gets easier. I faced that time, and learned what I needed to do. Ask and it will be given to you, seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you.

Jeremy Corbyn's Labour stands on the brink of power, promising a fundamental re-ordering of British politics. But what, in practice, will this entail? How can a radical government stand up to an establishment that is hostile to any significant redistribution of wealth and power? People Get Ready! dives into the nitty gritty of what's needed to bring about transformative change. Unlike a decade ago, the left's problem is no longer a shortage of big ideas. Inside and outside the Labour Party, an agenda for new forms of public and community ownership is taking shape. Today the biggest danger facing the left is lack of preparedness—the absence of strategies that can make these ideas a reality. People Get Ready! draws on previous attempts at radical change, from the election of Labour at the end of the Second World War and the progressive early days of Mitterrand's presidency in France, to Tony Benn's battles with Harold Wilson and Margaret Thatcher's icy insistence that there was no alternative to free markets. These stories highlight the importance of knowing your allies and, even more, your enemies, of being ready to deal with sabotage and resistance from the highest levels, of being bold enough to transform the structures of government, and of having a mass movement that can both support the leadership and hold it to its radical programme when the going gets tough. Remarkably, democratic socialism in Britain is closer to government than in any other European country. The responsibilities this brings for those supporting the Corbyn project are as great as the opportunities it presents. But there isn't much time to get ready ...

Help your child prepare for the first day of preschool! Friendly critter pals add to the excitement. This Little Get Ready Book! helps preschoolers focus their attention and develop essential early learning skills. With 48 pages of engaging activities, your child will "help" adorable animals navigate mazes, find or draw specific objects on a page, or work with rhymes, opposites and pairs. Activities range from completing picture patterns and understanding letter sounds to basic counting and more. It's a perfect size for small children but packed with big content. The tablet-style book fits in any bag, perfect for keeping your little one occupied anytime, anywhere.

His world shattered when she left. She's determined to pick up the pieces. Mia Emerson is the queen of bad decisions. Walking away from the only boy she ever loved eight years ago was the worst of all. When a chance encounter forces these two former lovers to reunite, passion reignites in a way neither anticipated. But Garrett Finnegan refuses to forgive and forget the pain Mia caused when she vanished from his life—without word or warning. Prepared to protect his heart, Garrett won't let down his guard. It's up to Mia to find the strength to face her deepest fears and admit the secrets she's been hiding all along. Together, they'll discover that if they face the past, they just might be ready for the future. When a chance encounter forces these two former lovers to reunite, passion reignites in a way neither anticipated.

Getting Ready for College is the ultimate easy-to-use guide to success for college-bound seniors, first-years, and their parents. Polly Berent answers the questions you didn't know you would need to ask: • What's the deal on financial aid and cash management? • Should I bring a flashlight to school? Do I really need a microwave and a vacuum cleaner? • Should I call Mom every time I'm homesick? Will my boyfriend/girlfriend wait for me? • Will having a credit card help me? Do I need quarters for the laundry? • When should I lock my room? Where can I fill my prescriptions in my new town? • Should I take intro classes or harder classes? Should I join a frat/sorority? • How could I possibly have time to figure all this out and keep in touch with my old friends? This essential manual includes day planners, notes on how to take notes, tips on how to make a "real life" file, and advice from scores of college students in the trenches as well as campus health-care professionals, college counselors, administrators, and financial-aid advisers. This is everything you need to know about getting ready for college, from students and parents just like you.

A unique collaboration between Sara Noel and Natasha Holland, 'Get Ready to Rise' is the latest resource created underneath a CIC of the same name; a raging beacon of inspiration and hope for women around the world. Within the volume, seventeen stories ignite of women overcoming the fiercest adversity, while fast-action resources equip readers with everything they need to finally start charting the life story of their dreams. One critic wrote, "Poignant, inspirational, empowering, heartening collection of women's stories from around the world." Since founding her CIC in 2020 to help women around the world champion over adversity and excel in all areas of life, Sara has committed every ounce of her passion to help others write the life story they crave. The duo joined forces with Nikki Hall who is the Creative Writing Editor of their latest book to form a powerful and bold blueprint for women who feel lost, stuck or caught in cycles of adversity. Sharing the name of their organization, 'Get Ready to Rise' unravels stories, resources and serves as a powerful fundraising tool for Plan International. SYNOPSIS: It is a poignant, inspirational, and empowering collection of women's stories. Binding together different journeys from around the globe, with one universal language, women speaking their truth. It was born directly from our online community of the same name. A community founded by a woman with a dream. A dream to provide a safe space for women to take the first step on their healing journey. This book is a must-read for all, but especially for that woman out there who feels stuck, lost. This book is the confidence you need to say, "I am ready." This book is the clarity on where you are going. This book is the courage to take that first step. This book is the connection with the single most important thing. You! The definitive guide to getting ready for and staying safe after a major earthquake in the Pacific Northwest. FEMA recommends being prepared for two weeks of self-sufficiency after it occurs, and this handbook will show you how with clear, informative, and easy-to-implement steps. Recent seismic activity has made national headlines and underscored the fact that the Cascadia fault line off the coast of British Columbia, Washington, Oregon, and Northern California is overdue for a major earthquake. And when it happens, living conditions could be akin to those in the mid-nineteenth century. This handbook covers the supplies you need to stay safely in place, including water, food (and food prep), first aid, sanitation, health and hygiene needs, shelter and bedding, and light/fire. It also includes lists of what to purchase and how to store it, as well as simple exercises to gain confidence in performing necessary tasks. Learn what to do during and immediately after an earthquake, how to develop a reunification plan, and how to communicate when basic infrastructure is down. It also addresses the particular concerns of those living in coastal areas (the tsunami zone) as well as those outside of the severe impact zone. It covers long-term ways to stay safe without modern conveniences and a crash course in survival techniques should the quake happen before all preparations are complete. Get Ready! presents information in clear, practical, and manageable steps, equipping the reader with the skills to care for themselves and their loved ones should a major earthquake hit. And when it does, the internet will not be an option, making this reference handbook invaluable. If you live in the Pacific Northwest, you need Get Ready!

"And behold I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last." Revelation 22:12-13 (KJV) In "I'M COMING...GET READY!" You will read the Word of the Lord to the church. God is speaking to His people all of the time. However, for one reason or another, God's people do not hear Him much of the time. Martha Weiser began to hear God speaking in 2010 while a student at Oral Roberts University. As she journaled what God spoke she realized that there were many, many words of encouragement for God's people. In order to share God's Words with His people, she has compiled them into this book. "And now, O Lord God, the word that Thou hast spoken concerning thy servant, and concerning his house, establish it forever, and do as thou hast said." 2 Samuel 7:25 (KJV)

The return of Christ is vital to the message of the Bible. But is it an integral part of our Christian lives? After surveying the Scriptures for the influence of Christ's return on our personal holiness, Ryan M. McGraw carefully examines 1 John 2:28–3:3 in order to show how this truth gives us direction in the Christian life, drives us to maturity in Christ, and brings our hope to resolution in light of His second coming. Read and see how our future hope of Christ's return drives our present pursuit of godliness.

One Room School began as a daily blog to readers needing encouragement. The collection that comprises One Room School is inspired by Lukes compilation of eyewitness accounts of Jesus life and teachings. Each daily lesson was inspired by the idea of being alone in the classroom, one-on-one with Jesus. The Teachers desire for his students is that they not only listen, but respond with all their body, mind, soul and strength.

NOW I'M FAMOUS With a life I can only describe so far as an amazing rollercoaster I've sat comfortably, seat belt fastened, absorbing every bump, dip, corner, pace, the starts, the stops, the judders and some slow crawls, with all those said i have no regrets boarding. We've all got a story to tell, every journey can be spoken of, the fact that I've decided to write my autobiography can inspire others to document their journey, be part of the history that in the future they will be reading about.
