Modern mystic Debra Clemente shares the intimate story of her discovery of the voice of Love speaking to her heart. "I become more confident each and every day in the truth for all that the words in my book Listen Hear, A Divine Love Story declare. In these past few years I have come to know that I am not the only one nor am I to be the only one whom is so aware of the Indwelling Spirit of God which is present to lead us unto all truth and goodness. This message deserves a perfect presentation and yet I know that can never be by my book or any other. It can only be a signpost along the way for any others journey. For with surety I say, the truth of God forever can be and only be heartfelt." - Debra Clemente
"Intensely personal, faithfully rendered from observation and experience, refreshingly innocent in reporting on interactions with the Divine Presence, astute in its commentary on stale approaches to Truth, chock full of exciting encounters with a remarkably down-to-earth God, profound, mystical, practical, humorous, fast-paced and highly enjoyable reading. A gem, which I am sure will spur many on to seek their own inner enlightenment. Your detailed descriptions of what you did to get into the flow can help anyone to take similar steps adapted to personal characteristics and temperament. I can see it becoming one of the handbooks for this age of ascension; it is that good and applicable. I for one feel inspired by your example and enheartened by the thread of hope running through the book." - Hanspeter, Austria

"Beautiful... Love this book. Its not one you can complete at one go... there is so much in each page that I feel at times its my book of answers. I open a page and I get my answer to what's on my mind... Its rich beyond words just like your paintings." - Deepthy, India "Simply so fresh to read, packed with truth and encouragement, a certain whirlwind to take you forward. I love how the way thoughts are conveyed are bordering on (and even being) more like art with depth, with a sense of humor, with freshness, word plays, sparks of light amongst words." - Zak, Finland "It is something to sit quiet with. Allow words to have their say. Don't rush. I feel that while I am reading I am in a place of prayer. I found many different places where the eye of my heart was glued to the page. Your writings about the Divine Love and the transformation of the soul they are simply beautiful! Thank you for choosing to listen and hear, for being a conduit for truths that exist for all, but few stop to listen." - Joseph, USA

Thoughts on our life together, including Patricia Bow's poetry, and excerpts from her writings and her diaries. Patricia and I were lucky enough to discover that quiet, intense love that is basic to life itself; this tells of that love and our 48 year marriage. And it is about how this love continues after her death. I am now aware of my wife Patricia's presence touching my mind and soul for a couple of weeks now. It is as if we are made whole again. Maybe we never separated. Pat is definitely in my soul almost as if we are sharing one mind. When I'm not using my mind fully (as when I first wake or when I'm falling asleep), I seem to see what Pat is seeing - what she is writing. It is so clear that often I can read it. Those who know Pat, know that writing was all she wanted to do; it was her compulsion. Her idea of Heaven would be a place where she could write without interruption. I feel she is happy now beyond measure writing in our place in Heaven.

The purpose of this book is to help the reader focus on Divine ideas every day. Since what we dwell upon comes upon us, it is important to make a habit of thinking positive, healthy, Divine, inspirational, loving thoughts all day, no matter what other people are doing around us or to us. One of the greatest difficulties in transforming oneself to a more Divine attitude and perspective is found in working through the negative emotions and beliefs we have long internalized. These beliefs and emotions become lodged in the subconscious mind, and drive the system automatically until they are changed. This takes considerable effort and persistence, since the deeply embedded negative emotions tend to link to many different thoughts, attitudes and other feelings. A virtual labyrinth of interconnected thoughts, emotions and behaviors have to be transformed. This book was created to help the reader achieve that goal. The intent is for the reader to dwell upon each affirmation of the day with strong feeling, trying to love the very idea being expressed, and projecting it outward to the world. Each affirmation should be repeated many times throughout the day, and memorized for future use. As you practice these, your own affirmations will occur to you. Use them all with devotion, because what you worship, is what you become.

The first in-depth history of miscegenation law in the United States, this book illustrates in vivid detail how states, communities, and the courts have defined and regulated mixed-race marriage from the colonial period to the present. Combining a storyteller's detail with a historian's analysis, Peter Wallenstein brings the sagas of Richard and Mildred Loving and countless other interracial couples before them to light in this harrowing history of how individual states had the power to regulate one of the most private aspects of life: marriage.

People who dwell in small towns generally feel safer than those who reside in big cities, when it comes to threats of terror. They don't pay much attention to what's going on in the outside world; it just doesn't affect them. Often times, they don't even lock their doors at night. What people don't realize is that terror often seeks the most unsuspecting of places to spawn like Sulfur Springs. The folks there, at first, didn't take too much notice when the new people started moving in. The Mayor of the small town was encouraging, so everything seemed all right. What would soon transpire was more frightening than anyone in the town could possibly have ever imagined. Sulfur Springs was soon to become a nesting place for absolute evil.

Is it possible to experience joy made full? This story is one of heroic recovery. Darcy's sights are firmly set on winning The National Oldtime Fiddle Contest in Weiser, Idaho. She barely gains traction with her quest when tragedy strikes.

When I was a young boy my mother entertained me nearly every day by reading me Bible stories from a children's book. I was thrilled by such stories as David and Goliath and Daniel in the lions' den. These stories made me feel like I was there witnessing the events unfold right before my eyes and they sparked within me a lifelong desire for Bible study. For this book I have written an adult version of my fifty-two favorite stories as they are found in the King James Bible and I also included my own commentaries about each story. I suggest that you use this book as a part of your devotions and concentrate on one story each week of the year. It is my sincere desire that you too will be enthralled by the accounts of these great men and women in Bible history.

An inspirational and instructional Bible lesson about the life of Joseph the son of Jacob. This story is about the shaping of God's people and the developing of forgiveness, generosity, love, understanding, and leadership. Joseph, a type of Savior, sadly, but out of necessity, had to experience the full consequences of hatred and rejection from his jealous and cruel brothers. When Joseph saw the ten foreigners he recognized them instantly; a déjà-vu experience poignantly confronted him. Emotions engulfed his being as the profound dreams he had had as a young lad flooded back into his memory. The brothers didn't recognize him because in their minds Joseph existed only as a deep repressed memory. So Joseph kept his identity quiet and spoke officiously and suspiciously to them.

along the way and teaches her many valuable life lessons. Love Gives Life: A Study of 1 Corinthians 13 We are to pursue love as we seek spiritual gifts because love gives life to gifts and love outlives gifts. That's Paul's main idea in 1 Corinthians 13, and this study will help you not only to see that in the text but to seek it in your life. The thirteenth chapter of First Corinthians is about having a love strategy. Paul relativizes what we tend to value most (usually our personal distinctives and niches), places love in central view, and summons us to use every power and resource we have for the good of those whom God has placed in our lives. This is the excellent way of love, and it is worthy of our pursuit. Here's what others are saying about this work: If you're like me, you have either heard or taught love from 1 Corinthians 13. You may even think that you have heard most, if not all of the insights of 1 Corinthians 13. I did. That is, until I read Evan May's take on the text. Evan brings us into Paul's thoughts in a clear and engaging way, which is somewhat hard to do. Not only that, he brings clarity to the definition of love which has been hijacked and is now defined as "undogmatic" and "untheological." However, love is very dogmatic and very theological. In a world where social media has made us, "fall for the delusion that what makes us significant is mainly what causes us to stand out from everyone else, rather than what helps us to serve everyone else," what we all need now is a little bit of love, properly understood that is. Read this book! Curtis Allen Rap artist Voice, author of Education or Imitation: Bible Interpretation for Dummies Like You and Me Evan May's Love Gives Life: A Study of 1 Corinthians 13 is a good example of what Paul says in 1 Cor. 14:26, "Let all things be done for building up." It is brief, unpretentious, but says what must be said to bring the message of the "love chapter" to the heart of the reader. May has been personally moved by Paul's words, and he wants to convey to us the same blessing he has found. He has a wonderful gift for simple, conversational writing, with the most natural and appropriate illustrations. He never assaults the reader, but nurtures him gently, so that we find ourselves growing in grace, almost by surprise. No academic trappings here, but May's understanding of the passage is substantial. I hope that many take the opportunity to learn from this book. Dr. John Frame Professor of Systematic Theology and Philosophy at Reformed Theological Seminary and author of the Theology of Lordship series The apostle Paul told his dear friend Timothy, with regard to Christian discipleship, "The aim of our charge is love that issues from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith." That is, love is the necessary consequence of the Gospel he preached. Today, that charge is unfortunately blanced by all manner of social and cultural influences, reduced to the idea that "love" is somehow synonymous with quiet and unconditional acceptance. My dear friend Evan May looks back to Paul as the apostle reminded his students in Corinth about the true meaning of love, and why it actually changes the world. The study notes Evan has produced ought to sting a little as we remember that somehow the love of God is both patient and unrelenting toward wrongdoing, both kind and truthful, both eternal and immediate. I recommend this study without qualification, and hope to see more from Evan in the future. Frank Turk Speaker, writer, and blogger at www.teampyro.blogspot.com

Concerning chpt 34 Ezekiel God says that He will judge the Shepherds of the flocks, not only the rulers of Israel but all the leaders of the world. The Lord says - Ezekiel 34:3 "Ye eat the fat, and ye clothe you with the wool, ye kill them that are fed: but ye feed not the flock. 4: The diseased have ye not strengthened, neither have ye healed that which was sick, neither have ye bound up that which was broken, neither have ye sought again that which was driven away, neither have ye sought that which was lost; but with force & with cruelty have ye ruled them." That is the state of the leadership around the world, but God is going to get rid of the evil shepherds & replace them with Jesus Christ. Concerning the flock, God is going to judge between the cattle, the fat sheep & the lean sheep. Some Christians have made it harder for other people to enter the faith, especially the Right Wing of the U.S.A. They hate and are xenophobic, yet they say they are Christians. Example Christians voting for Trump have alienated- the Latinos, the Blacks & anyone who loves the Environment, free Medical & Education for all. And these people who dont want to help the Environment, & free Medical help to the poor say they are Christians. This is the reason why no one wants to join Christianity- they see the Hate driven religion of the Right. That coupled with the Pedophile scandal & the history of Christians destroying the Indians, & the Bible belt in the south U.S.A. fighting to retain slavery has driven many away from the faith. Ezekiel 34:17 " And as for you, O My flock, thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I judge between cattle & cattle, between the rams & the he goats. 18: Seemeth it a small thing unto you to have eaten up the good pasture, but ye must tread down with your feet the residue of your pastures? & to have drunk of the deep waters, but ye must foul the residue with your feet? 19: And as for My flock, they eat that which ye have trodden with your feet; & they drink that which ye have fouled with your feet. 20: Therefore thus saith the Lord God unto them; Behold, I even I, will judge between the fat cattle & between the lean cattle." God will judge what happened between the nations. One of the problems of nations is pride. God in Ezekiel calls nations "Trees" and Satan's nation is a big tree. All Trees drink water or politics to grow. The Lord says concerning Satan's tree. Ezekiel 31:3" Behold, the Assyrian was a cedar in Lebanon with fair branches, & with a shadowing shroud, & of an high stature; & his top was among the thick boughs. 4:The waters made him great..." 9:I have made him fair by the multitude of his branches; so that all the trees {nations} of Eden, that were in the garden of God, envied him. 10: Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Because thou hast lifted up thyself in height, & hath shot up his top among the thick boughs, & his heart is lifted up in his height;" God destroyed and cut down the tree. Ezekiel 31:14" To the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves for their height, neither shoot up their top among the thick boughs, neither their trees stand up in their height, all that drink water {politics}: for they are all delivered unto death, to the nether parts of the earth, in the midst of the children of men, with them that go down to the pit." That means- Nationalism- is evil. Christian nations do not exalt themselves or have pride in themselves. For all "trees" drink water & they all die like men. So I tell the new African nation & other nations, dont exalt yourself, be humble, no exceptionalism. If you do lift up yourself in the forest-garden of Eden- God will put you in your place and cut you down. Haughtiness goes before a fall. Look what happened to the two superpowers at the S. Coming. Proverb 17:19 " He loveth transgression that loveth strife: and he that exalteth his gate seeketh destruction." So God is going to judge among the nations {cattle-xenophobic sheep- or trees that drink water}
