

If Your Lordship Pleases

A law professor suffers a knock on the head. He continues to behave normally, but delights his students by telling them crazy and convoluted stories. The University authorities take action and he is locked away. Then things change once again. These stories, written with Henry Cecil's true verve and wit, will delight the reader.

Includes lists of orders, rules, bills etc.

Contains judgments of the courts of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, and Prince Edward Island, together with a selection of cases decided by the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, Supreme and Exchequer Courts of Canada, in cases arising in such provinces.

William Richmond is bald and lame. His home is broken into and he is beaten up. His insurance company pays up - but they are highly suspicious. It would appear that a series of bald and lame men have been making dubious insurance claims. In this hilarious trial novel we see how amazing coincidences can really happen.

A collection of stories from Sir James' life as a barrister and High Court judge.
