Una esotica avventura

In this colorful depiction of daily political life in Baroque Rome, Laurie Nussdorfer argues that the lay persons managed to sustain a civic government under the increased papal absolutism of Urban VIII (1623-1644), who oversaw both sacred and secular life. Focusing on the S.P.Q.R. (the Senate and the Roman People), which was ministered from the capitoline Hill, she shows that it provided political representation for lay members of the urban elite, carried out the work of local government, and served as a symbol of the Roman voice in public life. Through a detailed study of how civic authorities derived their sense of legitimacy and how lay subjects maneuvered in informal and disguised ways to block or criticize the papal regime, the author advances a new way of conceiving politics under an absolute ruler. As Nussdorfer analyzes the complex interactions between the lay administration and Urban VIII and his family, the papal administration, and Romans of the upper and lower classes, she also provides fresh insights into the actual practice of early modern government. She takes the plague threat of the early 1630s, the War of Castro (1641-1644), and the interregnum following the pope's death as important test cases of the state's power in times of crisis. Laurie Nussdorfer is Assistant Professor of History and Letters at Wesleyan University. Originally published in 1992. The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print-on-demand technology to again make available previously out-of-print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press. These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions. The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905.

"Il Libro d'Oro della Confraternita di Saint Germain" raccoglie la Sacra Scrittura che il Maestro Saint Germain ha organizzato per la Sua Età dell'Oro e che forma il Terzo Ciclo di Insegnamento della Confraternita di Saint Germain. Il discepolo Sainy Germain, un precursore dell'"IO SONO", avverte gli studenti a cui il lavoro è particolarmente diretto di non lasciarsi ingannare dalle cose o dall'apparenza esteriori, create e distorte dall'uomo. Né importa che inciampiamo continuamente nella vita perché Dio non critica o condanna mai, ma a una pazienza infinita. Il messaggio di Saint Germain si riassume in una frase: chi conosce la potenza di Dio dentro di sé non ha nulla da temere da nessuno. Coloro che sono interessati a indagare sulla sua opera troveranno saggi consigli in questo libro che mostrano che la pienezza di Dio può essere sperimentata nella nostra vita y nel mondo y che, se siamo consapevoli della presenza divina dentro di noi, lo saremo pieno di salute, prosperità e felicità.

Excerpt from IL Libro D'oro: Of Those Whose Names Are Written in the Lamb's Book of Life The church, always directed by the Holy Spirit, always zealous for the glory of the saints, always attentive to what may contribute to the salvation of the faithful, not content with having especially dedicated certain days for the veneration of some of the blessed inhabitants of the heavenly Jerusalem, presents on this day all those Christian heroes united together as objects of the same honour, and may God grant to us the abundant riches of his mercy and all the grace needful to imitate them. We consider the blessed who are in heaven as our brothers, we are all members of the same mystical body under the same Head, we have a right to the same inheritance; what we now are they have been, what they now are we may one day become. Like us, they have wept in this place of exile; like us, they have been subject to the same infirmities, exposed to the same temptations and the same dangers; like us, they were arrested by the same difficulties, by the same obstacles; like them, we must, with the same means, conquer these difficulties, resist these enemies with the same courage, and with the same fidelity correspond to grace. The glory with which they are crowned, and the felicity which they enjoy, deserve our wonder, and are the worthy objects of our ambition; while we reverence their merits so gloriously rewarded. This is briefly what the church proposes, in this solemn and general honour which it bestows on this day on the blessed; this is the object and the motive of this solemnity. In this e-book you will find an extensive bibliography of books and articles written about the fourteenth-century Libro de buen amor, from Spain, written by the Archpriest of Hita. It also includes an introduction about the history of this bibliography which was initially compiled in the 1970's and has grown over the years. There is a list, too, of inaccurate references, of other bibliographies on this author and a brief description of Mary-Anne Vetterling, PhD, Professor of Spanish, Regis College, Weston, MA, the scholar that is responsible for this e-book. This is essentially the same as the in-print and online bibliographies on the Libro de buen amor by Mary-Anne Vetterling but it has a good search engine to help you find articles and books on specific topics.
