In his own words, the heavyweight champion of the world pulls no punches as he chronicles the battles he faced in and out of the ring in this fascinating memoir edited by Nobel Prize-winning novelist, Toni Morrison. Growing up in the South, surrounded by racial bigotry and discrimination, Ali fought not just for a living, but also for respect and rewards far more precious than money or glory. He was named Sportsman of the Century by Sports Illustrated and the BBC. Ali redefined what it meant to be an athlete by giving hope to millions around the world and inspiring us all to fight for what is important to us. This is a multifaceted portrait of Muhammad Ali only he could render: sports

The triumphs and the trials of the men who invented the modern ballpoint pen as they battled corporate greed, dark eras--and each other. László Bíró's last name is, in much of the world, a synonym for his revolutionary writing tool. But few people know that Bíró began his career in interwar Budapest as a journalist frustrated with spotty ink; that he escaped fascism by fleeing to Paris and, finally, to Buenos Aires; that a fellow Hungarian, Andor Goy, also played a vital role in the pen's development--and that, in a tragic twist of shared fate, business pressures and politics ultimately deprived both men of their rights to the ballpoint pen. Taking us from Hitler's Europe in 1938, to Argentina, where Bíró settled, and to Communist-era Hungary, where Goy lived out his life, Ballpoint is a painstakingly researched, absorbing narrative that reads simultaneously like a work of history and a novel.

The Bond films have entertained annoyed, excited, bored, aroused and invigorated cinemagoers (and ITV4 viewers) for more than fifty years. Who hasn't wanted to kick a big bloke with metal teeth in the groin? Fly a small plane out of a pretend horse's bottom? Or push a middle-aged man into space? No one, that's who. Thunderbook: The World of Bond According to Smersh Pod affectionately examines Bond with tongue firmly in cheek and elbow dug in ribs. Join John Rain as he goes film-by-film through the Bond saga as he points out all the good, the bad, and the double-taking pigeons contained within Bond's half-century of world domination. With one chapter for each of the twenty-four films to date, Thunderbook examines all the moments that are funny, silly, rubbish, nonsensical, bizarre and interesting, with the ultimate intention of celebrating Mr. Kiss Kiss Bang Bang, and becoming the go-to companion book for the Bond fan at large.

Princess Leia, Han Solo, and Luke Skywalker struggle to unite Rebel and Imperial forces against the deadly Ssi-ruuk, reptilian invaders of the outpost Bakura who plan to enslave the entire galaxy for purposes of war and destruction. Reprint.

Valerie in Giantland takes place ten years after our heroes crashed on the Land of the Giants. Without losing the feel and character of the original story this novel shows us a more mature group of seven and relates what has happened to them since the last episode was shown on TV. Written as a diary by Valerie, we see her more in depth as well as the other characters and how the years have made them relate to each other and their environment. There are adventures not just in the main Giant city, but at sea, in the depths of the jungle, and in a lost civilization of little people that will remind one of tales by Edgar Rice Burroughs and H. R. Haggard. They are not alone among the Giants as what happened to them happened to others and in this novel there is discovery of colonies of other "little people". You will finally learn what this land is really all about and how it relates closely to our own Earth. The reader will be reunited with Giants who made appearances in the series and will see how they tie in together in surprising ways for a major climactic ending. Actually a beginning as this book sets the scene for new adventures to come. The Sci Fi Guy, Forry Ackerman himself praises the book as being as "fast moving and exciting as an Indiana Jones adventure". Forry has been the agent for hundreds of successful authors as well as a critic and collector with an international reputation. He compares Valerie in Giantland with the "young adult fiction by Andre Norton and Robert Heinlein." Reviews "I think what we have here is a novel in the genre that would appeal to young adults like the early work of Robert A. Heinlein and Andre Norton. I was really surprised at the professionalism of it." - Forest J. Ackerman, Famous Monsters of Filmland Editor, Book Reviewer, and former agent for 460 science fiction authors. "It has a fast moving pace with the kind of strong characters favored by Heinlein and Norton. The book emphasizes a most powerful idea: the struggle to be free. At this period in our history it holds a powerful message at a time when it is needed." - Ron Rogers, Author and Reviewer. "A rollicking good action adventure yarn from start to finish. When do we see a sequel? When do we see a movie? The original series and Irwin Allen have been truly honored by this." - Robert Nichols, English Department Chair and Author.

Mastering the Nikon D7100 by Darrell Young provides a wealth of experience-based information and insights for owners of the new D7100 camera. Darrell is determined to help the user navigate past the confusion that often comes with complex and powerful professional camera equipment. Darrell's friendly and informative writing style allows readers to easily follow directions, while feeling as if a friend dropped in to share his knowledge. The learning experience for new D7100 users goes beyond just the camera itself and covers basic photography technique.

A New York Review Books Original Hav is like no place on earth. Rumored to be the site of Troy, captured during the crusades and recaptured by Saladin, visited by Tolstoy, Hitler, Grace Kelly, and Princess Diana, this Mediterranean city-state is home to several architectural marvels and an annual rooftop race that is a feat of athleticism and insanity. As Jan Morris guides us through the corridors and quarters of Hav, we hear the mingling of Italian, Russian, and Arabic in its markets, delight in its famous snow raspberries, and meet the denizens of its casinos and cafés. When Morris published Last Letters from Hav in 1985, it was short-listed for the Booker Prize. Here it is joined by Hav of the Myrmidons, a sequel that brings the story up-to-date. Twenty-first-century Hav is nearly unrecognizable. Sanitized and monetized, it is ruled by a group of fanatics who have rewritten its history to reflect their own blinkered view of the past. Morris's only novel is dazzlingly sui-generis, part erudite travel memoir, part speculative fiction, part cautionary political tale. It transports the reader to an extraordinary place that never was, but could well be.

An in-depth look at the life and career of famed Hollywood producer Irwin Allen, the mastermind behind such classic TV series as LOST IN SPACE, VOYAGE TO THE BOTTOM OF THE SEA, TIME TUNNEL and LAND OF THE GIANTS, and the iconic disaster epics, THE POSEIDON ADVENTURE and THE TOWERING INFERNO.
