Many of the people that I admired over the years were local or nationally renowned ministers and pastoral who were also authors and scholars. Some of these individuals received both national and international recognition for their contribution to the church and the academy (e.g., Dr. Samuel DeWitt Proctor, Dr. Howard Thurman, Bishop Vashti McKenzie and Dr. Cheryl Townsend-Gilkes), while others received love, acclaim, gratitude from their congregants and constituents of their church and local community.

Many of the earliest books, particularly those dating back to the 1900s and before, are now extremely scarce and increasingly expensive. We are republishing these classic works in affordable, high quality, modern editions, using the original text and artwork.

Co-authors and brothers Gary and Larry Turner touched singer's lives when they shared their collection of songs of praise and worship, Songs To The Glory Of God. Now they're back with a new collection that is equally inspiring as the first, Songs To The Glory Of God Volume II. Of these songs, Gary Turner shares, "The Godhead has truly been my inspiration. The songs were written to glorify God. I certainly pray that they will be an inspiration to you and that they will move you to glorify His name." After his retirement Mr. Gary Turner made a commitment to the Lord that he would write a song for every week in the year. Songs To The Glory Of God Volume II is filled with 87 songs with divinely inspired lyrics and music. Larry Turner, an accomplished musician, arranged all the music in this hymn book. Another beautiful addition to one's musical repertoire, Songs To The Glory Of God Volume II reveals the essence and beauty of God's love through His Son, Jesus. It will help lead believers into praise and worship, rejuvenating their faith and strengthening their belief in God. (Lyric Library). -- All-new, expanded version of the classic book that set the tone for the contemporary worship movement -- The signature book from worship pioneer Jack Hayford, founding pastor of one of the best-known churches in America, The Church On The Way -- Integrity Music will be co-promoting this product along with their music CD of the same title from Jack Hayford. The Father certainly doesn't need our praise, yet He prescribes worship as a daily activity. Why? Because, as pastor Jack Hayford clearly shows us, God graces His people with worship as a gift, not a demand. Worship liberates all of God's people to discover genuine wholeness, but only as they recognize and acknowledge the holiness of God. Hayford examines the lives of more than a dozen biblical figures to illuminate the fulfilling effects of worship -- including seven truths Jesus revealed about the blessings of praise. God's grace fills everything He gives -- and everything He calls us to do. And this same grace overflows in a special and unique way on all of us who humbly and wholeheartedly worship God.

The nature of Christ is a very important subject that caused a serious dissension within the Church in the fifth century, in 451 AD. When the theological dialogue started as an effort towards the unity of churches, the subject had to be discussed. Therefore, our Orthodox Church found it necessary to issue a book which presents its concept in this regard in a language fit for theological dialogues. This subject (the Nature of Christ) was taught by me to the students of the Seminary "St. Mark Theological College" in 1984 in the form of lectures which I delivered to them in St. Bishoy Monastery, Sheheit Desert, as part of the courses of comparative Theology. The lectures were printed merely for the use of the students. The same lectures were afterwards translated into English in Ottawa, Canada, in 1980 and became available in English only for six years... We had to print them in Arabic for the students of the Seminary and its branches and for the benefit of those who are interested in theological studies whether ministers or ordinary individuals.. and whoever has the desire-from other churches to be acquainted with our concept of Christology. The first theological dialogue we attended on this subject was in Vienna, Austria in September 1971 AD convened by the ProOriente Group. In this dialogue we reached a theological formula that was accepted by our Catholic brothers and those in the old Oriental orthodox churches: the Syrians, Arminians, Ethiopians and Indians. It was an important dialogue indeed, for the dissension that occurred in the fifth century had distorted the face of every church before the other.. But now the way is open for a common understanding. Then, there was an official agreement with the Catholic churches after 17 years of differences (since 1988), based on the previous understanding. The agreement was recorded in a concise "Statement" which you will find at the end of this book. There was another dialogue, in more detail, with our brothers in the Byzantine Orthodox Churches in St. Bishoy Monastery, Sheheit Desert in 1989 AD. It was attended by the theologians of twenty Orthodox Churches and was followed by another meeting of the priestly representatives of the Orthodox churches in Chambesy, Geneva, in 1990. Now, seeing it is necessary to make our people acquainted with the details and evidences that prove our concept of the Nature of Christ, and since the Pro-Oriente Group is convening a religious conference for the representatives of all Churches at the end of October 1991 to present to them the Agreed Statement on Christology. And since we were asked to present a paper on the subject and deliver it as a lecture in the conference. Therefore, we proceeded to print the former lectures delivered in the Seminary in 1984 as a book to be presented to the conference and to be available in Arabic and in English for all who are interested. Pope Shenouda III

Drawing on slave narratives found in forty-one volumes of interviews and one hundred autobiographies by former slaves, these contributors explore how enslaved African Americans received the often oppressive faith of their masters but transformed it into a gospel of liberation. This classic work demonstrates how an authentic black theology of liberation today must listen to the divine spirit that once fed and continues to feed the black religious experience. This second edition includes three additional provocative essays.

Drawing on translation theory from the early modern period to the present day, this book addresses Smart's translations of Horace, Phaedrus and the Psalms alongside the better-known religious works such as Jubilate Agno and A Song to David. Five recurrent threads run throughout Powell's study: the effect of translation on the identity of a narrative voice in a rewritten text; the techniques that are used to present translated texts to a new literary, cultural and linguistic readership; performance and reading contexts; the translation of great works as an attempt to achieve literary permanence; and, finally, the authorial influence of Smart himself in terms of the overt religiosity and nationalism that he champions in his writing. In exploring Smart's major translation projects and revisiting his original poems, Powell offers insights into classical reception and translation theory; attitudes towards censorship; expressions of nationalism in the period; developments in liturgy and hymnody; and the composition of children's books and school texts in the early modern era. Her detailed analysis of Smart's translating poetics places them within a new, contemporary context and locality to uncover the poet's works as a coherent project of Englishing.

Following transformation of my spirit from old to new and transition of my soul from self only, to a degree of sacrificial love, the songs contained in "Christian Worship Songbook" could be freely released from my heart. All songs are personally composed to bless God the Father; Jesus Christ; and the Holy Spirit... the only True God. There are nine songs in the book, which, as the title suggests, I have categorised as worship. Prior to composing the songs, I had little to no knowledge of music theory. Resources available online and purchased music software provided basic understanding, but mostly each melody with lyrics quickly followed the previous one almost without struggle, until song number nine was complete. From that moment, no more lyrics or notes were readily available. In some cases lyrics proved to be a challenge as alignment with the absolute truth of God's Word was of utmost importance to me. Compromising the integrity of Scripture on purpose, could never be allowed... not for any reason: no matter how difficult the task may have seemed to be, but especially as I was aiming to bless God. How could I bless God if I was blatantly changing the meaning of His words, which were given by grace to save the world and to love His children with. Remaining sensitive to the leading of the Holy Spirit was essential for staying in the will of God while writing the songs. There are always those who know more and do more no-matter what the chosen field of expertise may be. However, regardless of any expertise I may have possessed, whether just inwardly perceived in my own thoughts or outwardly proven to be authentic, "Christian Worship Songbook" is a gift of original lyrics, music and photography for all those people pleased to freely receive. Just simply give from your heart to worship the Living God... Creator of all the heavens and earth. An electronic version of "Christian Worship Songbook" has been made available for viewing on www.jamullier.com website. Vocal, guitar and piano tracks are integrated into the electronic Songbook for listening and all music score sheets, including guitar chords, are freely printable. Digital guitar tracks and piano tracks for all songs are provided for listening and download, independent of the e-book.
