The second season of superb series Kenya (5 volumes). Adventure and exoticism in 1940s Africa!

Osiris held up the blue scarab. "This is what we will use to speak to the living. Through this the souls of the dead will be judged. We hope that the living will understand what we say..."

Trope London, the second volume in the Trope City Editions series highlighting the world's most architecturally compelling cities, is a highly curated collection of photographic images from an active community of urban photographers who have passionately captured their city like never before.

This Cambridge IGCSE® Mathematics Core and Extended series has been authored to meet the requirements of the Cambridge IGCSE® Mathematics syllabus (0580/0980), for first examination from 2020.

This second edition of Cambridge IGCSE® Mathematics Core and Extended Coursebook offers complete coverage of the Cambridge IGCSE Mathematics (0580/0980) syllabus. It contains detailed explanations and clear worked examples, followed by practice exercises to allow students to consolidate the required mathematical skills. The coursebook offers opportunities for checking prior knowledge before starting a new chapter and testing knowledge with end-of-chapter and exam-practice exercises. Core and Extended materials are presented within the same book and are clearly signposted to allow students to see the range of mathematics required for study at this level. Answers are at the back of the book.

A group of teens in a Seattle-area rehabilitation center form an unlikely friendship as they begin to focus less on their own problems with drugs and alcohol by reaching out to help a new member, who seems to have even deeper issues to resolve.

Six full practice tests plus easy-to-follow expert guidance and exam tips designed to guarantee exam success. As well as six full practice tests, KET for Schools Trainer offers easy-to-follow expert guidance and exam tips designed to guarantee exam success. The first two tests are fully guided with step-by-step advice on how to tackle each paper. Extra practice activities, informed by the Cambridge Learner Corpus, a bank of real candidates' exam papers, focus on areas where students typically need the most help. This 'without answers' edition is ideal for class use. Audio CDs featuring the listening activities from the tests are available separately or with the 'with answers' edition.

"Local editors Schaper and Horwitz have assembled a noteworthy collection of noir-infused stories mixed with laughter...The Akashic noir short-story anthologies are avidly sought and make ideal samplers for regional mystery collecting." --Library Journal "The best pieces in the collection turn the clichés of the genre on their head . . . and despite the unseemly subject matter, the stories are often surprisingly funny."

—City Pages (Minneapolis) Brand-new stories from John Jodzio, Tom Kaczynski, and Peter Schilling, Jr., in addition to the original volume's stories by David Housewright, Steve Thayer, Judith Guest, Mary Logue, Bruce Rubenstein, K.J. Erickson, William Kent Krueger, Ellen Hart, Brad Zellar, Mary Sharratt, Pete Hautman, Larry Millett, Quinton Skinner, Gary Bush, and Chris Everheart. "St. Paul was originally called Pig's Eye's Landing and was named after Pig's Eye Parrant--trapper, moonshiner, and proprietor of the most popular drinking establishment on the Mississippi. Traders, river rats, missionaries, soldiers, land speculators, fur trappers, and Indian agents congregated in his establishment and made their deals. When Minnesota became a territory in 1849, the town leaders, realizing that a place called Pig's Eye might not inspire civic confidence, changed the name to St. Paul, after the largest church in the city . . . Across the river, Minneapolis has its own sordid story. By the turn of the twentieth century it was considered one of the most crooked cities in the nation. Mayor Albert Alonzo Ames, with the assistance of the chief of police, his brother Fred, ran a city so corrupt that according to Lincoln Steffans its 'deliberateness, invention, and avarice has never been equaled.' As recently as the mid-'90s, Minneapolis was called 'Murderopolis' due to a rash of killings that occurred over a long hot summer . . . Every city has its share of crime, but what makes the Twin Cities unique may be that we have more than our share of good writers to chronicle it. They are homegrown and they know the territory--how the cities look from the inside, out . . ."

The Cambridge Core IGCSE English as a Second Language series helps Core level students perform to the best of their ability.

Flash on English for mechanics, electronics and technical assistance is specifically designed for students who are studying for a career in mechanics and engineering. It introduces the vocabulary and the language functions specific to this language sector, and includes practice exercises in all four skills.

With his face reconstructed into the spitting image of Leonardo DiCaprio (apart from the small matter of an erectile nose) Jude travels on foot to the inferno of Dublin, in hot pursuit of Angela, ex-Galway chip-shop employee and his True Love. A spectacular chase through the city of Ulysses ensues, transformed by Gough's talent into a dazzling metaphor of 21st century violence, alienation and progress.

The book provides systematic practice and development of students' reading, use of English and writing skills at intermediate and upper-intermediate level. The book offers excellent preparation for the revised Cambridge First Certificate Examination for December 2008, as well as any other examinations at the same level. Key Features: 10 Practice tests (Papers 1, 2 and 3) providing thorough preparation for the Reading, Writing and Use of English papers of the revised Cambridge First Certificate Examination; further practice on word distractors, key word transformation, words often confused, error correction, word formation, open cloze and multiple choice close; Teacher's Book provides a full key to the exercises in both the FCE Practice Exam Papers and the FCE Listening and Speaking Skills, as well as tapescripts of all the Listening sections in the Student's Books and suggested answers for the speaking tests.

Cambridge ICT Starters: Initial Steps uses lively illustrations and screen displays to build and develop children's ICT skills. It shows them how to create and edit stories and poems; create pictures; produce graphs and pictograms; send, receive and reply to emails; and find out information using CD-ROMS. The activities in the book use Microsoft Office XP software, Microsoft Paint, MSWLogo, Microsoft Encarta and Microsoft Outlook Express. Benefits and features include: a close match to the content and order of the syllabus; an easy-to-follow format; learning objectives to help teachers; clear step-by-step instruction in using a computer; and stimulating fun-to-do activities. This book is to be used in the classroom with guidance from trained teachers. Materials and prepared files are available to teachers on the Danawa Resources Sdn Bhd (www.DaRes.com.my) website.

Cordelia is eight years old, with a name she hates, a mother who's distracted, and a nanny who doesn't speak her language. Everyone thinks she's a little girl with problems, but to Cordelia, her only problem is that everyone has a colour and she doesn't: mum's is "steely and sharp", nanny Martha is "sandy and slippery", her teacher is "clammy and whitish like over-cooked pasta", while grandad was "green and gold". How can she know what her colour is? And so one day Cordelia decides not to go to school, but to go off on an adventure to find her colour. If she finds it, she thinks, then she'll also find the key to all the boxes where words are locked away, and she'll be able to break the pact of silence she's made, even with her little confidante, Cordelia-in-the-mirror. Who is Mr d? Why does she decide some people on the streets of Milan are invisible? And why is White-wizard following her? A quirky rite-of-passage story whose delightful magic captivates the reader.

A series of workbooks offering integrated content and language support for specific subjects. Breakthrough to CLIL for Physics, Age 14+ helps ESL/EAL students get the most out of their studies when learning subjects through the medium of English. The workbook contains exercises set within the context of core topics to consolidate understanding, embedding practice in aspects of language central to the subject in question. It is designed to support any Physics curriculum for students aged 14-16, including UK GCSE, Cambridge IGCSE and IB MYP. The book should be used alongside a core textbook as well as classroom instruction, and may be used within the classroom or as a self-study or homework resource.

Presents step-by-step instructions and photographs covering the techniques of crocheting.

This clear and lively introduction to probability theory concentrates on the results that are the most useful for applications, including combinatorial probability and Markov chains. Concise and focused, it is designed for a one-semester introductory course in probability for students who have some familiarity with basic calculus. Reflecting the author's philosophy that the best way to learn probability is to see it in action, there are more than 350 problems and 200 examples. The examples contain all the old standards such as the birthday problem and Monty Hall, but also include a number of applications not found in other books, from areas as broad ranging as genetics, sports, finance, and inventory management.

The Essential Mathematics for Cambridge Secondary 1 series has been created for the international student. Written by an expert author team with an experienced examiner, it provides complete coverage of the latest Cambridge Secondary 1 syllabus. The Teacher's CD provides a range of resources to assist in the teaching of the course, including interactive resources for whole-class or individual pupil use, levelled worksheets to help support or stretch pupils to help personalise learning, revision activities to aid student retention, and answers to all the exercises in the Student Book and Workbook.

The Stage 9 Workbook supports and supplements the Stage 9 Student Book, with engaging exercises to support the curriculum framework. It provides summary notes for the theory required, extra questions for students to practice and apply the skills and knowledge they have gained, and space for pupils to write their answers in. The Stage 9 Teacher's CD provides a range of resources to assist in the teaching of the course, including interactive class activities to engage all your students, right across the ability range, revision activities to aid student retention, supplementary worksheets to support lower ability students and stretch more able learners, and answers to all the exercises in the Stage 9 Student Book and Workbook.

"Starts creepy and slowly ratchets up the dread until the last page." -Newsarama In a future where our solar system has been colonized by wealthy elites, interstellar bounty hunters Dagmar, Rick, and Jules follow a missing girl's trail to a cult on Ganymede, Jupiter's largest moon. When they arrive, the intrepid bounty hunters discover the cultists have provoked a terrifying force. This ghost story in space reunites comics' king of macabre Steve Niles with his longtime collaborator Christopher Mitten, whose stylish mix of grit and flow matches Steve's sharp characterizations and taste for screams. "Without a doubt the creepiest comic I've read this year. Everything comes together to make a truly haunting experience with an ever present feeling of crushing space dread." -AiPT! "The true beauty of The Disciples rests in its haunting relatability. All humans in space are just a moment away from insignificance, and Niles and Company make sure you can feel it... we're forced to confront all of the terrifying truths we otherwise avoid in the safety of our terrestrial trappings." -Doom Rocket

New book 'Crash Lane News' is 2015's scientific, comprehensive self-help travel resource CrashLaneNews.com presents original, simplified point of view about travel to help readers travel safer CALIFORNIA — The new book, "Crash Lane News" (published by AuthorHouse) from CrashLaneNews.com, combines security strategies and plans to help bring awareness to, and improve, traveler safety across the 50 United States, U.S. Territories and allies of the U.S. like South Korea, Taiwan, Japan and the Philippines. By combining stories of real-life situations with interviews and statistics, CrashLaneNews.com hopes to appeal to travelers who are looking for more than just dry news, but rather an all-inclusive story-based format that will appeal to their logical sides as well as their curiosity about real-life experiences. Information from the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, the Department of Transportation and many more is included alongside accident, violation and disaster rates. Also included are interviews with the CTIA-The Wireless Association public relations office, NASA's Rani Gran, The National Weather Service, True Mileage's CEO Ryan Morrison, National Weather Service Interviews with Meteorologist Glen Field in Taunton, Massachusetts; Meteorologist Larry Ruthi in Dodge City, Kansas; and with additional meteorologists in Honolulu, Hawaii; North Carolina; Peach Tree City, Georgia; and Slidell/New Orleans, Louisiana; AAA Auto Club's Public Relations Officer, Cynthia Harris, of AAA's Northern California, Nevada, and Utah regional office in San Francisco, California; National Insurance Crime Bureau's Public Affairs Director Frank Scafidi and more. Travel advice for travelers is included from the Department of the State and the FCC. An excerpt from "Crash Lane News": "In the years after 9/11 there was a big issue and discussion about how there is a lack of transparency in the United States about information relating to Homeland Security and disasters like Hurricane Katrina. The lack of transparency in the military, and what later happened to many of those that volunteered to serve the United States is horrific. But with all the casualties, injuries, and failures, change to correct these errors can be made."
