She can't forgive him... Georgie Davis is a work of art. An exquisitely rendered portrait of the modern heiress, she's as much an asset to the Davis brand as anything in the family gallery. People don't touch masterpieces, of course, but that's fine by her. She's cried enough for one lifetime. Her engagement wasn't supposed to be a grand romance but then Peter Zinc came along and made her feel things. Messy things. Confusing things. Things that should've disappeared the moment he betrayed the family she adores. But they didn't, and neither did he. He's still right there down the road, making farming look hot, damn him. He can't forget her... Poverty is nothing new to Peter Zinc. But sharing that poverty with a few dozen sheep and an insubordinate dog? That's a fresh wrinkle. That's what you get when you cross Georgie Davis, though -- a thorough, systematic and well-earned destruction. So why does he want her back so badly? Because she's not the vapid trust-fund beauty he almost married. There's a whip-smart woman hiding inside that pretty shell who intrigues the hell out of him. And he means to have her. Can two wary hearts learn to love... Then a long-buried scandal rolls back into Devil's Kettle, ripping apart old lies and threatening to reveal dangerous truths. It's the kind of upheaval that could destroy Peter's fragile fresh start and force Georgie to start feeling all the messy, confusing things she's been avoiding. But with her family's safety at stake, she'll have to trust the most dangerous man she knows. He'll have to become somebody better than the man he's always been. Somebody who'll protect the woman he loves... or die trying.... before it's too late?

The theme of the conference this year was Critical CALL, drawing inspiration from the work carried out in the broader field of Critical Applied Linguistics. The term 'critical' has many possible interpretations, and as Pennycook (2001) outlines, has many concerns. It was from these that we decided on the conference theme, in particular the notion that we should question the assumptions that lie at the basis of our praxis, ideas that have become 'naturalized' and are not called into question. Over 200 presentations were delivered in 68 different sessions, both in English and Italian, on topics related specifically to the theme and also more general CALL topics. 94 of these were submitted as extended papers and appear in this volume of proceedings. This pack consists of the Student's Book with answers with CD-ROM and Class Audio CDs. The Student's Book fully prepares students to tackle each part of every exam paper. Unique grammar and vocabulary exercises train students to avoid common mistakes. The interactive CD-ROM provides comprehensive extra practice of the language and topics covered in the book and supports mixed ability focusing on students' own particular areas of difficulty. The Class Audio CDs contain the recordings for the listening exercises in the Student's Book. A full practice test is available online for teachers to access.

The story of three generations in twentieth-century China that blends the intimacy of memoir and the panoramic sweep of eyewitness history—a bestselling classic in thirty languages with more than ten million copies sold around the world, now with a new introduction from the author. An engrossing record of Mao's impact on China, an unusual window on the female experience in the modern world, and an inspiring tale of courage and love, Jung Chang describes the extraordinary lives and experiences of her family members: her grandmother, a warlord's concubine; her mother's struggles as a young idealistic Communist; and her parents' experience as members of the Communist elite and their ordeal during the Cultural Revolution. Chang was a Red Guard briefly at the age of fourteen, then worked as a peasant, a "barefoot doctor," a steelworker, and an electrician. As the story of each generation unfolds, Chang captures in gripping, moving—and ultimately uplifting—detail the cycles of violent drama visited on her own family and millions of others caught in the whirlwind of history.

This open access book presents theoretical and practical research relating to the vast, publicly financed program for the construction of new schools and the reorganization of existing educational buildings in Italy. This transformative process aims to give old buildings a fresh identity, to ensure that facilities are compliant with the new educational and teaching models, and to improve both energy efficiency and structural safety with respect to seismic activity. The book is divided into three sections, the first of which focuses on the social role of the school as a civic building that can serve the needs of the community. Innovations in both design and construction processes are then analyzed, paying special attention to the Building Information Modeling (BIM) strategy as a tool for the integration of different disciplines. The final section is devoted to the built heritage and tools, technologies, and approaches for the upgrading of existing buildings so that they meet the new regulations on building performance. The book will be of interest to all who wish to learn about the latest insights into the challenges posed by, and the opportunities afforded by, a comprehensive school building and renovation program.
