Realm hopes that with each past he helps to recover, he'll be able to reclaim a small bit of his own in this spinoff story to Suzanne Young's bestselling duology, The Program and The Treatment. Six months after the fall of The Program, ex-handler Michael Realm is struggling with his guilt. After all, he was instrumental in erasing the memories of several patients—including one he claimed to love. With a lifetime of regret stretched before him, Realm vows to set things right. Along with his friend (yes, friend) James Murphy, Realm will track down those he's hurt in an attempt to give them back their lives—starting with Dallas Stone. He's not looking for forgiveness or redemption; he's not a hero. But helping others may be the only way to save himself. From renowned Newbery-winning author Jerry Spinelli comes a powerful story about how not fitting in just might lead to an incredible life. This classic book is perfect for fans of Gordon Korman and Carl Hiaasen. Just like other kids, Zinkoff rides his bike, hopes for snow days, and wants to be like his dad when he grows up. But Zinkoff also raises his hand with all the wrong answers, trips over his own feet, and falls down with laughter over a word like "Jabip." Other kids have their own word to describe him, but Zinkoff is too busy to hear it. He doesn't know he's not like everyone else. And one winter night, Zinkoff's differences show that any name can someday become "hero." With some of his finest writing to date and great wit and humor, Jerry Spinelli creates a story about a boy's individuality surpassing the need to fit in and the genuine importance of failure. As readers follow Zinkoff from first through sixth grade, it becomes impossible not to identify with and root for him through failures and triumphs. The perfect classroom read.

Contemporary subject matter--war and its consequences by an award-winning and popular children's author.

Khaled Hosseini is one of the most widely read and beloved novelists in the world. His novels have sold more than 38 million copies worldwide. Now, six years after A Thousand Splendid Suns debuted at #1, spending fourteen consecutive weeks at #1 and nearly a full year on the hardcover list, Hosseini returns with a book that is broader in scope and setting than anything he's ever written before. A multigenerational-family story revolving around brothers and sisters, it is an emotional, provocative, and unforgettable novel about how we love, how we take care of one another, and how the choices we make resonate through generations. With profound wisdom, insight and compassion, Hosseini demonstrates once again his deeply felt understanding of the bonds that define us and shape our lives—and of what it means to be human.

Selected as a Book of the Year 2016 in the Guardian Reunion is a little-known but perfect novel with fans including Ian McEwan, John Boyne, Deborah Moggach, David Nicholls, Meg Rosoff and Sarah Perry. On a grey afternoon in 1932, a Stuttgart classroom is stirred by the arrival of a newcomer. Middle-class Hans is intrigued by the aristocratic new boy, Konradin, and before long they become best friends. It's a friendship of the greatest kind, of shared interests and long conversations, of hikes in the German hills and growing up together. But the boys live in a changing Germany. Powerful, delicate and daring, Reunion is a story of the fragility, and strength, of the bonds between friends. 'Exquisite' Guardian 'I loved Reunion and found it very moving' John Boyne WITH AN AFTERWORD BY RACHEL SEIFFERT

When young Iqbal is sold into slavery at a carpet factory, his arrival changes everything for the other overworked and abused children there. It is Iqbal who explains to them that despite their master's promises, he plans on keeping them as his slaves indefinitely. But it is also Iqbal who inspires the other children to look to a future free from toil...and is brave enough to show them how to get there. This moving fictionalized account of the real Iqbal Masih is told through the voice of Fatima, a young Pakistani girl whose life is changed by Iqbal's courage.

A riveting and powerful story of an unforgiving time, an unlikely friendship and an indestructible love

The dramatic story of neighbors in a small Danish fishing village who, during the Holocaust, shelter a Jewish family waiting to be ferried to safety in Sweden. It is 1943 in Nazi-occupied Denmark. Anett and her parents are hiding a Jewish woman and her son, Carl, in their cellar until a fishing boat can take them across the sound to neutral Sweden. The soldiers patrolling their street are growing suspicious, so Carl and his mama must make their way to the harbor despite a cloudy sky with no moon to guide them. Worried about their safety, Anett devises a clever and unusual plan for their safe passage to the harbor. Based on a true story.

Il volume realizza una indagine, a più voci, sulla storia dell'infanzia fra Otto e Novecento, declinata sia come storia delle idee pedagogiche sull'infanzia, sia come storia dei vissuti educativi di bambine e bambini reali, individuati attraverso l'analisi delle storie di vita. Sono oggetto di analisi sia i modelli educativi sia le prassi pedagogiche presenti nella vita quotidiana le quali, attraverso un fascio articolato e composito di istituzioni educative (famiglia, collegi, scuola, associazioni, fabbrica) e di processi culturali prodotti e veicolati dai mass media emergenti (dalla produzione letteraria per l'infanzia fino ai più recenti mass media del Novecento) hanno caratterizzato la vita quotidiana di bambini e di bambine, contribuendo a determinare i processi di formazione e di costruzione identitaria di individui e gruppi.

Iqbal Masih was gunned down by an assassin when he was 13 years old. This story is about a child martyr, who died trying to end child slavery. After he escaped his carpet-master, Iqbal worked to spread the word to other enslaved children that they could be free too.

Boys will be boys and girls will be girls? Not in this book. The follow-up to Ben Brooks's New York Times bestselling Stories for Boys Who Dare to Be Different, this book offers more extraordinary true stories of amazing people who broke the mold and changed the world for the better. The resulting message? Be yourself, and your dreams might come true. With the help of Quinton Winter's striking full-color illustrations, Brooks offers an accessible compilation of 76 famous and not-so-famous influencers from the past to the present day, every single one of them a rule-breaker and stereotype-smasher in his or her own way. Entries include Emma Gonzalez, Andy Warhol, Bjork, Hans Christian Andersen, Sally Ride, and so many more -- heroes from all walks of life and from all over the world.

The immigrant tenants of a building in Rome offer skewed accounts of a murder in this prize-winning satire by the Algerian-born Italian author (Publishers Weekly). Piazza Vittorio is home to a polyglot community of immigrants who have come to Rome from all over the world. But when a tenant is murdered in the building's elevator, the delicate balance is thrown into disarray. As each of the victim's neighbors is questioned by the police, readers are offered an all-access pass into the most colorful neighborhood in contemporary Rome. With language as colorful as the neighborhood it describes, each character takes his or her turn "giving evidence." Their various stories reveal much about the drama of racial identity and the anxieties of a life spent on society's margins, but also bring to life the hilarious imbroglios of this melting pot Italian culture. "Their frequently wild testimony teases out intriguing psychological and social insight alongside a playful whodunit plot." —Publishers Weekly

A MEMOIR BY THE YOUNGEST RECIPIENT OF THE NOBEL PEACE PRIZE As seen on Netflix with David Letterman "I come from a country that was created at midnight. When I almost died it was just after midday." When the Taliban took control of the Swat Valley in Pakistan, one girl spoke out. Malala Yousafzai refused to be silenced and fought for her right to an education. On Tuesday, October 9, 2012, when she was fifteen, she almost paid the ultimate price. She was shot in the head at point-blank range while riding the bus home from school, and few expected her to survive. Instead, Malala's miraculous recovery has taken her on an extraordinary journey from a remote valley in northern Pakistan to the halls of the United Nations in New York. At sixteen, she became a global symbol of peaceful protest and the youngest nominee ever for the Nobel Peace Prize. I AM MALALA is the remarkable tale of a family uprooted by global terrorism, of the fight for girls' education, of a father who, himself a school owner, championed and encouraged his daughter to write and attend school, and of brave parents who have a fierce love for their daughter in a society that prizes sons. I AM MALALA will make you believe in the power of one person's voice to inspire change in the world.

Dal Risorgimento ai nostri giorni, una storia organica di autori, libri e periodici rivolti ai giovani lettori, analizzati e inquadrati nel più ampio panorama della storia dell'istruzione e della politica scolastica del nostro paese. Questa nuova edizione prende inoltre in esame le più recenti problematiche relative alla lettura a scuola (biblioteche scolastiche, iniziative ministeriali), lo sviluppo dei generi di maggior successo (dalla poesia alla prosa di divulgazione scientifica e al fantasy) e l'analisi di alcuni personaggi letterari 'di culto' come Harry Potter e Geronimo Stilton, divenuti in breve tempo veri e propri fenomeni mediatici.

Based on a true story, tells the tale of a Somali girl who risked her life on a migrant journey to Europe to run in the Olympic Games.

"A joyous spirit pervades this picture book and its fallible yet lovable protagonist." — Booklist (starred review) "I win! I'm the best!" Dog boasts. He can run faster than Mole, dig better than Goose, swim faster than Donkey, and he's much bigger than Ladybug. He wins! Unfortunately, Dog's nonstop bragging is starting to make his friends feel kind of sad. But what if they mixed things up and looked at them differently? Could they teach Dog a lesson — and remind him of what it means to be a best friend?

"L'angolo della storia" è la continuazione del libro precedente "I fiori della vita". Anche quest'opera narrativa presenta, dunque, un'impostazione autobiografica. Vi è narrata la vita dell'autrice, dal periodo della sua giovinezza a quello della sua maturità insieme, naturalmente, alla storia di famiglia. Vi rientrano pure racconti di esperienze, di viaggi, avventure, vicende vissuti da altri personaggi, ma ricostruiti dall'autrice con intensa partecipazione umana. Dalla sua curiosità e dal vivo interesse verso il mondo che la circonda scaturiscono, poi, le sue riflessioni sui vari aspetti della nostra società, in perenne divenire. Ella pone l'accento sull'importanza delle scelte umane per la vita sulla Terra. Ritorna quindi a ragionare sull'uomo, sui problemi esistenziali e morali e sulle prospettive future. Con lo sguardo abbraccia allora il cielo che sovrasta e avvolge il nostro Pianeta. Ha piena consapevolezza della complessità del mondo contemporaneo e dei limiti umani, rispetto l'immensità dell'universo infinito. Nel contempo, si sente fiduciosa nelle straordinarie risorse dell'uomo che, se sfruttate nell'ottica dell'amore, possono renderlo grande. Marilena Parro Marconi è nata nel 1953 a Sacile (PN), città in cui tuttora risiede. Ha conseguito la Laurea in Lettere Classiche presso la Facoltà di Lettere e Filosofia dell'Università di Padova, nel 1976. Ha insegnato per molti anni Materie Letterarie in varie scuole della provincia di Pordenone. Ha pubblicato con Edizioni Publimedia "I fiori della vita" (2016), la sua prima opera narrativa. Ha ottenuto una "Menzione di merito" con la poesia "Le evocazioni del silenzio", nella quarta edizione - 2016 - del Concorso nazionale di poesia Città di Conegliano. Una sua silloge di quindici poesie dal titolo "La voce dell'animo" è stata inserita nel volume "Marino", collana Parole in Fuga - Poeti del Nuovo Millennio a confronto, Aletti Editore 2016. La sua poesia "Incontri" è stata selezionata per pubblicazione nel volume "Il Federiciano 2016", Aletti Editore. Ha ricevuto Diploma d'onore con menzione d'encomio al Premio

Internazionale “Michelangelo Buonarroti” (Seravezza 2016 II^a edizione) con la poesia “Il canto delle cicale”.

This book is open access under a CC BY-NC 3.0 IGO license. This book comprehensively covers topics in knowledge management and competence in strategy development, management techniques, collaboration mechanisms, knowledge sharing and learning, as well as knowledge capture and storage. Presented in accessible “chunks,” it includes more than 120 topics that are essential to high-performance organizations. The extensive use of quotes by respected experts juxtaposed with relevant research to counterpoint or lend weight to key concepts; “cheat sheets” that simplify access and reference to individual articles; as well as the grouping of many of these topics under recurrent themes make this book unique. In addition, it provides scalable tried-and-tested tools, method and approaches for improved organizational effectiveness. The research included is particularly useful to knowledge workers engaged in executive leadership; research, analysis and advice; and corporate management and administration. It is a valuable resource for those working in the public, private and third sectors, both in industrialized and developing countries.

For Fatima, Maria and the other unseen children of Hussain Khan's carpet factory, Iqbal Masih's arrival is both the end of hope and its beginning. It is Iqbal who tells them that their family's debt will never be cancelled, no matter how many inches of progress they make in their rugs, no matter how neat their knots or how perfect the pattern they weave. But it is also Iqbal who is brave enough to talk about the future, to plan their escape - and to encourage the children to stand together against their master's injustice. Who promises Fatima that next spring they are going to fly kite 'whatever happens.' Based on a true story, this is a poignant and lyrical novel about child labour and human rights issues. A pack containing: * 15 copies of the Rollercoasters Educational Edition of Iqbal by Francesco D'Adamo * 15 Iqbal Reading Guides to support the student in their study of the novel

Policroma e mutante è la letteratura per l'infanzia, un universo affascinante e misterioso, spesso poco conosciuto anche dagli addetti ai lavori. Nonostante si inciampi sempre più frequentemente negli appetiti commerciali di redazioni allenate a vedere nel bambino più un consumatore da convincere che un lettore da formare, la letteratura per l'infanzia ha saputo evolvere nel tempo e opporre, a libri tronfi di storie mediocri o finali moraleggianti, trame raffinate, emozionanti, sovversive, che alimentano l'immaginario del bambino, ne esaltano la libertà, parlano di temi ostici quali la sessualità e la morte, rovesciano le finzioni degli adulti, generano un flusso di energia trasformatrice. Costruito sulla felice alternanza di saggi dallo stile asciutto e incisivo, il volume offre uno spaccato rigoroso della dinamicità del panorama contemporaneo della narrativa per ragazzi: tocca le terre fantastiche delle fiabe e i lidi ristoratori della poesia, della sperimentazione linguistica oulipiana; dibatte sull'imprescindibile ruolo svolto dai libri per la primissima infanzia e dai romanzi di formazione ed educazione sentimentale dedicati agli adolescenti; presenta una poderosa rassegna sui libri di divulgazione scientifica e su alcuni irrinunciabili albi per lo sviluppo dei concetti spazio-temporali e dei numeri già nella tenera età; ricorda l'attualità delle trame racchiuse in alcuni grandi classici di Otto e Novecento sino a lambire i territori della nuova letteratura digitale. Uno strumento prezioso per coloro che desiderano comprendere le forme, i temi e gli orientamenti contemporanei della letteratura per l'infanzia e l'adolescenza, che credono nel ruolo di mediatore dell'adulto, che mettono al centro del dibattito sempre e solo un protagonista: il bambino.

"A lushly illustrated picture-book biography of two young Pakistani heroes, Malala Yousafzai and Iqbal Masih, from acclaimed nonfiction author/illustrator Jeanette Winter"--

L'emigrazione è una fuga dolorosa e atroce, un folle atto di sradicamento, un movimento contrario al normale corso che la vita di un numero sempre maggiore di persone dovrebbe invece seguire. Giovanni Greci, con la sua analisi precisa, ci porta con sé alla scoperta della vasta letteratura per ragazzi che ha l'emigrazione e tutto ciò che ruota intorno ad essa come tema centrale. Ci consente così di conoscere chi l'ha affrontata in prima persona, che siano personaggi reali o romanzati, e le svariate vicende generatesi in quei contesti. Ai lettori sembrerà di viaggiare verso l'America con una sacca piena di speranza e voglia di riscatto, poi si sentiranno travolti dalle masse in viaggio dal Sud al Nord del mondo per cambiare la propria vita, soffriranno insieme a chi è troppo piccolo per immaginare di intraprendere un viaggio di fuga dal proprio Paese, eppure lo deve fare come unica possibilità di salvezza. Attraverso queste e moltissime altre traiettorie ed emozioni, l'autore traccia una mappa letteraria completa, da sottoporre ai più giovani come metodo di comprensione e sensibilizzazione che apre gli occhi sul mondo e fa riflettere sul passato, ma anche su un presente migratorio sempre più drammatico. Giovanni Greci è stato responsabile della Biblioteca “C.Pavese” di Parma dal 1985 al 2018. Ha pubblicato diverse opere ed articoli (Giunti; Diabasis; Ediz. Junior et al.), tenuto conferenze in Italia e all'estero e organizzato convegni e corsi di formazione e aggiornamento sulla letteratura per ragazzi. Ha altresì pubblicato opere sulla sua ricerca fotografica (Silvana Editoriale; Edicta et al.) oltre ad aver esposto in diverse gallerie in Italia, in altri paesi europei, in Messico e negli USA.

In 1861, when war erupted between the States, President Lincoln made an impassioned plea for volunteers. Determined not to remain on the sidelines, Emma Edmonds cropped her hair, donned men's clothing, and enlisted in the Union Army. Posing in turn as a slave, peddler, washerwoman, and fop, Emma became a cunning master of disguise, risking discovery and death at every turn behind Confederate lines.

Providing the most complete record possible of texts by Italian writers active after 1900, this annotated bibliography covers over 4,800 distinct editions of writings by some 1,700 Italian authors. Many entries are accompanied by useful notes that provide information on the authors, works, translators, and the reception of the translations. This book includes the works of Pirandello, Calvino, Eco, and more recently, Andrea Camilleri and Valerio Manfredi. Together with Robin Healey's Italian Literature before 1900 in English Translation, also published by University of Toronto Press in 2011, this volume makes comprehensive information on translations from Italian accessible for schools, libraries, and those interested in comparative literature.
