In Stop Sabotaging Your Life: 3 Steps To Your Full Potential, acclaimed life coach Bruno LoGreco shares his simple path to achieving healthy mental and emotional independence. How many times have you caught yourself thinking something like this?: I'm not enough—good enough...smart enough...good looking enough...successful enough.... LoGreco says we sabotage our lives by focusing too much on being what others want us to be and do, and not spending enough time listening to our own hearts and minds. Some people try to find self-acceptance and contentment through counseling, but end up trapped on the therapy treadmill. Others try to go it alone, but still end up in a tiresome process of navel-gazing that never leads to personal fulfillment. LoGreco offers a three-step plan to help you reach your own potential: self-awareness (recognize what you have been doing, and why); rebuilding values (learn a different way to do things); and reach your full potential (identify opportunities and set meaningful goals). You will learn to leverage your strengths to stop chasing illusions and work toward achieving your dreams. LoGreco doesn't claim his book will cure everything that ails you. As he says, "There is no secret formula, no magic pill that will make you happy, productive, and successful. You must challenge your beliefs and take back control of your choices. Don't just think outside the box—break out of it altogether." What clients and readers are saying about life coach, mentor, and motivational speaker Bruno LoGreco: "As a divorced mother of three, I've encountered many obstacles, mostly personal ones within myself. I wondered why I kept repeating the same patterns with the men I was dating and why it always ended badly, usually with me being hurt, and questioned what 'I' was doing wrong. Bruno taught me how to love myself again, how to respect myself and above all else, BELIEVE in myself.... Bruno saved me from my self-destructive patterns. Without his help, I wouldn't be the confident woman I am today. I am a better mother for that.”—Cristina “The world is filled with very successful executives who for decades focus every waking minute on professional accolades and professional development [only to] realize they haven't take the time out to focus on personal development in terms of a better balance in life, being in touch with their spiritual side and inner self, and even the fun side of life. That would describe me in the past.... I came across Bruno, and I knew he was the man. His personality exudes authenticity and geniality. The man simply knows his stuff, has this uncanny ability to read between the lines, and zero in instantly on underlying triggers. His structured approach steers you to address issues head on; challenges you to challenge yourself; opens your mind; helps you understand behaviors, experiences and patterns; gets you in touch with yourself; fuels a sense of purpose and passion; and escorts you to chart a new course to life. He never judges, but relentlessly encourages and empowers you. He's truly a brilliant, genuine and a humane person with an infectious enthusiasm to make you seize your inborn potential.” —Adrian “If I had to sum up my experience with Bruno in one word, it would be 'awakened.' Bruno helped me see life from a different perspective, which is what I needed, but most importantly, he showed me how to do that myself without being dependent on him.... Bruno got me to step outside of my comfort zone and do things I normally wouldn't have done otherwise, which is undoubtedly the key to growth.” —Blaine Disagreement reigns amongst academics, practitioners, and politicians, as to whether human rights have a place in armed conflicts, especially in extra-territorial operations, with many fearing that an application of the right to life would fetter the ability of armed forces to achieve their military objectives. Governments, including the UK, have been keen to claim derogations. Academic literature on the subject is sparse. In this text, Ian Park seeks to fill the lacuna, by considering the UK's litigation strategy regarding the Iraq and Afghanistan conflicts, including focussing on a range of cases, public enquiries, and the investigations of the Iraq Historic Allegations Prosecution Team. He puts the UK's contribution to the NATO Operation Unified Protector in Libya in 2011 back under the spotlight, and assays the recent response to the threat of the Islamic State in Northern Iraq and Syria. Park pulls together the most recent, and complex, case law in an area lacking previous sustained analysis, and concludes that whilst the state does have right to life obligations, the military have little reason to be concerned. The Book titled:"The 1, 2, 3 Steps to Distinguish Between the Good, Acceptable and Perfect Will Of God in Marriage" is a comprehensive book about Marriage. It is fantastic and loaded with great revelations on how to make our choices aligned with the will of God for our lives in Marriage. It covers every subject that is required to bring us to the knowledge of how to identify and distinguish between the Good, Acceptable and Perfect will of God in Marriage. Everyone sincerely prays for the Perfect will of God in Marriage yet lacks the confidence to make a choice because when we are about to make a commitment, a racing thought drives down cold sweat on our faces. In most serious cases we hear a voice asking a pertinent question.Are you sure of what you are about doing? Did God say this is the right one to be with you for ever and ever? Are you sure that what is presented to you is a true love. Wait a minute you have to re-examine his or her life style, do you think he or she will be faithful to you? Many more of these staggering questions flood our minds without clear answers. We are always left in a deep state of despair and confusion. Voices in our mind conflicting with what we perceive in our spirit. This should never be so. When God brought Eve to Adam he said: "this is the bone of my bones and the flesh of my flesh". He was definitely sure of who God presented to him that she was rightly his wife. The plain reason for this is that Adam was created a Living soul as such he was able to link up with God easily and was fully persuaded that God took from his bones and created Eve. This book explains how we can become Living souls to obtain God's divine favor in Marriage.This book reveals the areas of our weaknesses in choosing a life partner. It also shows how the devil entraps us during Courtship with petting, necking, fondling all in the guise of love while with impunity we set out to defile the bed of marriage. When we finally marry we carry along the judgment of God into our new Homes because we have polluted and corrupted our bodies which is meant to be the Lord's property.This book exposes the Fruit of the Spirit, the Gifts of the Spirit and our Ministry Gifts as our three in one mandatory package to be fulfilled before Believers can enter into God's Pefect will in Marriage. It also stresses the need for every Believer not to be hasty in their choice for life partners thus slip into the Good or Permissive will of God in Marriage these last days. This is because there will be no time to correct the wrongs and make the crooked places straightened in our lives due to the pressures of the present world challenges.

The book reveals that marriage is an institution created by God and not the traditions of men. As an institution there are laid down pre-requisite conditions that must be fulfilled in order to gain entrance into it. With scriptural proofs the book explains step by step how we can fulfill these conditions to gain access into the Perfect will of God in Marriage. It also defines the union of the man and his wife as Christ and the Church to be in the state of spirit to spirit, soul to soul and body to body compatibility. No Wonder the scripture describes Marriage as a Great Mystery. We cannot afford to make mistakes at this time through the random sampling and defilement of our bodies before we make a choice of a life partner. This is because God has provided enough knowledge for us these last days to put our lives straight with Him. Besides Jesus had warned us in Matthew 24 that our last days shall be like the days of Noah when many were marrying and given into marriage but the flood came and swept them all away. Therefore Marriage these last days should be taken seriously. Ignorance is not an Excuse.

In the final book of Ginger Voight's Groupie Trilogy, Andy and Vanni have returned to Los Angeles to prepare for the birth of their child. A reformed Ladies' Man, Giovanni Carnevale now embarks on a life of monogamy with the woman he loves, but the ghosts of his past still continue to haunt their newfound happiness. The Wilke family wants to see him pay for the damage he has done to their precious Baylee, who still lies in a vegetative state. For her brother, Donny, money will never be enough to make up for what Vanni has done, but that is where the Wilke family first seeks their revenge, demanding millions of dollars in restitution. To ensure he has enough money to make up for his mistakes as well as provide for his baby, Vanni takes on the job as judge for a new reality talent show called "Fierce," where he champions an unlikely contestant, proving him to be a man of substance more than anyone could have imagined. Graham tries to move on, but when he discovers that Andy is pregnant he cannot stop dreaming of what might have been. Maggie watches on helplessly, as hopelessly in love with him as he is with someone else. She considers moving on before he shatters what is left of her heart. The biggest threat to Vanni and Andy's Happily Ever After is Holly Neal, who returns to Los Angeles claiming to carry Vanni's baby. Graham and Andy suspect she is up to her old tricks, but Vanni knows truly turning over a new leaf means he has to do right by all the people he has wronged - including a child he may have conceived with another woman. In the end, it is Andy and their baby who may pay the biggest price of all for his sins, when Baylee's death sends her psychotic brother over the edge. Everything blows literally to pieces, forcing Vanni - and Graham - to give it all for the sake of love.

This book offers a nuanced picture of mixed family life in the UK. Specifically, the book explores how parents from different backgrounds create a place of belonging for their children, while also negotiating difference and attempting to transmit various aspects of their cultures, including religion, hobbies, language and food to their mixed children. Based on data collected from 26 months of fieldwork, the author concludes that the intergenerational transmission of culture, instead of being tied to the idea of "national culture", is actually more organic and fluid, allowing individuals to share their "cultures", from traditions and customs to preferences and habits, with the next generation. As mixedness increasingly becomes the norm in our global society, the book will be of interest to students and scholars of race, ethnicity and family studies, as well as social workers, school teachers, counsellors, and parents and kin of mixed children.
