Building Industries at Sea - 'Blue Growth' and the New Maritime Economy Kate Johnson, Ian Masters, Gordon

Dalton, 2022-09-01 Throughout the world there is evidence of mounting interest in marine resources and new maritime industries to create jobs, economic growth and to help in the provision of energy and food security. Expanding populations, insecurity of traditional sources of supply and the effects of climate change add urgency to a perceived need to address and overcome the serious challenges of working in the maritime environment. Four promising areas of activity for 'Blue Growth' have been identified at European Union policy level including Aquaculture; Renewable Energy (offshore wind, wave and tide); Seabed Mining; and Blue Biotechnology. Work has started to raise the technological and investment readiness levels (TRLs and IRLs) of these prospective industries drawing on the experience of established maritime industries such as Offshore Oil and Gas; Shipping; Fisheries and Tourism. An accord has to be struck between policy makers and regulators on the one hand, anxious to direct research and business incentives in effective and efficient directions, and developers, investors and businesses on the other, anxious to reduce the risks of such potentially profitable but innovative investments. The EU H2020 MARIBE (Marine Investment for the Blue Economy) funded project was designed to identify the key technical and non-technical challenges facing maritime industries and to place them into the social and economic context of the coastal and ocean economy. MARIBE went on to examine with companies, real projects for the combination of marine industry sectors into multi-use platforms (MUPs). The purpose of this book is to publish the detailed analysis of each prospective and established maritime business sector. Sector experts working to a common template explain what these industries are, how they work, their prospects to create wealth and employment, and where they currently stand in terms of innovation, trends and their lifecycle. The book goes on to describe progress with the changing regulatory and planning regimes in the European Sea Basins including the Caribbean where there are significant European interests. The book includes:

- Experienced chapter authors from a truly multidisciplinary team of sector specialisms
- First extensive study to compare and contrast traditional Blue Economy with Blue Growth
- Complementary to EU and National policies for multi-use of maritime space

Auditory Prostheses Fan-Gang Zeng, Arthur N. Popper, Richard R. Fay, 2011-09-15 Cochlear implants are currently the standard treatment for profound sensorineural hearing loss. In the last decade, advances in auditory science and technology have not only greatly expanded the utility of electric stimulation to other parts of the auditory nervous system in addition to the cochlea, but have also demonstrated drastic changes in the brain in responses to electric stimulation, including changes in language development and music perception. Volume 20 of SHAR focused on basic science and technology underlying the cochlear implant. However, due to the newness of the ideas and technology, the volume did not cover any emerging applications such as bilateral cochlear implants, combined acoustic-electric stimulation, and other types of auditory prostheses, nor did it review brain plasticity in responses to electric stimulation and its perceptual and language consequences. This proposed volume takes off from Volume 20, and expands the examination of implants into new and highly exciting areas. This edited book starts with an overview and introduction by Dr. Fan-Gang Zeng. Chapters 2-9 cover technological development and the advances in treating the full spectrum of ear disorders in the last ten years. Chapters 10-15 discuss brain responses to electric stimulation and their perceptual impact. This volume is particularly exciting because there have been quantum leap from the traditional technology discussed in Volume 20. Thus, this volume is timely and will be of real importance to the SHAR audience.

The Poison Glen Annemarie Ní Churreáin, 2021

Revolutionizing a World Mark Altaweel, Andrea Squitieri, 2018-02-15 This book investigates the long-term continuity of large-scale states and empires, and its effect on the Near East's social fabric, including the fundamental changes that occurred to major social institutions. Its geographical coverage spans, from east to west, modern-day Libya and Egypt to Central Asia, and from north to south, Anatolia to southern Arabia, incorporating modern-day Oman and Yemen. Its temporal coverage spans from the late eighth century BCE to the seventh century CE during the rise of Islam and collapse of the Sasanian Empire. The authors argue that the persistence of large states and empires starting in the eighth/seventh centuries BCE, which continued for many centuries, led to new socio-political structures and institutions emerging in the Near East. The primary processes that enabled this emergence were large-scale and long-distance movements, or population migrations. These patterns of social developments are analysed under different aspects: settlement patterns, urban structure, material culture, trade, governance, language spread and religion, all pointing at movement as the main catalyst for social change. This book's argument is framed within a larger theoretical framework termed as 'universalism', a theory that explains many of the social transformations that happened to societies in the Near East, starting from the Neo-Assyrian period and continuing for centuries. Among other influences, the effects of these transformations are today manifested in modern languages, concepts of government, universal religions and monetized and globalized economies.

Destination Branding Nigel Morgan,Annette Pritchard,Roger Pride,2007-06-07 In today's highly competitive market, many destinations - from individual resorts to countries - are adopting branding techniques similar to those used by 'Coca Cola', 'Nike' and 'Sony' in an effort to differentiate their identities and to emphasize the uniqueness of their product. By focusing on a range of global case studies, Destination Branding demonstrates that the adoption of a highly targeted, consumer research-based, multi-agency 'mood branding' initiative leads to success every time.

The Bedford Handbook Diana Hacker,Nancy Sommers,2013-10-18 What habits are common among good college writers? Good college writers are curious, engaged, reflective, and responsible. They read critically. They write with purpose. They tune into their audience. They collaborate and seek feedback. They know credible evidence makes them credible researchers. They revise. The Bedford Handbook, based on surveys with more than 1,000 first-year college students, fosters these habits and offers more support than ever before for college reading and writing. New writing guides support students as they compose in an ever-wider variety of genres, including multimodal genres. New reading support encourages students to become active readers. Retooled research advice emphasizes inquiry and helps writers cite even the trickiest digital sources confidently and responsibly. Best of all, the Handbook remains a trusted companion for students because it is accessible, comprehensive, and authoritative. Instructors benefit, too: A substantially revised Instructor's Edition includes Nancy Sommers's personal mentoring—more than 100 new concrete tips for teaching with the handbook. Finally, integrated digital content is easily assignable and helps students practice and apply the handbook's lessons.

Stone in a Landslide Maria Barbal,2011-11-01 The Catalan modern classic, first published in 1985, now in its 50th edition, for the first time in English. The beginning of the 20th century: 13-year-old Conxa leaves her home village in the Pyrenees to work for her childless aunt. After years of hardship she finds love with Jaume - a love that will be thwarted by the Spanish Civil War. Approaching her own death, Conxa looks back on a life in which she has lost everything except her own indomitable spirit. Why Peirene chose to publish this book: 'I fell in love with Conxa's narrative voice, its stoic calmness and the complete lack of anger and bitterness. It's a timeless voice, down to earth and full of human contradictory nuances. It's the expression of someone who searches for understanding in a changing world but senses that ultimately there may be no such thing.' Meike Ziervogel 'Sparse and haunting.' Katy Guest, Independent 'The compression is so deft, the young narrator's voice so strong, so particular, her straightforward evocation of the hard labour and rare pleasures of mountain life . . . so vibrant, that it makes me want to take scissors to everything else I read.' Richard Lea, Guardian 'A Pyrenean life told in a quietly effective voice.' Daniel Hahn, Independent 'There is an understated power in Barbal's depiction of how the forces of history can shape the life of the powerless.' Adrian Turpin, Financial Times 'A masterpiece of world literature and a shining example of the virtuosity of elegant and concise prose.' Pam Norfolk, Lancashire Evening Post 'Air-tight believability.' Matthew Tree, Times Literary Supplement INDEPENDENT BOOKS OF THE YEAR 2010 FOYLES BOOKS OF THE YEAR 2010

Heritage Sites of Astronomy and Archaeoastronomy in the Context of the UNESCO World Heritage Convention

Clive L. N. Ruggles, 2012 This Thematic Study is a joint venture between ICOMOS, the advisory body to UNESCO on cultural sites, and the International Astronomical Union. It presents an overall vision on astronomical heritage, attempts to identify what constitutes outstanding universal significance to humankind in relation to astronomy, and identifies broad issues that could arise in the assessment of cultural properties relating to astronomy. This is the first Thematic Study in any field of science heritage. It is elaborated using examples of properties from around the world, including some already on the World Heritage List or national Tentative Lists. The subject matter ranges from early prehistory to modern astrophysics and space heritage, and also prominently includes dark sky issues and modern observatory sites. An e-version of the Thematic Study was published in June 2010 in time to be presented to the 2010 meeting of UNESCO's World Heritage Committee, where it was duly approved. It has been circulated officially by the WHC to all of UNESCO's National Commissions. This full-colour paperback edition with some updates, and reformatted to new ICOMOS standards, was published in 2011 and is now offered for public sale.

Staying with the Trouble Donna J. Haraway, 2016-08-25 In the midst of spiraling ecological devastation, multispecies feminist theorist Donna J. Haraway offers provocative new ways to reconfigure our relations to the earth and all its inhabitants. She eschews referring to our current epoch as the Anthropocene, preferring to conceptualize it as what she calls the Chthulucene, as it more aptly and fully describes our epoch as one in which the human and nonhuman are inextricably linked in tentacular practices. The Chthulucene, Haraway explains, requires sym-poiesis, or making-with, rather than auto-poiesis, or self-making. Learning to stay with the trouble of living and dying together on a damaged earth will prove more conducive to the kind of thinking that would provide the means to building more livable futures. Theoretically and methodologically driven by the signifier SF—string figures, science fact, science fiction, speculative feminism, speculative fabulation, so far—Staying with the Trouble further cements Haraway's reputation as one of the most daring and original thinkers of our time.

(Portekiz) tarafından yürütüldü. Editör: Ahmet ARSLAN Çeviri: Semra ÇATAL Dizgi- Mizanpaj: Yusuf ÖZCAN Kapak: Enia RASHITI 02.03.2020 Önsöz “İstikbal Göklerdedir” diyen bir liderin evlatları olarak, çocuklarımıza ileri, hep daha ileri diyerek çıktık yola. Çocuklarımızın hayal dünyalarını uzak ülkelerden farklı kültürlerdeki çocuklarla buluşturmak adına eTwinning portalı üzerinden “A Day in Another Planet” başlığıyla duyuruya çıktığımızda birçok ülkeden sayısız teklifler aldık. Ortak okulların belirlenmesinde farklı kültür ve dillerin olması noktasında seçici davrandık. Türkiye’den Ali Tekinsoy Ortaokulu kuruculuğunda Portekiz, Sırbistan, İtalya, Kuzey Makedonya, Polonya ve İspanya’dan katılımcı okulların desteğiyle öğrencilerimizi gerek sosyal medyadan, gerek online ortamlarda defalarca buluşturduk. “Hayaller birlikte kurulduğunda gerçekleşir” diyerek başladık hayal kurmaya ve hayalimize yedi ülkeden yüzlerce çocuk ortak oldu. Sonunda 7 dilde 77 kısa öykünün ışık yaydığı bir gökyüzü inşa ettik. Sayılar önemsiz, önemli olan bize getirdiği ışıltıydı. Farklı ülkelerden yaratıcı fikirleri olan meslektaşlarımızla ve öğrencileriyle tanıştık, günleri ve geceleri bir eser meydana getirmek için harcadık. Öğrencilerimiz birlikte kısa öyküler yazdı, resimler çizdi, çalışmalarını sergiledi, farklı Web 2.0 araçlarını kullandı, ülkelerini anlattı, oyunlar hazırladı, şarkılar söyledi. Bu çalışmalarla uzak ülkeleri ve uzak insanları yakınlaştırdık. Öğrencilerimizin yurtdışından bir akrasıyla konuşması, iletişim kurması, duygularını paylaşmasının ne kadar farklı ve heyecan verici bir tecrübe olduğunu çocuklarımızın gözlerine baktığımızdaki heyecandan ve mutluluklarından hissettik. Bu süreçte öğrencilerimizin İngilizce dil yeterliliği konusunda edindikleri tecrübenin yanında, kültürler arası bir yolculuğa da çıkmış oldular. Sizlerde bu kitabın sayfalarını çevirdiğinizde yedi farklı dilden ve kültürden öğrencinin yazdığı hayal dünyalarını gösteren özgün ve benzersiz öykülere rastlayacaksınız. Çok az yazar öykülerinin farklı dillere çevrildiğini görmüştür, belki ilk kısa öykülerini iki dile çevirdiğimiz geleceğin yazarlarıyla, dünyamızı değiştirecek yeni dünyalar yaratma yolculuğunun başında tanışmak şansını yakaladık. Bu projeye başlarken benim en çok merak ettiğim konu ise Türkiye’de öğrenim gören öğrenciler ile diğer Avrupa ülkelerindeki öğrencilerin hayal dünyalarını karşılaştırmak, verilen eğitimin ve yaşanılan kültürün hayal dünyasına, yaratıcılığa ve özgünlüğe etkisini gözlemlemektir. Sizler de bu güzide çalışmayı okurken çocuklarımızın hayal dünyasına dalacağınıza, onların hislerini içinizde hissedeceğinize eminim. Uzaya yolculuk, ‘7 dilde 77 Uzay Macerası’ temalı, “Gökyüzündeki Işıkların Öyküsü” isimli bu eserin ortaya çıkmasında büyük emek harcayan başta Ali Tekinsoy Ortaokulu öğretmenlerine ve diğer altı ülkeden kıymetli meslektaşlarıma, Avrupa’nın dört bir yanından kitabımıza katkı sağlayan öğrencilerimize çok teşekkür ederim. Ahmet ARSLAN Editor Preface As the followers of a leader who says The future is in the skies, we set out by telling “Forward, always further to our children. We introduced our project works through the eTwinning portal in order to bring our children's dream worlds together with children from different cultures and distant countries. When we made the announcement with the title of A Day in Another Planet, we received numerous offers from many schools. We selected our partner schools carefully to provide a colorful project with students from different cultures and languages. With the support of participating schools from Portugal, Serbia, Italy, North Macedonia, Poland and Spain;

our students met with each other many times by online meetings apps with the organisation of Ali Tekinsoy Secondary School in Turkey. We begin to dream by saying Dreams become real when dreamed together and hundreds of children from seven countries shared the same dream with us. We eventually built a shining sky where 77 short stories in 7 languages spread their light. The numbers are just numbers; the important thing is the glow it provides us. We met with creative teachers and students from different countries; we spent days and nights to create a literal work. Our students wrote short stories, drew pictures, introduced their countries, exhibited their works, used different Web 2.0 tools, prepared games and sang songs together. Participants from distant countries became closer through these works. We felt the excitement and happiness of our children when we looked into their eyes how different and exciting it was for our students to talk, communicate and share their feelings and works with the peers from different countries. In this process, besides the experience of our students in English language proficiency, they also went on an intercultural journey. When you turn pages of this book, I'm sure you will find unique stories that show dream worlds built by the students from seven different languages and cultures. Most of authors can't have the distinct honor of translation their stories into different languages. So we had the chance to meet the great authors, whose first short stories were translated into two foreign languages, at the beginning of their journey to create new worlds that would change our world. While we were designing this project, what I was most curious about was to compare dream worlds of students studying in Turkey with the students from other European countries and observe the impact of different educational and cultural background on imagination, creativity and originality. When you began to journey by holding this unique work in your hands, I'm sure our children's dream worlds will immerse you too and will feel their feelings inside you. Firstly, I'd like to thank the teachers of Ali Tekinsoy Secondary School and my distinguished colleagues from partner schools because of their great efforts to create this work, named Stories of Lights in the Sky whose theme is space adventures in 7 languages, and to the students who provide great contribution to our book from all over Europe. The Bible in Buffalo Country Sally K. May,Laura Rademaker,Donna Nadjamerrek,Julie Narndal Gumurdul,2020-10-08 Arriving in the remote Arnhem Land Aboriginal settlement of Oenpelli (Gunbalanya) in 1925, Alf and Mary Dyer aimed to bring Christ to a former buffalo shooting camp and an Aboriginal population many whites considered difficult to control. The Bible in Buffalo Country: Oenpelli Mission 1925-1931 represents a snapshot of the tumultuous first six years of the Church Missionary Society's mission at Oenpelli and the superintendency of Alfred Dyer between 1925 and 1931. Drawing together documentary and photographic sources with local community memory, a story emerges of miscommunication, sickness, constant logistical issues, and an Aboriginal community choosing when and how to engage with the newcomers to their land. This book provides a fascinating and detailed record of the primary sources of the mission, placed alongside the interpretation and insight of local Traditional Owners. Its contents include the historical and archaeological context of the primary source material, the vivid mission reports and correspondence, along with stunning photographs of the mission and relevant maps, and finally the oral history of Esther Manakgu, presenting Aboriginal memory of this complex era. The Bible in Buffalo Country emerged from community desire for access to the source documents of their own history and for their story to be known by the broader Australian public. It is intended for the benefit of communities in western Arnhem Land and is also a rich resource for historians of Aboriginal history (and other scholars in relevant disciplines).
