A multicultural cast of children imagines what it would be like to be president. Imagine living in the White House, a mansion where you wouldn't have to leave home to go bowling or see a movie! Imagine a chef to cook anything you like. "Two desserts, Madam President? No problem!" If you were president, there would be a lot of work to do too. You would be in charge of the armed forces, give important speeches, and work with Congress to create laws for the whole country!

The print Practice Book is designed to accompany the Adventures in Time and Place student text. Designed to convey the entire scope of social studies: history, geography, citizenship, economics and culture, this hands-on resource makes content relevant and help all students succeed.

Through moving prose and beautiful watercolors, award-winning author-illustrator duo collaborate to tell the poignant tale of a spirited young girl who comes face to face with segregation in her southern town. There's a place in this 1950s southern town where all are welcome, no matter what their skin color...and 'Tricia Ann knows exactly how to get there. To her, it's someplace special and she's bursting to go by herself. When her grandmother sees that she's ready to take such a big step, 'Tricia Ann hurries to catch the bus heading downtown. But unlike the white passengers, she must sit in the back behind the Jim Crow sign and wonder why life's so unfair. Still, for each hurtful sign seen and painful comment heard, there's a friend around the corner reminding 'Tricia Ann that she's not alone. And even her grandmother's words—"You are somebody, a human being—no better, no worse than anybody else in this world"—echo in her head, lifting her spirits and pushing her forward.

Describes five geography themes, each introduces a new concept to help children describe their own adventure as they explore the different parts of My world.

"Each unit in Pre-K Social Studies give ... strategies to help children learn about attributes such as courage, freedom, honesty, justice, leadership, loyalty, respect, and responsibility." (page v, teacher's guide).
