Your Macrame worries are over. This book will help you take that first step. Because here's the great thing about macrame: Even the most basic macrame knots can make drop-dead gorgeous patterns. If you can tie a knot, you can macrame. You can make so many things with just these basic knots under your belt such as wall hanging, pillow, ... Create beautiful macramé projects that invoke the sacred elements of Earth, Air, Water, Fire and Spirit. The idea of classical 'elements' is common to many belief systems including Ancient Greek, Egyptian, Babylonian, Hinduism and Buddhism, as well as Chinese and Japanese philosophies. The five elements of the Pagan religion Wicca represent the five points of the pentagram, a powerful sacred symbol. No matter what your beliefs, paying attention to the forces of nature can bring a greater sense of spirituality and calm to your life, which is equally true of the craft of macramé, which like all handicrafts has proven benefits for wellbeing. This unique and beautiful book celebrates each of the Earth's sacred elements with projects that even beginners to macramé can tackle with ease. In nature, each element has its own specific properties, colours and stones associated with it, which these projects incorporate to dramatic effect. The 20 projects include dreamcatchers, wall hangings, home accessories and jewellery, which all draw their inspiration from nature and the elements. Many of the projects have crystals incorporated into them, for the good vibrations and healing energy they bring. You'll also learn how to dip-dye macrame for wonderful ombre effects and work with a variety of different coloured cords to bring beauty and interest to your pieces. Make a tree of life hoop to connect with the earth, a dreamcatcher to protect you during sleep, a hanging fruit bowl to feed and nourish you, and a plant hanger to purify your air. Make a necklace to bring out your inner goddess, a crystal suncatcher to capture your fire, or some coasters for your altar candles to sit on. With 20 projects to choose from you will find a whole host of ways to enjoy macramé in a new intentional, spiritual light. Author Rebecca Millar is best known as the creator of Vanir Creations, who has amassed a huge online following for her dreamy macramé hoops and moon catchers. Entirely self-taught, Rebecca now generously shares her secrets in this book, which demystifies the craft with simple explanations of the knots and techniques required.

Or Do you want to use them as a gift for your friends and loved ones or as products to sell? If your answer to these questions is yes, keep reading! Macramé is a type of textile-making that dates back to the 13th century. It was invented by Arab weavers, who used surplus ribbons and yarns as decorative fringes for towels, veils, shawls, and more. This art doesn't demand the conventional method of weaving or knitting, but it uses alternatively different types of knots. Macramé can be made by anyone who is able to tie hitches. This art uses materials that include cotton, nylon, hemp, and manila cord. The craftsman making this art utilizes these various materials to wrap bottles and chime ringers and make floor mats, napkins, needle cases, and so forth. With the variety of materials utilized, you can match your macramé objects with any stylistic theme you have in your home. These artwork pieces can be set in your home to add some extraordinary touches, particularly with a nautical stylistic theme. An acclaimed artist celebrates the creative possibilities of macramé and knots in this memoir and guide featuring projects and tutorials. Every day for a year, artist Windy Chien learned to tie a new kind of knot and then shared the results on Instagram—a project that both reinvented her life and revolutionized knot art. In The Year of Knots, Chien describes how knot-making led her on a path of discovery. She shares projects, tutorials, and transformative personal stories, all aimed at inspiring readers to make knotting—and creativity in general—part of a meditative daily practice. The knots in this book are gorgeously documented step-by-step. Knotted projects abound—from wall hangings to a necklace, a dog leash, a hanging light, and more. At the heart of the story is the simple, empowering idea that a single year is all the time you need to make a life-changing creative leap.
